DOGS KILLING SHEEP. Thirteen sheep belonging to different parties in Albany were killed by dogs recently. There is a number of worthless dogs running at large from one place to another. These creatures should be killed whenever found without a master. A very intresting case was tried a few day ago before Messers J. F. Hayes J. P. and M. C. Pearson J. P. An action was taken against a man in Albany to compel him to kill his dog, which had been caught in the act of killing a sheep and had been followed to the home of the accused. The latter claimed the dog was not his and refused to kill him on the grounds that he would be mada pay for the sheep but the magestraite thought otherwise and ordered the dog to be killed. The carcas of the sheep was indentified by a2reliable witness and the costs ordered to be paid by the accused. This should be a warning to others not to allow strange dogs to hang around the premises.

WHO CAN BEAT IT?— Mr. Henry W. Jenkins, general dealer of New Perth, has a Plymouth Rock pullet, which was hatched on April 23rd last and commenced laying Sept. 15th, four months and 22 days old. This lady of New Perth has laid five eggs in seven consecutive days, and is still on the job, and as for looks, she would take a prize in any beauty show.

Minard's Liniment for Burns, etc.

PROPERTY PURCHASE— Mr. J. J. McLeod has sold his desirable residence at 88 Hillsboro St. to Mrs. Hilda McKinnon, Montague. A good price was paid for the property.

SUCCESSFUL TEACHER.—Despite the fact that a very small percentage of entrance pupils of Alberta passed their examinations the Guardian is pleased to note that the Misses Flora Hackenhut and Theresa Krupp were successful. Their teacher Miss Laura MacKinnon of Prince Edward Island has engaged to teach at Onoway with a lucrative salary.

WEDDING BELLS — In New York City on Sept. 1st, 1920, the marriage took place of Miss Sarah Elliot MacNeill, formerly of Crapaud, P. E. I. and Mr. Harry [illegible] Bedarin of Addis, Louisiana. The bride wore a travelling suit of midnight blue, with large picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and sweet peas. The marriage is the culmination of a friendship started in France, when both were in the A. E. F. After visiting Providence, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., and St. Louis they will be at home at Addis, La., after Oct. 1.

AN ARTIST'S WORK.—Visitors to the city during the past few days were charmed with the exceptionally lovely window decorations of Patons Ltd, especially the millinery window, the artistic beauty of which was its simplicity, true handiwork of the firm's lady window dresser, Miss Harper whose clever efforts were also noted throughout the entire store. The draping of the model with its graceful folds of lustrous satin and lace, was quite a work of art, as the material was uncut and simply pinned in place. The three hats were of course from the millinery work room, where Miss Murphy had dozens of others equally as pretty, but it all added to the charming effects of the window display, so favorably commented upon.

ST. DUNSTAN'S READY. — A meeting of the students of St. Dunstan's University was held Wednesday evening in the business room for the purpose of reorganizing the S. D. U. A. A. A. W. J. McDonald was appointed chairman of the meeting, the election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Moderator, Rev. J. C. McDonald; President, Joseph O'Sullivan; Vice President, William J. McDonald; Secretary Treas., Peter Callaghan; Executive Committee, Merlin McCarthy, Peter Sullivan, Edward Clinton and Paul Hughes. The spirit of the meeting showed that St. Dunstan's boys still maintain that keen interest in athletic sports which has been so characteristic of them for many years past. Their work along this line so far is chiefly upon the football field and they hope to have the pleasure of meeting once more their old-time rivals or [illegible] team desirous of good [illegible]
