TOP COAT SEASON

Top coats are selling briskly. This is the weather that emphasizes the need of one. Those broad shouldered coats that you see about town were bought at McDonald's. $6.00 to $14.00 instead of $8.00 to $16.00 as you have been in the habit of paying, because we have our low price for everybody. Most of our new winter goods are now in. Don't think of buying either suit or overcoat till you see what we are selling.

The supper tendered under the auspices of the legal fraternity of Summerside to R. E. Johnston at the Queen Hotel Monday night was attended by many of the leading members of the Bench and Bar, other professions, bankers, business men of the town and others. The affair was most heartily enjoyed by those who represented but a few of Dike's many friends. And with tables set in the Queen's noted enticing fashion, everything accompanying the arrangements was carried out splendidly, the hours was much pleasure during the hours spent; yet sorrow felt and expressed at the departure of our young citizen who goes to take up his abode in the neighboring Republic. After a hearty indulgence in the good things provided, the following toasts were called by the chairman, Neil McQuarrie, K. C., and responded to in the order named:

The King—God Save the King.
Trade and Commerce—Hon. R. C. McLeod, Capt. Joseph Read, M. L. A., William Stewart.

Our Banking Institutions—J. F. Blagdon, A. E. Vessey, H. W. B. Stewart, Song—(Marsellaise) A. E. Arsenault, endorsed.

Our Civic Interests—John A. Sharp, R. N. Montgomery.
Our Guest—R. E. Johnston.
The Professions—Neil McLeod, A. O. Saunders, Dr. John McNeill.

The Press—S. M. Bent, J. B. O. Baker, H. Strong, L. Gallant.
Our Host and Hostess—Neil McQuarrie.
The singing of Auld Lang Syne closed the program.

The eulogiums offered by all the speakers of the character and high standing both professionally and socially, of Mr. Johnston, and the tone of regret expressed by each bespoke for the departing friend volumes of praise of his citizenship and sorrow for his leaving. Mr. Johnston in his remarks while regretting his separation from his friends in Summerside comforted himself with the hope that in his new field he would receive a like feeling of kindness on the part of his new acquaintances.

In closing The Guardian joins in the farewell, wishing Mr. Johnston many years of success in the future wherever his lot may be cast.

E. H. Wright and John S. Ramsay left yesterday on a trip to New Brunswick.

The residence of Edwin Hogg, New Annan was totally destroyed by fire between two and three o'clock yesterday morning. Only a part of the furniture was saved. The cause of the fire is unknown for a certainty but it is supposed to have caught from the kindling. There was no insurance.

S. H. Jones on Monday made his last shipment for the season of lambs. During this fall Mr. Jones forwarded from here to the American market 12,946 sheep and about 9,000 live geese which aggregate a net value of nearly $30,000.00. This money spent in our province means considerable to our farmers and others directly or indirectly concerned.

ONTARIO REFERENDUM.

Rev. J. H. Hector In The Fight.

ONTARIO, Nov. 21. Five referendum campaign meetings were held last night in West Toronto and Exhibition workers meetings were conducted in Bonar Presbyterian Church by Geo. T. Scott, Wesley Church, by the Rev. Dr. Tovell; Crawford St. Church, by the Rev. W. E. Hassard and W. G. Fell. The organization meetings were well attended and the reports of canvassers showed prospects of a much better temperance vote on Dec 4 in West Toronto than at the Dom. Plebiscite. The Rev. J. H. Hector the Black Knight, is rousing great enthusiasm, the buildings in which he speaks being inadequate for the large number who throng to hear him. He will speak tonight in Crawford St. Methodist Church, Daily Witness, Nov. 21.
