A correspondent writes:—If some of the wags who resort to Fodhla Station and Iona Cross at all hours of the night do not change their line of conduct, they will see their names in public print accompanied by a few explanatory remarks.

The marriage took place in Caledonia on Nov. 26th of Miss Florence McDonald of Alliston, L. 163 to Angus H. McAulay, Belfast. Miss Mildred E. Beers was bridesmaid while the groom was supported by Archibald C. McDonald. Rev. G. McLellan performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McAulay have gone to their future home in Sydney, where Mr. McAulay is employed as an electrician in the plant of the D. I. and S. Co.

In the first Methodist Church of this City last week, a women's missionary meeting was held in the basement of the church. R. C. Goff in the chair. After devotional exercises the musical portion being led by the choir the chairman in a few well chosen words congratulated the ladies in their work, its nobility, its self sacrifice and its success. He called on the Rev. G. Ross pastor of Zion Church to give the first address. This proved to be of engrossing interest. An earnest and fluent speaker with a subject close to his heart he held his audience enraptured to his peroration. A student of affairs he was able to press on his hearers the great need that Christianity should be the universal faith. The secretary's report was read by Mrs. G. H. Taylor. The year's work had been very successful the outlook hopeful. Expanding work must demand an expanding treasury. Forty per cent increase of subscriptions was asked. Mrs. G. F. Dawson gave an interesting talk on the recent W. M. S. Board meeting in Woodstock, Ontario. A sum of $80, 714.84 was raised last year. A grand total of over a million dollars had been used in obeying the behest "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." The Society is well organized, well administered. The mission noble its workers self sacrificing and indefatigable—the great results accomplished, both in the Home and Foreign field show that the work is blessed by the giver of the mandate. "Go ye." A missionary hymn "Ten thousand times ten thousand" and an anthem "The King of Love my Shepherd is" were effectively rendered by the choir.

Iona parish has recently been enlarged by the addition of some families from Orwell River.

Roy C. Lea, son of Jabez Lea, Victoria, was in Oaklands, California, November 25, and writing to a friend in this city says that times are very dull in California owing to the stringency in the money market. Mr. Lea is enjoying his trip.

Some excitement has been caused in Iona by a false and unfounded report that the smallpox was in a neighbor's house. It is to be regretted that there are certain parties in the settlement who take delight in circulating such rumors. It is a pity they are not made an example of.

A barn owned by John A. McAulay of Black River near Tracadie was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, both its contents including two horses, four cows and two pigs, besides potatoes, grain, hay, straw, and farming implements. There was no insurance and the loss will be about $1000. The farm was worked by Mr. McAulay who resides some distance away but near the barn is a dwelling occupied by his aunt Miss McAulay. No one belonging to the place had been near the barn after 4 o'clock that afternoon, and it is thought that the fire was the work of an incendiary, as the tracks of two men were seen.
