Mystery Treatment Brings Amazing Cure Of Bomb Shock

MISS JESSIE I ROBERTSON

There passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Kingsboro, P.E.I., on June 30th, Jessie I. Robertson, daughter of the late Duncan and Marjory Robertson, aged 85 years.

Miss Robertson was of a quiet retiring disposition and was highly respected by all who knew her. She had been a faithful member of the Kingsboro Baptist Church for 60 years.

Interment in Kingsboro cemetery. OFFICERS "UNEMPLOYED" LONDON—(CP)—Since the start of the year, 1,504 officers have "reverted to unemployment" because of advancing age or for other reasons.

Queen's Fund Correspondent Describes New Aid to Raid Victims

The Queen's Canadian Fund correspondent in Great Britain reports on a miraculous new drug treatment of bomb-shock. He writes: "Medical care of air raid victims more to it than that. As usual it is a question of money. Because money is needed if this wonder drug is to be used extensively. And it should be used extensively if it is to bring relief to the many unfortunate victims of the dread after-effects of Nazi air war."

For those who have never seen a case of bomb-shock, it is difficult to explain what a pitiful and dreadful illness it is. People who are brave, healthy and far from being the so-called "nervous type" are just as apt to be hit by it as weaker specimens. And I am sorry to have to report that there are a disheartening number of cases to be found all through the bombed areas. These people should certainly be given a chance at the new cure.

railway, which he had to give up for the year since Birmingham's bad straining. So there's the story. But there's more to it than that. As usual it is a question of money. MR. ALBER THOSWALL

The death occurred at Summerside recently of Albert Thoswall, well known resident of that place. Born at Pownal 69 years ago he removed when a young man to French Fort where he resided for a number of years, later moving to Summerside where he successfully conducted a large farm and milk route, all over which he was respected by the old and beloved by the young for his many acts of kindness and thoughtfulness.

Mr. Thoswall was well known all over the Maritimes, being a steady and successful exhibitor of live stock and poultry for many years, but it is in the home, he will be most missed as his place was seldom vacant there. A large number of friends gathered for a service at the home conducted by Rev. Mr. Cook of the Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Sullivan of the United Church. The hymn: "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" was sung by Lowell Hancock. Earl Schurman, Bud Mountain and Maurice Mill. E. P. Foley, M. L. A. George Calbeck, George Harris, Hugh Hanna,
