Kerosene Oil!

This is the time of year when there is a good demand for oil. It will pay you to buy the best quality, as low grade oil will not only waste your lamps to smoke but will also create a very disagreeable odor in the house. The oil that we have been selling has had given our customers splendid satisfaction and is the best that we can buy. Give it a trial when you want another supply.

The premium picture given this year with the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is a decided change from former years. It is entitled "The Princess at Work," and is proving immensely popular. Those who have received their copies pronounce it easily worth more than the entire year's subscription to that great paper. The publishers are on the look out for energetic canvassers in every locality. Any smart boy or girl can make lots of pocket money for Christmas by writing to the publishers.

Rev. Gordon Dickie, curate of St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church, preached his farewell sermon last night, to what was probably the largest congregation ever present in St. Matthew's. Mr. Dickie was visibly affected as he recounted the many favors he had received from and the obligations he was under to the good people of the parish during his term of office here, and the many kind remembrances he would take away with him. The church choir rendered some very pleasing music, especially an anthem chorus, in which Miss Ada Musgrave rendered a solo. Mr. Dickie leaves for St. Stephen, N. B., the latter part of this week.—Sydney Post Nov. 11.

JOSEPH SARK, chief of the P. E. Island Indians was in Sackville recently accompanied by his friend John Miller. The chief is a fine specimen of a man, and carries himself with much dignity and grace. He is also a very intelligent Indian and can speak English without any difficulty. Chief Sark has been on a visit to Chief Wilnot at Springhill, and he also intended stopping off to see his kinsmen at Dorchester. During his stay here he called at the Methodist parsonage and had quite a long chat with Rev. and Mrs. Steel. The chief is considerable of a diplomat and during his stay took occasion to inform Mr. Steel that he had a very high regard for Methodist ministers in general. The chief carries a handsome gold watch that was presented to him by the Governor of P. E. Island, Sackville Post.

CAVENDISH.—The recent snow storm here was not quite enough to sleigh but time will rectify that.—The farmers here almost completed the housing of the root crop.—The funeral of the late Mary McNeill took place Saturday Nov. 5th, at 1 o'clock. Miss McNeill had almost reached her score, and for the last five years had been helpless from paralysis. She was for years one of the most active members of the Baptist Church and will be remembered for her kindly deeds and active efforts to promote the cause of the Master she loved so well. The funeral was largely attended. Roger Simpson has sold his farm at Bay View to his brother Arthur and has rented a ware house in Summer side where he will act as general agent for the Page Wire Fence Co. Mr. Simpson has been an energetic agent for the above Company for some years and now that he will give all his time to this work will no doubt do a large business for his employers. Tuesday evening Nov. 8, Mrs. John Nalder, of Windsor, N. S. lectured in the Baptist Church on the "Life and Work of Punjita Ramabai". The lecturer traced the hand of Providence in sparing Ramabai's life in the great famine, in raising up friends and opening doors for her to obtain an education till now she is the only female Punjita in India and has under her care and looking to her for daily bread, shelter and clothing two thousand orphans and child widows of India. Mrs. Nalder addressed the united Baptist and Presbyterian Missionary societies in the afternoon and a mass meeting in the evening. Ramabai's work is undenominational. Mrs. Nalder is a fluent, animated and very pleasing speaker and from a full head and red-entive memory tells the story in such a way that it finds hearts of the audience. At the close of her address a spontaneous offering of $6.00 was given by the audience for the Ramabai's work.
