IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH WOOD

The death occurred at Hillsboro, P. E. I., on Nov. 26th, of Joseph Wood, aged 75 years. Deceased was the sole survivor of a large family, all of whom have passed to the Great Beyond.

MURDOCH MCKENZIE

On the 3rd of November there passed away a well known and life-long resident of Lyndale, the late Murdoch McKenzie, aged 72 years. He was in poor health for some time past, but especially for the last twelve months, when he was constantly in very inefficient health.

MRS. PETER DOYLE

On Thursday morning, January 3rd there passed away at Norway, Lot J. Elizabeth P. Doyle, widow of the late Peter Doyle, after a long and useful life, devoted entirely to her husband and family. Deceased was born of the adjoining farm, February 6th 1831, and was consequently in the 86th year of her age.

MRS. DOROTHY RIELLY

There passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Henry Dunn, Gasparaux, on Dec. 13th, Mrs. Dorothy RIELLY, widow of the late John RIELLY of White Sands. The late Mrs. RIELLY had reached the advanced age of 76 years and her lifetime was spent in one long round of helpfulness. At White Sands where he married she was a busy and helpful hand in any emergency, and her many friends and neighbors will cherish fond recollections of the happy hours spent at her home. She leaves to mourn six daughters and

CUTICURA HEALED VERY ITCHY SCALP

Burning Kept Her Awake Nights, Hard Lumps Came Then Turned to Scales.

"My scalp began by being very itchy and burning which would keep me awake nights it was so bothersome. First there would come little hard lumps and when I scratched them they would turn to flaky scales and dry.

"I got no relief until I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They gave instant relief and in a week I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Alfred Berthelotte, Ed River Crossing, N. B., February 11, '16. Smith, Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. E. A. Richmond, Cal.; besides one brother John Smith of Sturgeon and two sisters Mrs. Fred O'Donnell and Mrs. William Humber of Boston, Mass. She received the last rite of the Roman Catholic Church which she was a devout member. Her burial took place at St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon on Dec. 15th where a requiem high Mass was sung by her pastor, Rev. Theo. Gallant. She died happy trusting in her Redeemer, May her soul rest in peace. (Other papers please copy.)

MRS. S. E. GALLANT

"Au Revoir au Ciel." These are the words that escaped from the lips of a heart broken husband, as the remains of his devoted partner were being borne away from the saddest room where the Grim Reaper had made an entrance.

On Thursday morning the 3rd inst a gloom was cast over Abram's life, when it was learned that Mrs. Rosalie Bourque, beloved wife of Mr. S. E. Gallant, had passed away in the early hours of the morning. Her demise is a community loss. Her husband, who was one of the most exemplary, and whose charitable dispositions endeared her to all. Having been a devoted adherent to her faith, her career of Christian acts and piety was ended in the fulfillment of the Great Rite. Her late husband, Rev. Theodore Gallant, loved pastor had ministered to her spiritual wants. The funeral which took place Saturday morning was conducted by Rev. Theodore Gallant of Sturgeon, a requiem service being sung with the organ. The great number in attendance was silent testimony of the high esteem in which she was held. She leaves to mourn the following children to whom she has bequeathed the tenderest of cares: her daughter, Mrs. Father Theodore Gallant, parish priest of Sturgeon; Sister Gallant, Superior in St. Jos

MR. JOSEPH A. S. GALLANT

On Saturday afternoon at about one o'clock the home that had been bereft of its fond mother whose remains were taken away that morning, was again visited by the Grim Reaper and now it is with a sad heart that the death of Joseph A. S. Gallant is being announced. He was 42 years of age. Ever since his infancy he was a sufferer of that dreaded malady as "hma. For some days he had been illing with the grippe, but nothing serious was expected to develop, and his death was a severe shock. The late Mr. Gallant was one whose example in a Christian life, might well be followed. For many years he was employed in the store when it was in the building and 4 years ago when the new store was built, and the business resolved itself into a Company he became its president. Being the son of parents, whose teachings were saturated with Christian teachings, his conduct throughout his whole life was unquestioned. His zeal in the discharge of his religious functions, and his honest and uprightness in his dealings with his fellowmen, are monuments to remain with us and surris to his crown in the Great World beyond. He was a member of the French Canadian Society L'Assomption, and to whatever organization was formed for good, he was always a good helper. He had been elected to the society L'Assomption and was treasurer of the Society of prisoners of war. He had also been president for several years. Having made many acquaintances in his public sphere of life, his death will be learned with sorrow far and wide. The remains were interred Monday morning at a large consignment. Rev. Father Theodore Gallant officiating. The pallbearers were Joseph L. Gallant, Alpe de Arsenault, Augustine Leclere, P. de Desroches, Hector Gallant, Charles Arsenault, The Rev. Theodore Gallant, and to his aged father, who for some time past been confined to his house through illness, and to all the family, the sympathy of the whole community goes out to them in their awful affliction in their double bereavement. Mr. Gallant and the members of his household wish to express their most cordial gratitude to all those who have so gently shown their sympathy, in his their great hour of trial.—M.

erman Prisoner Writes His Adopters. The following letter was received by Mrs. J. D. Livingston, High Bank, resident of the Little Sands Red Cross Society, from the prisoner at the Society adopted and named "Erman." It will be pleasing to all societies to know they receive their parcels of food regularly, and should be quite an inducement to all Red Cross workers who have not already adopted one of those prisoners to do so at once.

Kriegs Gefangenen, Friedrichsfeld, Oct. 24, 1917. To Mrs. J. D. Livingston, High Bank, P. O. Dear Madam,—Your very kind letter received and I was very glad to hear from you indeed. Yours is practically the first letter I have received since I was made a prisoner, nearly a year ago, so you can realize how glad was to hear from somebody in Canada. I have been receiving some fine parcels of food from your Little Sands Red Cross Society through the Canadian Red Cross in London, and I will never be able to tell you how gratified I am to you ladies. The parcels contain just what I need and am glad that I happened to be the prisoner you people adopted. My home is in Denmark Island, British Columbia. I am not married and have no relatives in Canada. I am from Scotland and originally I have been a long time in Canada. I am not wanted. We are being treated pretty well at present (all things considered.) Most of us are receiving parcels through the Red Cross, so we are fairly well off. I am very sorry that I cannot write you a long letter, which I could like very much to do, so I will close. Please accept my sincerest thanks for your kind letter, which sent a long way towards cheering me up, and also for the parcels. I wish on every success in your noble work. You would surely be proud if you only knew the comfort your letters and parcels bring to us fellows over

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a half pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to clear, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 2, the patrons of the Arlington, Northam and Port Hill telephone line assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Linkletter, and presented them with a well-filled purse and the following address, which was read by Mr. Edmund Maynard, while Mr. Artemas McArthur made the presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Linkletter, the patrons of the Arlington, Northam and Port Hill Telephone line, have taken the opportunity at this festive season, of assembling at your home to express our high appreciation of your faithful and efficient services in attending to the many calls of this line.

During the past two years you have given your time and attention in a very satisfactory manner. As you have undertaken these duties without any remuneration we now as you to accept our gift as a small token of our gratitude. We also wish you both a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Signed in behalf of the Patrons of the Telephone Line. Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter were completely taken by surprise, but Mr. Linkletter was equal to the occasion and replied feelingly in a nicely worded speech, thanking the people for the gift, but still more for their thoughtfulness and good-will. The ladies presently got busy emptying baskets which they had brought, and soon invited all to sit down at well laden tables.

An exceedingly pleasant evening was spent in music, etc., and after singing the National Anthem the company dispersed at an early hour in the morning with heartiest good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter for the New Year.

Girls! Use Lemons! Make a Bleaching, Beautifying Cream

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a very fine quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon pulp through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a half pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to clear, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

Killed In Action

Mr. John L. Richards, St. Timothy's, has received the following kind letters of sympathy on the death of his son, killed in action.

Somewhere in France, Nov. 28th 1917.

Dear Mr. Richards,

Your gallant son was called to his reward on Nov. 6th, while nobly doing his duty. He was buried on the battlefield, a priest assisting at his grave. It will be a consolation to you to know he was to the Sacraments a few days before his death. Your boy in imitation of his Divine Master, gave his life for others, and his reward must be exceeding great. True you have lost a loving son, but on the other hand, you have a great advocate at the Throne of God. But why speak of loss, you do not lose that which you will find again, and in a few short years you will find your boy, and he will bring you a brief space of ears, but for all Eternity. May he rest in peace, and may God give you strength to make your sacrifice as unselfishly as your gallant son did.

Very Sincerely Yours, CAPT. R. C. MACGILLIVRAY, C.F., 26th Battalion Canadians, B. E. F.

Fernwood, Dec. 7, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Richards,

Having read about Daniel's death in the papers I thought I would like to write to you to tell you how sorry my husband and I feel and how we sympathize with you and all the family in your sorrow. It seems too bad that he was not spared to come back to you.

I have been wondering if you have heard any particulars. We always liked him so much when he worked here as he was always so trustworthy and goal natured, and we would have liked him to stay with us.

We have sent him two parcels for Christmas from our Red Cross just a short time ago. Such a sorrow as yours must be hard to bear but you will have for consolation the thought that he has done his utmost in a good cause.

Let us hope that this terrible war will soon be over, and that not many more such sacrifices will have to be made. Very sincerely yours, MRS. HARRISON MCFARLANE, France, Nov. 19, 1917.

Dear Mr. Richard,

It is with the deepest sympathy and regret that I write you in regard to your son, No. 712718, Pte. Daniel

Richard, who was instantly killed on the morning of Nov. 6. He was killed in the trench from a high explosive shell.

Your son has always displayed the utmost coolness, and showed a disregard to danger, and devotion to duty.

Please accept from me in behalf of the entire platoon, our deepest sympathy in the loss of your son.

He was liked and respected by both officers and men. Sincerely yours, LIEUT. M. C. BUCHANAN, 26th Inf.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If cross feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Makes Breathing Easy. The construction of the air passages and the struggle for breath, too familiar evidence of the asthmatic trouble, cannot be cured. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. This is the famous remedy which is known far and wide for its complete effectiveness even under very severe conditions. It is an untried experimental preparation, but one with many years of strong service behind it. Buy it from your nearest dealer.
