THANKOFFERING—The annual Thanksgiving service of Geddie Memorial Auxiliary of the W. M. S. was held in the Old Church, New London, on Oct. 18th, 1949. The Minister, Rev. D. A. Campbell, conducted the service. The choir, with Mrs. Harry Underhill as organist, was assisted by several members of Long River Presbyterian choir. Mr. Edison Raynor, Kensington, was guest soloist and rendered most acceptably two selections, "Beside Blue Galilee" and "Be Still, My Soul". Miss Marion Lockhart was his accompanist. Mr. Campbell delivered a fine sermon, basing his remarks on three texts: "Bear ye one another's burdens"; "For every man shall bear his own burden"; "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." A large congregation was present, and a splendid offering was received, which will help to advance the work of His kingdom in the mission fields.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of John S. Garrick, who passed away October 21st, 1946.

October leaves are falling Days and years are fleeting By cherished memories of you linger, Accompanied by a lonely sigh.

There are times when the world seems dark and cold, As I look in vain for the smile of old, But He who gives and takes away, Will bring us together some happy day. Inserted by His Wife.
