ON New Year's night quite a number of young people of Mount Herbert assembled at the residence of Henry and Mrs. Mutch, the occasion being a farewell party to their son William who departs on Friday for New Glasgow, where he has secured a position in the steel works. YESTERDAY afternoon a quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride when Miss Minnie Dawson daughter of the late Ex-Mayor Dawson was united in matrimony to W. J. Bulman of the Gulars by Rev. G. M. Young. Only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bulman left by the western train for Summerside and will cross by the Stanley today on a trip to the Upper Provinces.

FOR A CERTAINTY I AM CURED.

Mr. James Treneman, butcher, 536 Adelaide Street, London, Ont., writes that for two years he was laid up with kidney disease and urinary troubles. He became dropsical and his legs would swell so that he could scarcely go round. He never used any medicine that did him so much good as Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills and knows for a certainty that this treatment cured him. One Pill a dose 25 cents a box.

A TELEGRAM was received by Jacob Vanbuskirk of this city, yesterday, announcing the death of his daughter, Miss Sarah Vanbuskirk, on Sunday at Somerville, Mass. The deceased during the Christmas season had contracted a bad cold which was neglected and settled on her lungs, turned to pneumonia. Before the physician was called the illness had gone too far and she passed away on Sunday. The remains will be interred at Somerville.

THE following from the Oban Argyleshire Times will be of interest to the many Charlottetown friends of John McMillan formerly Chief Engineer of the steamer S'anley: Among those present at the gathering of the Clan McMillan on Thursday, 11th inst., at Glasgow was Mr. John McMillan a life member of the Association, who himself a successful Highland settler in Canada, loses no opportunity of recommending Canada, as a suitable field for emigration. Mr. McMillan has had forty-two years experience of the colonies and is presently on a visit to his native land.

DANIEL Hurry of West Royalty has shown the Guardian two silver coins which at different times he ploughed up in his field. One of these is in good preservation and is an English shilling of the days of George III and bearing date 1820. The other is a smaller and older coin about the size of an English sixpence but apparently a foreign coin. The only part of the inscription that can be clearly read is the figure 82. It is thought to be a French coin of 1782. The marks of the old French occupation are still visible on Mr. Hurry's farm, although a forest growth covered up their improvements for many years.

William Power appeared at the Police Court yesterday on the charge of assault on William Parcell causing actual bodily harm. The only witness heard was Dr. F. F. Kelley who testified that he had treated the defendant who is still at the Hospital. The cornea of one eye is so badly injured that he will be totally unable to regain his sight. The injury was done with some sharp instrument presumably the end of a crutch. He had been told by the patient that the injury had been committed by Power. The defendant was remanded till Thursday next and was granted bail in the sum of $300. Power was represented by A. J. B. Mellish.

ON Wednesday, December 31st, W. H. Musick, principal of Orwell school, was waited upon by four young ladies of his advanced class who out of respect for him as their teacher, presented him with a magnificent inkstand, accompanied by a complimentary address. Mr. Musick, though taken by surprise made a suitable reply, stating that their gift should always be most highly prized by him as a remembrance of the pleasant days spent by him in Orwell, and that he should always hold in faithful remembrance those who were so thoughtful as to make the presentation.

ON account of the storm last night the attendance at the meeting to organize the branch of the Navy League was not as large as it would otherwise have been. Major Weeks explained that he had called the meeting in response to a telegram from H. F. Wrat the envoy, asking that the names of the officers be forwarded. He explained the object of the League as it existed in Great Britain. On motion Senator McDonald took the chair and after some discussion it was decided to adjourn till next Tuesday evening when a meeting to organize will be held in the Legislative Assembly Chambers. It is hoped that this meeting will be largely attended and energetic officers selected for the Prince Edward Island branch of the League.

Bryan late pastor of St. Paul's church. The deceased had been in St. Luke's Hospital for seven weeks and, after a third operation, passed peacefully away on Tuesday Dec. 9.

THE new instruments imported by the Band of the 4th Regt. arrived yesterday. They have been inspected and found eminently satisfactory in every particular. This was to be expected as the reputation of the maker, Carl Fischer of New York, is world wide. Among the instruments are several which are new to Charlottetown. These are the famous ballad horns and an E b Alto saxophone, without which a Concert Band is incomplete. The citizens will have an opportunity of listening to the Band with their new instruments in an excellent repertoire at an early date, probably on Friday evening the 16th inst. It is needless to say that the citizens will take advantage of the opportunity en masse.

ACCORDING to previous announcements May Flower Division, West Royalty, met on Monday evening for installation and official visit. THE semi-annual examination of the Brackley school was held on Wednesday the 24th, of December. The day proved fine and notwithstanding the busy time, it being the day before Christmas, a large number of visitors, twenty-one in all, attended, which goes largely to prove that the people of Brackley take a true interest in the educational training of their children. The pupils were examined in the several branches by their teacher, Leonard Boundy and by their eagerness and ready response gave proof of having been thoroughly taught and themselves led to feel a real interest in their work. After the classes were examined, several persons present, including three of the school officers in brief addresses stated their satisfaction concerning the progress of the pupils, at the same time expressing their sorrow that their present teacher, Leonard Boundy, after having fulfilled his duties as teacher for the past three years and six months to the satisfaction of all, is now about to leave the settlement for the purpose of obtaining during the winter months a business education at the Charlottetown Business College. Each pupil was then presented by the teacher with a beautiful Christmas card, after which Masters Stanley Prowse and Will e Younker came forward in behalf of the scholars of the school, the first mentioned with a presentation which proved on further examination to consist of a very valuable fountain pen, accompanied by a huge bottle of writing fluid, the second with the following address:—

DEAR TEACHER,—It is with much regret that we learn of your departure from us. We cannot let you go without in some way showing you our appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered in this school. Your labors amongst us have been performed with energy, and a patience which has oftentimes been beyond our deservings. We are thoroughly convinced that if you perform your future labors in such a painstaking way as you have done while amongst us you cannot but meet with success. We now ask you to accept this pen as but a small token of our esteem and regard. Wishing you all the compliments of the season and every possible success in your future labors, we are yours respectfully, The Scholars of Brackley School. Mr. Boundy in a few words cordially thanked the scholars for their kindness and promised that although in future he would not be with them in their daily task, yet their interest would always be his and assured all that if opportunity offered it would always be a pleasure to him to lend a helping hand or give encouragement to his former pupils of Brackley.
