CURED OF THIS HORRIBLE DISEASE

Edmonton Girl saved By "Fruit-a-tives"

EDMONTON, ALTA., Nov. 20th 1912.

"I had been a sufferer from babyhood with that terrible complaint, Constipation.

I have been treated by physicians and have taken every medicine that I heard of, but without the slightest benefit. I concluded that there was no cure for this horrible disease.

Finally, I read of "Fruit-a-tives" and decided to try them, and the effect was marvellous.

The first box gave me great relief, and after I used a few boxes, I found that I was entirely well.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that ever did me any good for Chronic Constipation and I want to say to all who suffer as I did—Try "Fruit-a-tives"—why suffer any longer when there is a perfect cure in this great fruit medicine"

(MISS) E. A. GOODALL.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy in the world made of fruit and the only one that will completely and absolutely cure Constipation.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LATEST FROM THE THEATRES

B. F. KEITH'S UNION SQUARE THEATRE.

B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre, New York, management extends to all patrons of the popular vaudeville house the felicitations of the Yuletide seaeon, and announces for New Year's week, commencing December 30th, a veritable vaudeville carnival. The first grand feature will be Dinkelspiel's Christmas, a laughable German comedy written by George V. Hobart, who is responsible for many successes in vaudeville. The piece is full of human interest, and the characters well drawn, though in no way exaggerated, and the lines and situations are indescribably funny. Joseph Hart has provided an excellent company, including Bernard A. Reinold, the original Dinkelsoiel. The play has been carefully rehearsed and a finished performance is the result. The second feature will be England's boy comedian, Laddie Cliff, still in his teens. He has gained on his own superior merit an international reputation. He will give a fresh supply of infinitely new songs and, with his eccentric dancing, will be one of the applause hits of the show. A novel musical feature will be offered for the first time, presented by Max Witt, entitled, "Court by Girls". This is a sumptuous musical comedy. The theme is taken from Gilbert and Sullivan's Trial by Jury. The book and lyrics are by Thomas J. Gray and the music by Max S. Witt. Just think of it! Court held by twelve charming young ladies portraying the character of Judge, District Attorney, Counsel for Defense and Jury. Here is a grand musical feature that you cannot afford to miss. Miss May West, who was recently featured with the Broadway success, The Winsome Widow will make her vaudeville debut here. Miss West will offer original character songs.

Phina and Company offer an exceptionally capable characterization. Miss Phina has the assistance of a trio of clever boys and girls dressed in swagger evening attire. This aggregation led by Miss Phina, sing dance, entertain and generally make merry in a way that never fails to arouse the audience.

The Langdons, three in number, Rose, Harry and Tully, fun makers of acknowledged value, will present a travesty called, A Night on the Boulevard, a vehicle that carries them safely to public approval. The fun starts at the rise of the curtain and laugh after laugh follows in quick succession. Lydia and Aldino, a duo of clever European equilibrists, are clean cut and rapid, in their feats new and original. Their paraphernalia is elaborate and each stunt a decidedly pleasing picture.

The balance of the bill is fully as strong and includes Alfredo, Wizard of the Violin, and Askai, a roller-skating marvel direct from the Orient.

FAREWELL

Rev. John Gillis preached his farewell sermon to the congregation of Strathalbyn on Sabbath the 24th Dec. 1912. There was a large turnout of people. On the eve of his departure about one hundred of the congregation and people who belonged to other congregations assembled at the manse. The meeting was called to order by the appointed chairman, John Alex. McKenzie, Elder, who called upon D. M. McDonald, Elder, to carry out the first item of the program, which was to read a kindly written address to Mr. and Mrs. Gillis expressing the attachment of the congregation to them both and their appreciation of Mr. Gillis' services for over five years, their sorrow at the severance of the pastoral tie and their best wishes for their future usefulness and welfare. Coupled with the address was a purse containing upwards of sixty dollars in the name of the congregation and others who belonged to other denominations. Mr. Gillis replied in a few well chosen words assuring the congregation that it was not on account of anything he had against them that he was leaving, that he and the congregation had wrought harmoniously together for over five years, without any hitch or trouble, the only thing that prompted him to accept a call elsewhere was that the work would be easier on him than it was in his present field, that he highly appreciated the address and purse on account of the kind and generous spirit which prompted and carried into effect such noble gifts. After a bounteous supper prepared by the ladies and spending a pleasant time the meeting closed by the singing the hymn God be with You Till We Meet Again. Some ten or eleven teams came and hauled the household goods to the North Wiltshire station, a distance of four miles, and stowed them away in two cars gratis. Mr. Gillis was inducted into the pastoral charge of Wood Island on the 24th of December last.

PIMPLES ITCHED AND BURNED

On Arms and Legs. Caused Running Sores. Would Tear Himself Till They Bled. Like Open Wounds. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

53 Stewart St., Toronto, Ontario.—"When my baby was nine months old he had a lot of pimples come on his arms and legs which used to come to a head, then break and cause running sores. They were bright red spots, which itched and burned so badly that he would tear himself till he made them bleed and they were all like open wounds. They were on his face and arms so bad that I did not like to take him out. He could not sleep or rest anywhere. I tried several things at home and lots of different things people used to advise me, but he did not get a bit better.

"I bathed each place in warm water and Cuticura Soap and then I put some of the Cuticura Ointment on and bound them up in soft rags and he slept better that night than he had for three weeks, and he did not scratch himself once that night. I did that for three days, night and morning, when we noticed the sores were getting drier and healing, so I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, and after a week and a few days there was not a blemish on him." (Signed) Mrs. F. West, Feb. 29, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 39D, Boston, U. S. A.

TROUBLE WITH CATTLE DISEASE

DUBLIN, Dec. 31 (Special)—Dismay is the only word which adequately describes the feeling today among Irish cattle traders regarding the latest development of the foot-and-mouth disease epidemic. The closing of English ports to Irish cattle was, of course, anticipated from the statement of Mr. Runciman in the House of Commons recently, but it was not known sufficiently widely to prevent loss and inconvenience to those who brought cattle for the market usually held in Dublin every Thursday. Hundreds of animals were brought in by train, but in the case of those driven by road the police at out-lying stations were able to intercept many, the various stations having received telegraphic information that the market would not be held. The conflict between the Irish and the English Boards is also the subject of angry criticism. The present situation has caused the gravest concern, and it must mean financial ruin for many of the farming community and others engaged in the cattle industry.

HOSPITAL GETS XMAS GIFT OF $200,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.— Bishop Charles E. McDonnell, of Brooklyn, made public acknowledgment of two Christmas gifts of $100,000 each, which were given to him by James Shevlin, prominent for many years in Brooklyn politics, and Robert Furey, a contractor of that borough.

The bishop made the announcement of the reception of the gifts following the celebration of pontifical High Mass at St. James' Pro-Cathedral. Mr. Shevlin's donation is specifically for the removal of the debt which encumbers the property of St. Mary's Hospital, and with it goes a donation of $15,000 to be used to erect a suitable dwelling in which young girls learning to be nurses at the hospital may reside during the period of tuition.

Men's Suits and Overcoats Below Cost

Just 75 suits left and they are all as good in every respect as the day I bought them. A limited lot worth $23.50 for $13.50. Others worth $18.75 for $9.75 and a few worth $14.75 for $7.75.

ODD TROUSERS, just 95 pairs left and every one is a splendid bargain. Worth to $6 for $2.99. Others worth $4 75 for $1.99.

There's a small stock of men's overcoats here, just 17 in the lot, and they are going at the following prices. 6 worth $20 for $11.75; 4 worth $17.50 for $9.75; 4 worth $ 5.75 for $8 75; 3 black coats with velvet collars worth $13.50 for $6.75.

Cravenette coats, a small stock worth $10.50 for $5 25 and another line regulary sell at $13.50 for $8.65.

Your Last Chance on Good Hats

The Home of Good Hats will soon be a thing of the past. The stock is clearing out so rapidly that today there are just a few items left. If you don't buy now you will be everlastingly too late to participate in some of the biggest snaps ever offered in this Province.

Franklin hats, all sizes, always sell at $3.25, going now at $1.95

Tress hats worth $3 for $1.50

Cheaper grade, Tress hats, always sell at $2.75 going now at $1.38

All other hats, derbies, fancy soft felts clearing at 1-2 price.

Here's Hosiery

that is strong, fast colors, perfect fitting—just the thing you want. Always sell at 55c to 65c a pair, yours now for 33c

Another line, that was always a big seller at the former price of 35c going now at. 19c

All cheaper grades are sold out.

Suspender Snaps

Our line of suspenders includes the famous King Edward, Policeman, Military, Coatless, President and all other popular styles. The entire stock is clearing out at 1-3 off.

A word with You

It has been hinted that I do not intend to leave the Province. The only answer I can give to those who appear very anxious to see me leave is that as soon as I get all my goods sold, my bills all paid and my belongings stowed away in a car, I will leave for Medicine Hat, Alberta.

The actual date will be near February 15th.

Really and honestly I thought that a young growing business like mine would have been picked up three months ago and that I would have been away before this. If I have to stay in the store during January I want you to look out for bargains.

The balance of the stock will be cleared out at 15, 20 and 25c on the dollar—below what I paid for it. I cannot afford to pay for much newspaper space and sell at those prices so I will only quote a few items here—this ad will only run a short time.
