The death occurred in Amherst after a short illness of only ten days of Margaret Emerantina, youngest daughter of Hugh and Catherine McNis. Her sudden and unexpected death at sixteen years of age came as a terrible shock to the whole city, as she was a favorite with everybody both old and young. She was strengthened by the rites of the Roman Catholic church administered by Rev. Father Mihon. Her funeral took place on August 21st from St. Charles Church. The floral offerings were many and beautiful testifying to the high esteem in which she was held. The pall-bearers were Patrick Trahan, Patrick Hansworth, James Gallant, Lloyd Chapman, William Munroe and Abraham White.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

A meeting of the P. E. I. Stock Breeders Association was held in the P. W. C. on the twentieth with President P. S. Brown in the chair, who opened the meeting with a few well chosen remarks, and reminded those present that to succeed there must be two objects in view, mainly to improve the stock of this province and its members. The committee on constitution and by-laws reported in favor of the constitution and by-laws of the Manitoba Cattle Breeders Association, with a few changes to suit the conditions of this province. After some discussion the above constitution and by-laws were adopted. The following were appointed to represent the P. E. I. Stock Breeders Association at the Halifax and St. John's boards, P. S. Brown, Homer Ross, Henry Horne and Lane Boswell. The provisional officers and directors were then elected in a body. A general session then took place and was engaged in by Messrs. Brown, Brodie, Gibson, McKinley and others on exhibitions, and the short and succinctly many treatment of stockmen at provincial fair and other places which was severely criticized. The next meeting will be held during exhibition week, at which Rev. Dr. Burke will likely speak. A committee has the arrangements in charge, and announcement will appear as soon as arrangements are complete.

Rev. Dr. Cumming, of Scotsburn, N. S., has returned home from P. E. Island, where he has spent the last seven weeks.

Dr. John E. and Mrs. Gillis of Somerville, Mass., who as members of the International Club of Boston, attended the celebration of the 130th anniversary of responsible government at Halifax last week, left for Pictou yesterday after spending a few days with friends and relatives in this city.

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mrs. Mary McNeill, Wood Islands, on Wednesday evening Aug. 19, when her youngest daughter Miss Minnie E. was united in marriage to Malcolm G. McPherson of Newton Cross. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. McKenzie of Wood Islands. Excellent music was furnished by Miss Louise McKenzie and John McPherson brother of the groom, the bride and groom being unattended. A sumptuous supper was served by the bride's mother many guests being in attendance. A most pleasing feature of the event was the Gaelic songs sung by D. Gillis, in this Province. The happy couple will proceed shortly to New Glasgow, B. C., where they intend to reside. The friends extend to them hearty congratulations and best wishes and wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

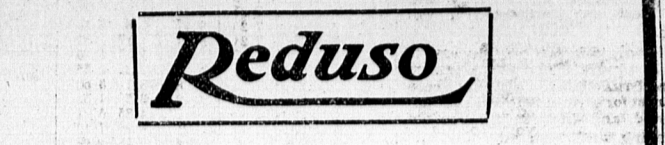

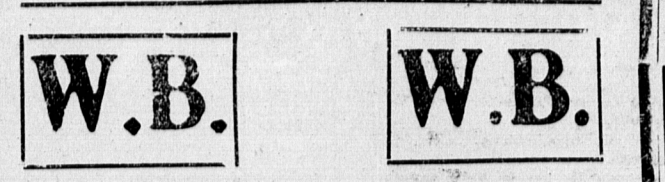

On Sabbath evening last the choir of Grace Methodist Church of this City sang with fine effect one of the hymns of the Ninety and Nine. The circumstances under which this hymn originated are of more than ordinary interest. It was while making his famous tour in Scotland some years in the seventies with Mr. Moody that Mr. Sankey composed this popular song. The object of the meeting to be held next day in one of the large vestries or churches belonging to the Presbyterian Church, in Edinburgh was the Good Shepherd and as Mr. Sankey was riding in a car on the railway he read a newspaper poem on a Shepherd and his sheep. At the meeting the next day the fervent evangelist Dr. Robertson Bonar had spoken, Mr. Moody asked Mr. Sankey for an appropriate hymn. Mr. Sankey at once thought of the newspaper verses and placing the little clipping before him on the organ began to improvise the music. When he had finished a large part of the audience was in tears. It is said that over 50,000,000 copies of Mr. Sankey's "Gospel Hymns" are now in circulation.

A GOOD COMPLEXION. Is a joy to every woman's heart, and man is vain enough not to desire it. Beautiful complexion means pure blood, or in other words a healthy body. Tens of thousands of women take Ferrazole because it's splendid blood builder, keeps the system in perfect order and helps the complexion wonderfully. "I consider Ferrazole the best remedy I give you a clear complexion I know of," writes Miss Ada E. Brandon of Pembroke. "My skin used to be sallow, but after taking a few boxes of Ferrazole a rosy tint was noticeable in my cheeks. I can recommend Ferrazole. Price 50c at all dealers."
