Ontario Liberals May Turn "Wet"

ACCLAMATION FOR COLLIVER, CONSERVATIVE, HAS UNUSUAL SIGNIFICANCE. TORONTO, Nov. 10.—Acclamation for H. S. Colliver, Conservative, in the provincial by-election for Prince Edward, Ont., has unusual significance.

Since the seat was reopened, Liberals and Progressives have been in considerable talking as to what would happen to any candidate upholding the Government policy, and a warm battle was seemingly assured. A. A. Morden, of Wellington, Liberal and prohibitionist was accorded the nomination had begun his withdrawal on account of illness in his family.

Overtures were then made to Nelson Parliament, a former Liberal member for the riding and Speaker of the Legislature during the term of the United Farmers Government, Mr. Parliament, by the way, had a majority of over 900 in the 1919 election. He declined to enter the contest. His decision was of importance, since he had been looking after organization on the Liberal behalf in his capacity as the provincial party's organizer and right hand man to the Ontario Liberal leader.

Thereupon the Liberals again convened and decided that they would not put a man in the field, but would support any candidate selected by the prohibitionists. The latter, at a gathering held last week, also backed out. They had hoped to persuade ex-Mayor Fred Newman of Picton, a Conservative to carry their banner. He refused.

There was a good deal of talk at the meeting regarding the impossibility of proper organization in the short time between official nomination day, Nov. 2 and balloting day, Nov. 12. The drys also expressed the view that the expected reaction was bound to come, and would be the more marked if the Government were given the time between now and the next general election to attempt to carry out their Liquor Control Act.

Some Suspicious All of which may be comforting to some, but is regarded with suspicion by many observers. Some of these are in the successive councils of war and retreats, confirmation of a story reported in Toronto, that the official Liberal party of Ontario may abandon the prohibition platform. It is claimed that a statement issued by Mr. Sinclair at the time of the last election leaves room for this. Some go so far as to say that the Liberals will go the other way and attempt to carry out the sale of liquor with meads that such an attitude would be officially adopted until the present measure has had a longer chance to show its merits and develop any weaknesses. Nor is it likely that they would be agreed upon without the support of a convention of the Ontario Liberals. It is true, however, that many prominent Liberals do favor a change of policy. In this they are in accord with a large following in the ranks.

The Progressives instead of fusing with the Liberals as some have predicted may emerge as the simple pure prohibitionist party, in keeping with the principles of the United Farmers of Ontario whence they sprang. The U. F. O. does not reserve that honor for who contested ridings last year. Farmers and were officially endorsed by them.

It is a mixed situation so far as the Opposition groups in the Legislature are concerned, and for them it is likely to be worse rather than better for some years to come. The Government is in good favor with the people of Ontario generally, for its all-round policy of progress and advancement in all phases touching the life of the province, and it is entitled to some satisfaction over the development in Prince Edward its additional supporter, Mr. Colliver, had one term in the Legislature, defeating Nelson Parliament by 19 votes in 1923 only to fall before Mr. Raney last year. He is a successful Picton business man, has been mayor of the town in 1924, and is county and a leader in educational and other social movements.

Dick: "Have you noticed how Hobson drops his aspirates?" Harry: "Yes, but that's nothing to the way he drops his vowels. I've more than a dozen of his I. O. U.'s."

The Markets (Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 10.—There was some demand from New York exporters for wheat on the Montreal grain market today, but owing to the small offerings in nearby positions the volume of business was curtailed and only sales of a few loads of No. 2 northern were made at 17 1-2 c per bush, over the Winnipeg option, c. i. f., Montreal. The United Kingdom demand was quiet. With reference to full cargo ocean grain freight from the port of Montreal a weak feeling has developed in the market and rates have scored a sharp decline owing to the increased offerings on spot. Engagements were made yesterday and today at 13c to 13 1-2 c per hundred pounds for wheat to Rotterdam and Berth rates to Hamburg have dropped to 15c to 15 1-2 c per hundred pounds with little room offering to Antwerp and Rotterdam by regular liners. In sympathy with the strength in rates futures at Winnipeg, spot prices for grades were advanced one cent per bushel. The demand was fair. No. 2 C. W. were quoted at 73c and No. 3 C. W. at 70c per bushel. Owing to the strength that had prevailed in the Winnipeg cash wheat situation of late, a stronger feeling developed here for spring wheat and flour prices were marked up ten cents per barrel. First patents were moderate. First patents were at $7.50, second patents at $7.30 and strong bakers at $7.10 per barrel. The undertone to the winter wheat flour market was also firmer and indications are that prices will be advanced in the near future. Prices for bran and shorts in the mill were advanced $1.00 per ton. This was attributed to the improvement in the demand for late and especially so from the United States. Bran was quoted at $31.25, and shorts at $33.25, while middlings were unchanged. The trade in standard grades of rolled oats was fair and values were firm. The demand for all grades of eggs continued good and prices ruled steady. The receipts were 192 cases. A fair amount of business was transacted in potatoes and prices were firm. Sales of car lots of Prince Edward Island whites were made at $1.35 per bag of ninety pounds, New Brunswick Green Mountains at $1.35 per bag in bulk and Quebec varieties at $1.10 to $1.10 per bag in bulk extract. Prices for imported beans were well maintained under a moderate demand. Car lots of choice white hand-picked were sold at $2.50 per bushel on spot and to arrive at $2.60 per bushel extract, while smaller quantities sold at 2 1/2 per bushel ex-store. The butter trade was without any new feature to note. The undertone was steady with a moderate amount of business. Owing to a marked improvement in the market from English importers for cheese, the active business resulted which created a better enquiry between houses on spot and prices advanced 1 1/2 c to 1 1/4 c per pound, when grad's were quoted at 19 c to 20 1/2 c per pound. The receipts were 2,842 boxes.

Girl Faces Court In Napoleon's Decree PARIS, Nov. 10.—When Napoleon was at Moscow he had time to think of other things besides the Russians who were about to drive him out, for he signed a decree under which the Comedie Francaise regulated the lives of its functionaries and obliged them to stay on the job twenty years.

Today the pretty blonde comedienne, Hugette Duflou, who left the Maison de Moliere to act in another theatre, had to defend herself in a case brought under the decree by the Comedie Francaise, which asked 300,000 francs damages. She found it difficult to get around the old Napoleonic order.

Mlle. Duflou left because she was refused a role, which she claimed was expressly written for her. The management ordered the refusal as disciplinary measure in a company in which stars are not permitted.

Mlle. Duflou contended she was a star and went to the Porte Sainte Martin Theatre, where she was billed as a special attraction.

Fish And Game Protection

The need has long been felt for better protection and more stringent action taken against violators of the Fish and Game Acts of this Province with a view to their preservation and in some cases to prevent their almost complete extinction. At the instigation of a number of the sporting fraternity of this County and to meet the situation a meeting was held in the Civic building, Summerside, on November 1st, at 10.30 a. m. and again in the evening at 8 p. m.

It was decided to form an auxiliary for Prince County to the Fish and Game Association of Prince Edward Island and the following officers were elected:—Hon. President, Senator McArthur, Summerside; President, Rev. W. H. Harding, Summerside; Vice President, Reginald Forbes, Bedouque; Secretary, Treasurer, Morley M. Bell, Summerside; Executive Committee Hon. Charles Dalton, Tignish; James Tuplin, Conway; William Gamble, Southwest; John R. Brooks Linkletter, B. I. Rayner, Alberton; Lea Owen, Hamilton; Angus Clements, Hallowell; J. E. Campbell, Summerside; William Waldron, Type Valley; John F. Campbell, Cape Travers; L. B. Crue, Summerside.

It was decided to set the annual fees at one dollar. At both meetings Mr. R. W. Tufts, Game Inspector for the Maritime Provinces was present and he gave very interesting and instructive talks chiefly in regard to game protection. He explained the objects of the Association and the obstacles which they have to meet. He explained that there is a tendency in some sections towards violation of the law, which is inspired to a large extent either of a lawless element or those who are not in sympathy with the law chiefly through ignorance of its objects and results. For instance there is a feeling in some quarters that these should be Spring shooting allowed while if you get down to the very basis of reason those very parties are the first to realize and declare that the proper way to go about extermination of wild life (or even domestic life) is to kill off the breeders in the Spring Season before they have been allowed to hatch. For instance if an attempt were made to eradicate the English Sparrow, one would not wait until Fall after they had a full production, but would rather commence in the Spring before they hatched. In the same way what farmer would consider killing off his hens and fowl in the Spring of the year. The same principle applies to migratory birds and if every sportsman would give the matter more serious thought and cooperate with the authorities rather than try to buck them, they would realize that the present protection and in fact more stringent protection would be in the best interest of all concerned.

The same thing is true of trout and other species of fish. It is an undisputed fact that if the trout had to contend against fly or bait fishing only, there are always a sufficient number to way to be caught and consequently left for reproduction purposes. On the other hand if a net is used (the very thought of which is abhorrent to a sportsman) the fish does not have a sporting chance and a stream will soon become depleted beyond hope. This is a very short sighted policy to the men who will stoop to such a thing and while it does not give the fish a chance it is not fair to take men who stick to legal fishing. In addition to this it is only a few years ago that the violator will have no fishing of any kind.

The meeting was very informal and every person was invited and had a full opportunity of putting forward his ideas or asking questions. Some excellent suggestions were given and are to be acted upon. It is understood that a Provincial meeting for the same objects as this meeting is to be held. It is urged upon everyone, interested actively or otherwise in fishing and game protection to join up with the Association and co-operate in every way possible to make the Association a success. Anyone requiring information at any time will please communicate with the Executive.

New Books "THE KINGDOM OF THE SUN," BY A. M. STEPHEN, J. M. DENT & SONS, LTD. 1927

This is a romance of the Far West Coast of Canada in the good old days when Sir Francis Drake swept the Spanish main and penetrated the Pacific Ocean, it deals with the mysteries of a tribe of Indians, resident on the shores of British Columbia in that far distant age. Picturesque in themselves, possessed of a mythology quite as interesting as that of any European people, living in surroundings of matchless beauty and grandeur, it is represented that these Indians, in this part of Canada should furnish a background for a distinctive Canadian literature. This volume, by an author who lived many years in British Columbia and who has made for himself a name as a poet and creative artist, is certainly a contribution to literature that will interest all who delight in wonderful stories of "Ye olden time" and in well-written romance.
