BODY FOUND.—The body of Patrick F. Doyle, formerly a baker employed on the A. W. Perry, was found floating at Halifax yesterday morning. He had been missing since March 2, and no trace of him could be found. It is now supposed that while boarding the steamer one night he missed his footing, and falling into the water, he was drowned. The deceased was 64 years of age, and was a most efficiency baker. All his relatives reside in England, his wife living in Liverpool, England. He was a native of County Down, Ireland. When the body was found it was very badly decomposed, and the identification was made through papers in his pockets.—Sydney Post.

FOX NOTE.—The Guardian is in receipt of the Semi-Annual report of The Magic Silver Black Fox Company, Limited, Summerside. While treating principally of the Company's operations since the annual meeting, held November last, and of the proposed business to the end of the present fiscal year, it in a general way sketches the Company's operations over several years. Altogether the report is an excellent production of this going Company. The Guardian strongly commends these business like methods. An occasional letter or report by all Companies would be greatly appreciated by the shareholders, and is not more than they are entitled to.

REMAINS BROUGHT HOME.—The death occurred at the Victoria General Hospital, Montreal, on June 22nd, of Herbert F. Parker, aged 22, son of Mr. A. H. Parker, Georgetown. The remains were brought home and interred in St. David's Presbyterian Cemetery. The funeral which took place on Friday the 25th ult. was largely attended. The Independent Order of Oddfellows, the Orange Society and the Good Templars in great numbers attended. There was a deep feeling of sympathy shown by the citizens of Georgetown in evidence of which were the numerous beautiful wreaths deposited on the grave, tokens of the high regard in which the young man was held by all his numerous friends.

McDonald, Scotchfort, is busily engaged building the foundation for his new residence which he intends having erected the coming summer.—The annual examination of Glenroy school was held on Friday, June 25th, at a goodly number of parents and others being in attendance. The examination was conducted by Rev. J. B. McIntyre and the pupils showed by their ready answers careful training and pleasing progress. Immediately after the exercises a short and entertaining program consisting of recitations etc. was given by the pupils after which words of commendation were expressed and some wholesome advice given by J. B. McIntyre, who takes a great interest in school work. Altogether the meeting was most enjoyable and instructive and after partaking of the dainties kindly provided by Mrs. Artemas Coffin all went home feeling that they had spent a most pleasant evening.—Miss Annie Coffin, Glenroy, spent the week-end visiting friends in Tracadie.—S.

ITALY'S AID IN THE WAR

Prior to the war Italy was an ally of Germany and Austria. During the early stages it seemed that she would join the Teuton hordes against us. She could not long tolerate the bullying diplomacy or the horrible atrocities of the Germans. Gradually the attitude of Austria and her refusal of Italy's neutrality demands, brought Italy into the war on our side. One of the first and most important results of Italy's declaration of war against Austria was the further troubling of German supplies. It is probable that quantities of supplies of all kinds had been smuggled to Germany and Austria through the Mediterranean until the time of Italy's declaration. With the Italian navy on guard and the whole of Italy in arms against Germany's principal ally, such deliveries must have been completely stopped. Italy ranks about fifth among the world's great military powers. She has a large and powerful fleet. Her naval program has been somewhat different than that of the other powers. In her battleships, she has combined size, power and heavy armaments with high speed. Her dreadnought type is possibly not quite so powerful as that of the British navy, but has a great speed. She has developed her submarine section to a very high degree and has specially constructed and equipped vessels for salvaging, housing and repairing injured submarines while at sea. In fact these vessels are so constructed that they can completely receive an entire injured submarine—as in a large pocket—and proceed on their way while the submarine is being repaired inside. Such vessels will be of great assistance to the Allies' fleet. Already the Italian fleet has done great damage to the Austrian fleet and has arranged to take part in the Dardanelles operations with the Allies.

The Italian army has a field strength of somewhat over 1,000,000. Their cavalry is recognized as among the best. The mountain artillery of the Italian army is the equal of any similar artillery in the world. In fact good at mountain warfare, due to the geography of their country. They have already abundantly illustrated this point in their continued defeats of the Austrian forces as they advance through the mountainous sections of south-western Austria. They are continuing with unabated speed and sweeping all before them. One great advantage for the Italian forces—army and navy—is the experience they have gained by the ten months of war before they actually entered. It enabled them to make the very best use of their forces, supplies and equipment. Thus, our new ally, Italy, completes the shutting out of supplies to Germany, and brings a very powerful force to bear against our common enemy, both on land and on sea, and in so doing, delivers a heavy blow on a frontier hitherto unattacked.

WERNER HORN REFUSED TO PLEAD.

BOSTON, July 2.—Werner Horn, the German army officer, who tried to blow up the C.P.R. bridge at Vanceboro, Maine, last February, refused on Monday to plead to three federal indictments charging illegal transportation of dynamite from New York to Maine. Pleas of not guilty were entered by direction of the Court. The case came up on the motion of United States District Attorney Anderson that it be set for trial at once. Mr. O'Connell, counsel for the prisoner, objected on the ground that he wished to enter an appeal from the federal district court decision dismissing Horn's habeas corpus petition. Through an interview Horn said he

A spoonful of Abbey's Salts taken on arising means 100% normal physical and mental efficiency for the day. Abbey's is the one effervescent salt that will not make you choke or sneeze—for the Abbey granules sink to the bottom of the water and carbonate it from the bottom up. THE GERMANS HAVE CLOSED THEIR FRONTIER AGAINST SWITZERLAND

PARIS, July 2.—The German frontier along the Swiss-Baden line has been closed since Sunday. The Wurttemberg border was closed to-day. Travellers who proceeded by boat from Switzerland to Friedrichshafen, were refused to return to Germany for several days, possibly several weeks.

GENEVA, July 2.—The Swiss people are wondering what is happening on the other side of the Rhine. No German trains are arriving at Constance, and the Swiss railway, as a consequence, has been obliged to suspend its international service in this section. The Germans have suspended the steam service on Lake Constance, Swiss, as well as other neutrals, including Americans, have been unable to enter Switzerland, all being stopped at the frontier. It is believed here that the Germans are sending large reinforcements through Southern Germany from the Russian to the French front, and for this reason have put the usual restrictions on travel.

May you long be spared to enjoy the esteem of the Canadian people."

Another congratulatory message was sent in the name of Sir Robert Borden.
