

KEITH & PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE, NEW YORK, WEEK OF DECEMBER 6TH, 1909.

At Keith and Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre for the week of December 6th, the stellar luminary will be the remarkable French soprano Mme. Camille Ober, a young woman possessing the highest vocal range of any living singer. Mme. Ober's voice covers four full octaves and has all the warmth and mellowness of the most sonorous contralto in combination with the impassioned tonal quality necessary for the most dramatic of sopranos.

covers four full octaves and has all the warmth and mellowness of the most sonorous contralto in combination with the impassioned tonal quality necessary for the most dramatic of sopranos.

Eight acts will accompany this feature offering, instead of the usual seven seen in the rounding out of the Keith and Proctor program. Foremost among them will be the Six Mustas Cutty, a turn which impresses at ever hearing and a distinct credit to America; Hoey and Lee, the Hebrew parodists, will come next and the popular songs of the day will receive some rough treatment from these two entertaining chaps.

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" so be sure and get the genuine when you ask for it.

"Caught Cold."

Had a Distressing, Tickling Sensation In The Throat.

Mr. Albert MacPhee, Chignecto Mines, N.S., writes: "In Oct., 1908, I caught cold by working in water, and had a very bad cough and that distressing, tickling sensation in my throat so that I could not sleep at night, and my lungs were so very sore that I had to give up work. My doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup combines the potent healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Sore Throat, Pain or Tightness in the Chest, and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" so be sure and get the genuine when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MRS. CARNEGIE ENJOYS AUTO LECTURER'S RAPS

Continued from Page 4. There was an outburst of laughter at this rally at the expense of the millionaire, and it was observed that no one on the auto laughed more heartily than did Mrs. Carnegie, Miss Margaret and the Sutherlands. They enjoyed it immensely, and several times after the first outburst of merriment had subsided Mrs. Carnegie laughed again audibly, seemingly at the thought that she had a good joke on the Laird of Skibo and would have a little fun in springing it after she returned home.

The hearty cheer on which one cracked at Carnegie had not prompted the announcer to display his wit once more. When the auto had reached Thirty-eighth street and Fifth avenue an old man with white hair, short-cropped whiskers and an air of seediness came into view. "And now, ladies and gentlemen," the announcer shouted, "I have the wholly unexpected pleasure of showing to you old Andrew Carnegie himself. See how he totters beneath the weight of wealth. You are singularly fortunate, for you might come out with us a hundred times and never see the old man again."

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Gentlemen—Last winter I received great benefit from the use of MINARD'S LINIMENT in a severe attack of La Grippe, and I have frequently proved it to be very effective in cases of inflammation.

Everybody looked with interest at the steady graybeard tottering along the sidewalk. None eyed him more keenly than did the Carnegies and the Sutherlands.

"Can it be possible that that old fellow is Andrew Carnegie?" a woman fresh from the country inquired, turning to Mrs. Carnegie.

"The announcer says so," Mrs. Carnegie replied, and then she and her daughter and friends burst into peals of laughter, which gave the cue to the other passengers.

Finally the auto reached its stand and every one disembarked. "You've had an unusual distinction," one of the announcer's friends said as he stepped from his perch, megaphone in hand.

"What do you mean?" the announcer inquired. "Why, don't you know that you had Mrs. Andrew Carnegie and her daughter and a party of friends for passengers?"

"Know it! Good heavens, man! You don't mean it?" the announcer exclaimed, perspiration pouring from his forehead and the megaphone dropping from his nerveless fingers. "And next week's rent week, too."
