Our money saving plan for you

We have been out of the Fishing Tackle business for years, but at the request of our friends, have this year ordered a small but complete assortment of Rods, Reels, Lines, Flies, Casts, Baskets, &c., &c. which now awaits your inspection.

This is our plan

We intend to dispose of our entire stock of Fishing tackle during the next two or three months at prices which will simply astonish and delight you, as all we want is a fair rate of interest on our investment. It's to your advantage to see our stock at once.

It will pay you.

First of the "tub suits"

Yesterday morning we opened a very smart line of wash suits for ladies. These suits are made up in drills and in linens, plain and striped fabrics—they are made in the very most modern styles—the coats are as smartly cut as your cloth suit, and the skirts hang gracefully. And the prices are not hard to pay, for example:—

At $4.95	Smart Suit of champagne drill, semi fitting coat 34 inches long, 9 gored has bias fold of pale blue linen, and the collar pockets and cuffs of the coat are also finished in pale blue.	At $7.50	Very handsome suits in pure linen, tan or pale blue, 34 inch coat, cut away front, square corners, 11 gore skirt, has bias folds and self buttons.
At $4.95	A very dainty suit of white drill, made very trimly, in similar style to the above, but in all white.	At $7.50	A stripe linen suit, right up to the minute, has 34 inch coat, cut away front, square corners, 11 gore skirt, has bias folds of fabric same shade as the stripe in the pattern. Effects of white and tan, champagne and tan, white and sky.

Have you seen our "dollar shirt"?

The reason why the men who usually pay 1.25 and 1.50 for shirts are buying our dollar shirts—is found in the fact that the our dollar shirt is a dollar twenty five quality. We figured out every good point that we thought a dollar shirt could have—then we hunted up a mill that would make that sort of a shirt—at a price that made a dollar possible. It meant big buying to get it—but we have it in tremendous range of colours and patterns—compare our dollar shirt with the best 1.25 elsewhere and you will buy ours at 1.00

The only better shirts than our dollar shirts to be had in town—can be seen in our own varieties at 1.25, 1.35 and 1.50. Look them over.

We have every sort of nice summer hosiery—plain and fancy—in tremendous range of colours and patterns. 25c, 35c, 50c.

Suspenders, handkerchiefs, collars and cuffs, umbrellas, neckwear of every sort, sweaters, and the rest of a man's furnishing requirements are here in a stock that is a little bit better and broader than you are used to—unless you're one of our customers. Come in and talk it over—we want your spring order.

The summer underwear that we offer you will wear well, will feel well, will fit well, per suit. 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 up.
