LONG BRANCH (N. J.) Feb. 9. - "James B. Duke, the tobacco king, recently claimed in an interview that he had spent more money in advertising than any other living man. He said that the figures would reach fifty million dollars. - News paper item.

Yet James B. Duke is to-day one of the wealthiest men in the world. What you see a liberal advertiser you see a rich man. The business man who in the age of advertising is afraid to invest any money in publicity will never accumulate a fortune. - Record.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., LIMITED. Some time ago I had a bad attack of Quinsy which laid me up for two weeks and cost a lot of money.

Finding the lump again forming in my throat, I lashed freely with MINARD'S LINIMENT, and saturating a cloth with the liniment left it on all night.

Next morning the swelling was gone and I attributed the warding off of an attack of Quinsy to the free use of MINARD'S LINIMENT. G. E. WORDEN, St. John.

The Dunlop Creed

WE believe that the trade mark, the two hands, is the most valuable asset in our business, and we shall aim to keep it always in good repute by fair and square dealing.

¶ We believe it is in the fullest sense injurious to our prospects to allow the Dunlop trade mark to be placed on any goods not made of a superior quality of rubber.

¶ We believe in quality. We know that the satisfaction quality gives is lasting, while the satisfaction a purchaser has in buying cheaply is short lived. When he does not find quality he forgets the price paid and begins to think he has been fooled.

¶ As we hope to last in this business we affirm it is our unalterable determination never to compromise the Dunlop standard of quality in rubber.
