NOTICE.—The members of St. Joseph's Sodality are requested to meet Thursday evening at eight o'clock in their hall. Full attendance requested. 7464-8-5M3L.

ENJOYED TRIP.—The Halifax Herald says: During their recent visit to Prince Edward Island, the archbishop and Mrs. Worrell visited many of the parishes, motoring in one day some 50 miles—they speak warmly of the enthusiasm of their welcome and the abounding hospitality everywhere. His Grace will in September go to Charlottetown for Canon Simpson's jubilee celebration.

IMPROVEMENT.—Our esteemed contemporary The P. E. Island Agriculturist, of Summerside is to be congratulated upon the greatly improved appearance of the last issue. The title of the paper on the front page appears in large scroll type surmounting the island coat-of-arms and surrounded by stems of wheat and other designs in keeping with the character of the newspaper.

MONTREAL-CHARLOTTETOWN AND NEWFOUNDLAND SERVICE.—The following telegram was received: Nicholson & Messervey, Charlottetown. Advise us as soon as possible regarding freight space. J. De S. Bossy, Manager Gulf of St. Lawrence Shipping and Trading Co. 7444-8-2-M3L

STANLEY NEWS.—Mr. Fred Bennett and Miss Nettie have returned home from Malpeque. Mr. Bennett was in the employ of Peter McNutt & Son. Miss Nettie was attending Fanning school.—The Misses Alice and Hazel have also returned from St. John's.—The life saving Guards of the Salvation Army have returned to Charlottetown after spending a very pleasant two weeks camping at beautiful Stanley. They came from and returned to Charlottetown by motor truck accompanied by H. M. Chandler S. S. Superintendent. The Guards held a concert in Stanley Hall on July 23rd which consisted of solos, readings, dialogues and some beautiful drills. At the close ice cream and cake were sold and the balance of the cake was sold by F. D. Bennett. A very satisfactory sum was netted.—On Friday The Western Lady owned by Mr. Bennett sailed from Stanley Bridge and conveyed the Guards to French River and the Sand Hills where a very pleasant time was spent. The officers of the Company were: Guard Leader, Miss Bertha M. White. Asst. Leader, Miss L. Turner. Chaplain, Miss Olive Hiscott. There were no airs about the girls and they made many friends in Stanley. They wish to thank Mr. James Hiscott and family for kindnesses shown.

MONEY SAVED ON SHOE REPAIRING

is money earned. A dollar or two spent on the reshaping and reconstruction of an old pair of shoes is equivalent to five or six dollars spent on a new pair. There's economy in this method, and you should follow it. Your shoes will be none the worse if we do the repairing; in fact, they'll be all the better.

Try BEAVER FLOUR Both Ways

Make up a batch of Bread and Rolls with it. Then bake a Pie and Cake.

Notice the fine, even texture—the absence of holes—the delicate, nutlike flavor, of the Bread.

Then consider the lightness and flakiness of the Pastry. You'll never go back to the coarse, almost tasteless western wheat flours, after once enjoying the flavor of the good things made with Beaver Flour.

From the timber portion of his farm he was able to secure sufficient money to repay the Government loan in full and leave him with a capital to operate his farm.

Another man went on to his farm in April, and from the report that the inspectors made to the Board it was not in a condition to boast of two months later the veteran had so improved the land that a neighbor offered $1,000 more than the purchase price of two months before for the farm.

Altogether the reports have been most favorable and almost without exception the men have shown unusual initiative, interest and energy in taking up their new occupations.

These cases evince the fact, according to the Star, that the progressive spirit of the returned men was not all left in France, and that they are capable of grappling with the problems of life and successfully overcoming any difficulties.

VETERANS MAKE GOOD AS ONTARIO FARMERS

The Toronto Star of July 26th notes favorable reports from Ontario soldier-farmers who have been assisted by the Soldier Settlement Board of Canada. For example, one man in Huron County, who saw service in France,

LAND LOAN REPAYED BY SOLDIER FARMER

The first returned soldier in Canada to repay in full his loan secured from the Soldier Settlement Board for the purchase of a farm is John Lee, of Langley, B. C. Mr. Lee purchased a farm of 160 acres and received an advance of $2,500 from the Board on April 8th of this year. The farm consisted of 5 acres broken for cultivation, 10 acres in a state easy to prepare for cultivation, 25 acres covered with light scrub and 120 acres in
