"Hearts of the Wilds"

ADAPTED FROM THE PLAY PIERRE OF THE PLAINS BY EDGAR SELWYN

Her brother had run foul of the law in an attempt to protect her. Her sweetheart, a member of the Royal Mounted, was detailed to run him down.

Neither hunter or hunted knew who the other was.

Can you imagine what happened when the hunter found his prey.

A picture that'll make you smell the evergreen pines and feel the thrill of adventure.

ROBUST CHILDREN

A child should not look pale, thin or worn. Such condition denotes malnutrition. To keep up growth and robustness a child needs a plenty of food rich in vitamins.

Scott's Emulsion

abundant in growth-promoting properties, is an ideal supplemental food that could well be a part of the diet of every growing child.

Children always do well on Scott's Emulsion.

Some men fail to reach the allotted three score and ten years because they attempt to crowd two days into one.

The lights went out! The girl suddenly vanished from the room!

One of the creepy, pleasantly thrilling moments in—

"FLU" IS INFECTIOUS

A DISEASE EASILY SPREAD THROUGH CLOSE ASSOCIATION

It passes in the form of minute germs from the coughs or sneezes of people who in the first stages quiver with others.

Therefore avoid exposure,—this may be difficult, almost impossible. But we can all keep our blood full of vitality and enable it to resist the attacks of disease germs. Dr. J. H. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the eminent blood-purifier and health builder. This good medicine promotes assimilation so as to secure for the body the greatest possible value of food. It aids digestion and "makes food taste good."

After influenza or any other blood poisoning, prostrating disease, it is remarkable how it promotes convalescence and brings perfect restoration to health. A good cathartic like Hood's Pills helps greatly by keeping the bowels regular.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. and Mrs. John B. Wood, of Montserrat, wish to express their sincere thanks to their many friends for their sympathy and kindness shown during the illness and death of their daughter Vina; also to those in Charlottetown for their lovely floral tributes.

ZAM-BUK

This illustrates but one of the many uses to which Zam-Buk, the great herbal balm, is daily put. Accidents will happen, especially where there are children. Mothers should never be without Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is the best "First Aid." Its strong antiseptic properties kill all germs, prevent blood-poisoning and inflammation. Its rich herbal essences quickly ease pain and build up new healthy tissue. Zam-Buk is entirely different from all other ointments. It is purely herbal and contains no poisonous coloring matter. Take no substitute. See the name on every box before paying.

ZAM-BUK HEALED SEVERE CUT
Mrs. J. E. Bierwirth of Carnduff, Sask., writes: "My little son cut the end of his finger. As it was such a severe cut, I was going to take him to a doctor, but in the meantime to ease the pain, I applied some Zam-Buk. This stopped the bleeding and gave him such relief that he ceased crying and seemed quite at ease. I therefore decided to see if Zam-Buk would heal the wound. Next day I placed the dressing, and continued to do so each day, using nothing but Zam-Buk. Complete cure resulted."

How SPIRIT MESSAGES from her husband ruled the life of America's Greatest Poetess

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

An Amazing Series of Letters Now to be Published for the First Time

In these letters to her brother, written during the last two years of her life, the famous writer describes the strange communications she says she received from Robt. M. Wilcox, her husband who died in 1916.

Time and again she wrote of absolute proof she received of her husband's immortality.

On the battlefield of France, she declared:

"My intense desire for speech with my beloved burned the path to him and set wires working."

He revealed to her how those in the next plane subsist on ether—about automatic writing, mental wireless and ethereal moving pictures.

Don't miss a single instalment of this astonishing serial.

Beginning Sunday February, 24th, these letters will appear exclusively in
