LEFT ON BUYING TRIP.—Mrs. Winifred Ryan MacDonald left this morning on a buying trip preparatory to opening a new millinery parlor. Mrs. MacDonald has secured a store in the building occupied by the Pure Milk Co. which has been nicely painted and put in readiness to receive the stock. She had already attended all the millinery openings and as she is well known as a competent milliner will no doubt receive a share of the custom of the ladies of the city.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's Church, Brooklyn, Mass., on Wednesday July 28th, 1926, when Margaret Laura May eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Coady, North Wilshire was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. James J. NOTES BY THE WAY

Mr. Forke, former leader of the now leaderless Progressives, is fighting for his life under prospect of defeat, and that Mr. King would have no prospect of election in Prince Albert but for the assistance of Mr. Dunning, who is at heart a free-trader.

As for our own Province and the Dominion generally, the prospects are good. Hope has revived and prosperity increased much more rapidly since the fall of the useless and scandal-smirched King Government. And our island farmers are not afraid of a little more protection for farm products! Canada for Canadians, and our home market for ourselves—not for the Yankees—clean and honest Government is what is wanted and they believe the Meighen Government will bring it.

The Public Forum

Every railway man I believe says these Crow's Nest rates can only be enforced at a loss. Therefore we in the East are paying for the loss the National Railway makes on these rates in order to help the west. It might be argued that the West was entitled to these as per agreement. Are not the Maritimes equally entitled to lower rates to aid them? I believe everyone in the Maritime Provinces agrees that one of the big things we are up against is exorbitant freight rates. To whom therefore can the people of P. E. I. and the Maritimes in general look to for relief? To Mr. Dunning who makes snoring and insulting remarks (when he is a considerable distance away) regarding the Provinces and to Mr. King who speaks as above or to Mr. W. A. Black, Minister of Railways. A Maritime man thoroughly familiar with every need of the Provinces and Mr. Meighen who expresses full sympathy with us and promises to do all in his power to give us redress. To the writer it seems that every person in the Maritime Provinces regardless of previous politics should endorse the Conservative candidate in the election for this office for no other reason. This is the writer's view and if he is wrong he would be very pleased to be corrected.

Chilians Will Visit Canada

QUEBEC, Que., Aug. 18.—There is nothing more cosmopolitan than a hotel register, and no hotel register more cosmopolitan than that of Quebec hotel. The signature of famous folks from all over the world is therefore no surprising sight to the reporter whose head calls upon him to make a daily "scan" of the arrival list, but when in addition to arrivals from this world he encounters names, the owners of which could only come from the next world, some slight occasion for surprise develops.
