BROADCASTING.

Rev. Ewen MacDougall will give the third of his series of addresses from CFCY, Charlottetown, on Thursday 15th., at 7 p. m.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meetings of the Diocesan Church Society will be held in the City on the 20th and 21st instants. The church service will this year be held in St. Peter's Cathedral, when the preacher will be the Rev. H. L. Haslam, Rector of Yarmouth, N. S.

ST. PETERS CATHEDRAL.

There were good congregations at the service yesterday. At the 11 o'clock service the beautiful Church Litany was sung before the celebration of Holy Communion. The Litany is sung every Sunday morning during Lent at the 11 o'clock service. The Rev. Canon Malone's rich and trained voice is never heard with better effect than in the Church Litany. At this service Canon Malone preached, and at the evening service he continued his course of sermons on the Beatitudes. At this service the Miserere was sung as is the custom during Sunday evenings in Lent.

RUNAWAY.

Yesterday forenoon the mailman conducting the mails to Cut Street for the air mail service received a merry ride for a short distance in the vicinity of Connaught Square, when the horse took fright and bolted. The driver was unable to control the animal as the reins broke, allowing him to go his merry way, the mail bags being strewn all along the street. After circling the city he ceased up at the Railway Depot. The sleigh was damaged necessitating the service of another before delivering the mails.

FINE SOUVENIR MEMBER.

The Guardian has received a copy of the 50th anniversary number of the Liverpool, Nova Scotia Advance a bright, newsy paper published in Liverpool, N.S. every Wed. Mr. Jas. D. Clements being Editor and Publisher. The anniversary number is splendidly illustrated with photographs of the men who put Liverpool on the map during the past fifty years, many of whom have since been called Home, besides a host of beauty spots, buildings, and memorials, for which Queen's County, N. S., is famed. The Advance souvenir edition will certainly be treasured by those who were born in Liverpool and who are now making their homes in different parts of the world.

DOUBTS RAISED

Sir.—Heretofore I have taken no active part in the controversy over the question of Prohibition, although during the election I used my influence in favour of the law now on the statute book considering it the most satisfactory method of dealing with the great evil of intemperance. The controversy set my mind in action, however, and personal experience gained in my church work has caused me to doubt whether Prohibition is after all a blessing. In our church are many of the finest people to be found anywhere on the Island, god-fearing, earnest people bringing up their children to be good citizens, and church members. Yet there has been and is now a great deal of illicit drinking among the youths and men in our community, some of which I was called upon to deal with not very long ago. A mother complained to me that her son, a boy of eighteen, was going out at nights associating with other boys and indulging in drink and would not tell her or his father who was supplying it.

I went quietly about making inquiries, and after a few weeks had gathered the following facts. The parents, though Prohibitionists, always keep a bottle in the house bought from the Vendors and used it secretly, supposedly unknown to their boys. The boys when they went to the road with other boys thought there could be no harm in partaking of the bottle, secretly passed round there. One was asked to get a script from the doctor but was afraid lest the doctor should tell his parents, and saying so, one of the crowd told him where he could get bootleg. That was the beginning and for many months these boys patronized the bootlegger more regularly than their parents patronized the vendor. I am stating the simple facts brought to my knowledge as the result of my personal experience, and ask your readers if it is any wonder whether I now doubt whether Prohibition is a help to raising the young with a due sense of the moral value of temperance or abstinence.

It took me weeks to get at the bottom of the trouble here, for these boys do not wish to give their associates away, and even now I have not got the slightest hint who their bootlegger is.

AN END TO THE FARCE

Sir.—I received a copy of the Temperance Bulletin the other day free of all cost and as I had nothing to do at the time I looked it over and I would like to know who is publishing this filthy rag anyway, and forcing it on the people under the name of temperance? Well I read temperance literature in my time and heard some temperance sermons preached, and they all belonged to the very highest standard of morals, but this Bulletin is a bullet all right and it means to kill. So I warn you, Sir, to look out as it is deadly and it is going straight for your head, and remember this is the class of men who tied the martyrs of old to the stake and burnt them in the name of their God. The fall is the only weapon they can use to fight intemperance, and it is now full after six months of their enforcement, and liquor is more plentiful today than ever before. But with all this experience of enforcement they have learned where the trouble lies and The Guardian, which used to be a respectable paper, is now in their opinion the headquarters of the liquor gang, and they are to attack you in force with all the weapons they can command. They have asked all the decent people to rally round them to blast you out of the country.

Give them six more months experience of enforcement and we will next hear them calling on some one to lead them down to the shore to stop the tide. Imagine a temperance paper that is supposed to reform all the wayward people on the Island and lead them to this very much higher life such as practised by these good people and then loading up this Bulletin with nothing but abusive criticism of this Guardian that has "fallen from grace" with all the sting and vulgar abuse their writers can command. I do hope the end of this farce is in sight.

CHIMES ENROUTE.

At 11 o'clock mass at the Cathedral yesterday morning Monsignor Maurice McDonald announced that the chimes have arrived at Saint John from Belgium, and it is expected they will arrive in the city in the course of the next few days when the work of installation will begin. This looks as if said chimes will be in place for Easter.

DIES IN NEWTON, MASS.

The death occurred in Newton, Mass., on Thursday, March 8th., at the age of 32 years, of Walter Robertson of Kingsboro, at the late E. Robertson of Kingsboro, son of the late S.S. Robertson and Christina McLean Robertson. He is survived by his wife Marjorie, of Elmira and daughter Christina May. He left the Island on February 3rd., for a two months visit with relatives in Boston and New York. While visiting his aunt, Mrs. D. H. Stewart of Brighton, he was taken ill, a serious operation followed, and his death occurred a few days later. The body left Boston last night and will proceed to Kingsboro for funeral and burial services.

Ups and Downs Tryon and Vicinity

March, harbinger of spring is here, Yes,—April's knocking at the door. The days get warm, the nights are chill Spring's coming, Ask nothing more.

Soon the snow will melt away Grass spring up and birds sing I see the farmers till the soil Blithesome are the songs they sing.

Spring's coming, why not wear a smile I think you'll find it pays I'd rather meet a smiling face Than live in riches all my days So lets' just S—M—L—E.

Miss Juanita Miller of Victoria P. E. I has been spending a few days recently visiting friends in good old "Tryon".

Messrs. La Roy Howatt and Abner Clarke of Victoria motored to Tryon on Monday of last week.

Mr. Austin Cameron one of Augustine Cove's most prosperous farmers made a business trip to Victoria on Monday of last week.

Fans from the vicinity who attended the game at Summerside between the "Crystals and St. John 'Fussilers' were: Donald MacLeod, "Bill" MacQuarrie, Hedley Miller, Crilly Lea, Eldon Leard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pigeon Harold Mabey, Stanley Stewart, Lloyd Howatt, Bill Pooley, Cabson Sharkey and Brent Woods. The boys report a thrilling game all through with a total score of 6-5 in favor of the St. John "Fussilers".

Mr. and Mrs. Stetford Mullins of West Tryon were recent visitors to the adjacent community of Victoria.

Congratulations to the three Howatts, Lewis, Stanley and Charles, owners of Miss Belle Aquira, Harry H. and Chestnut Peter who made such an excellent showing in Tuesday's races at Victoria.

Miss Mary Newsome of Crapaud P. E. I has returned home after spending a very enjoyable visit the guest of Mrs. Lowell Compton of Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson of Chelton P. E. I were visitors to West-mooreland on Saturday of last week.

Mr. William J. Howatt of Cape Traverse attended Saturday's horse races held in Victoria and reports good racing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dawson of Augustine Cove were recent visitors to Bedeque, P. E. I where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Friday of last week when the members of the Utopian Society of Tryon journeyed to Victoria where they were entertained by the group at Victoria. After the devotional period was completed the lassies joined in the many games. And contests provided for their amusement and from the smiles on the faces of each and every one I should judge they had a glorious time. Refreshments were served by the ladies in their very best style and were heartily partaken of by all. After the short singing everyone dispersed to their respective homes—where they were entertained away only too quickly and hoping for many more such enjoyable occasions in the near future.

The second carnival of the season was held in North Tryon Arena on Saturday evening in the presence of a large crowd of interested spectators. There was a very large number of skaters in costume which were so many and varied that the judges had a difficult time to choose between them. 1st prize for ladies was won by Miss Marion Waddell—"East-er". 2nd. Eralie MacInnes—"Kewpie doll". 3rd. Mrs. Howard Woods—"Miss Canada".

Of all forms of Chewing Tobacco the PLUG is the best!

Where will you find such Milk and Butter as in the Maritimes?

AND where will you find such a satisfying A plug chewing tobacco as Big Ben. It satisfies as only the best can satisfy.

It pleases the taste as only a rich, mellow tobacco can please. It is always in perfect condition, as only a plug can stay fresh and moist.

No wonder Big Ben is the big favourite all over the Maritimes.

BIG BEN PLUG Chewing Tobacco

The Gentlemen's first prize was won by Edward Trowsdale—"Uncle Sam". The holder of the lucky door ticket was Miss Rhoda Murihead with no. 45. After the carnival all the youngsters enjoyed a leap year skate the ladies for once could choose with whom they wished to skate. Say girls you had better take advantage of Leap Year. Remember it won't be long for four more lengthy years and four years means a lot sometimes!

Miss Aletha P. Mabey and Mr. Lorne L. Mabey were visitors to Victoria on Tuesday of last week.

The numerous friends of Mrs. H. A. MacPhee regret to learn that she is still indisposed but hope for her early recovery.

Rev. Mr. Banyard and daughter May left on Monday morning for England to join his wife who is quite seriously ill. Their many friends here wish them bon voyage.

And that's that—"D"

KENSINGTON CLUB RACE

The regular weekly matinee was held on Long River ice on Tuesday P. M. March 6th. Class A had three starters viz: Peter H. (E. McMurdo), Upton Boy, (Noy Moose), and Campbellton Belle (J. Pendergast). Campbellton Belle, driven by W. D. Profit, Margate, succeeded in annexing this race after losing the first heat to Upton Boy on account of a bad break near the wire. Upton Boy, owned by Noy Moose, is a big gaited trotter, with possibilities. Peter H. was close-up at the finish.
