TORTURE AND HUMILIATION

For Fifteen Years Face and Body Mass of Itching Sores—Could Not Express Suffering—Doctors Did No Good.

CURED BY CUTICURA WHEN HOPE HAD GONE

"My head was one mass of scabs, my forehead was covered down almost to my eyebrows, and I had to wear my hat all the time. My body was covered with spots in size from a pinhead to as large as a silver dollar. A white, crusty scab would form and itch, and words cannot express the torture and humiliation I suffered for fifteen years. I tried many doctors, and all kinds of treatments, but could get no help, and I thought there was no hope for me. A friend told me to get Cuticura. I did, and in three days my head was as clear as ever. I applied Cuticura Ointment night and morning, also taking a hot bath with Cuticura Soap three times a week, and using the Ointment freely after the bath. After using one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely cured, without mark or blemish. I was so pleased I felt like running down the street to tell every one I met what Cuticura had done for me. (signed) H. B. Franklin, 717 Wash'n St., Allegheny, Pa."

FOURTEEN MURDERS A DAY.

The Brooklyn Eagle tells that ten years ago murders in the United States averaged about five a day. Last year the average was about fourteen. This is an appalling record, but it is not all. Ten years ago capital punishment was meted out to one in each sixteen of the murderers. Last year the proportion was only one in seventy-two. Evidently life is cheaply held across the border and is growing cheaper while crime is not taken seriously and is not punished with such severity as will give it a serious check. Lax administration of the laws, the mistaken pity of jurors, the tendency to treat a murderer as a hero or an unfortunate merely, are all contributing causes to this alarming condition of things.

And these conditions across the border are matters of grave concern to us in Canada. If ill weeds grow in the soil there, or if contagious diseases prevail along the southern side of the border line, the weeds and the infection will in spite of our utmost precaution spread to the Provinces. The same tendency exists with regard to crime and the lax administration of the criminal laws. We may lay the flattering unction to our souls that things are not so bad in Canada as they are in the United States. We have not a like proportion of serious crime, and we hang a much larger proportion of those who take human life in our midst. But there is too much reason to believe that serious crimes, and murders also are multiplying in Canada. The administration of the criminal law is gradually becoming less strict, energetic and efficient. We are in that regard retrograding rather than making wholesome progress. It is well to lay to heart the appalling fruits of lax administration; for although things are not yet so bad on this side of the line as on the other the tendency is downward.

The next meeting of the city Fathers is, we hear, to be enlivened with a few remarks on the great chimney question. The bald announcement of such a topic is sure to draw, and Councillors are expected to wax fluent over the flue.

The congregation of St. Paul's are to be congratulated upon the fair proportions, the commodious room and substantial masonry of the school building now being erected. It will be an ornament to the Square and to the City and will also serve a noble purpose. St. Paul's is not building for a day.

At the Tunnel Tea The Guardian enjoyed a conversation with Mr. McKenna, Transportation Agent of the C. P. R. He was asked what his company would do if they owned the railways on both sides of the Northumberland Straits. He cited what the C. P. R. had done at St. John in buying out the bridge and short railway which connected the C. P. R. and I. C. R. at that point. "I suppose they would connect the two systems," he said. That is the common sense of the situation. Supply the missing link by building the Tunnel.

It is indeed disappointing that there is no provision in the estimates for any sum to defray the cost of procuring further information in regard to The Tunnel project. It is quite true that some contractors, including M. J. Haney, are willing to undertake the work on the basis of the surveys and information now available, but unless the work is to be immediately begun further official data might well be provided in the meantime. Parliament is voting this year over eighty millions dollars for various purposes and in so large an expenditure something ought to have been voted for the Tunnel project if only in a preparatory way. We hope our representatives at Ottawa will do their full duty when the supplementary estimates touching interprovincial lines of communication come up for consideration.

THE NEW STEAMER.

It is so far satisfactory that a sum has been placed in the supplementary estimates to provide another winter steamer. The vote shows that the representations made by the various delegations to Ottawa have borne at least some fruit and that our hard case in the matter of winter communication is not being altogether overlooked. But the money asked for the purpose, $175,000, will be altogether inadequate to provide a steamer equal to the emergency. It would do little more than build another boat like the Minto or Stanley, which in the stress of our winter navigation at its worst are mere toy boats for the hard duties required of them. Another boat of the same class may assist by helping to keep open two routes, but it can give us no assurance of continuous steam connection.

Of course, the mere fact of the vote now asked for being limited to $175,000 need not prevent a larger sum being voted. The sum can be increased when the vote is taken, if the Government will consent, or a steamer costing more than the sum now asked for may be ordered and the extra cost may be voted next year. Still the smallness of the sum presently asked for is, as we have said, disappointing. It is quite possible, however—that the sum has been fixed at the figure named in order to shut out the car ferry project effectually. That ill-timed proposal, while it can do no good, may have had a disturbing influence at Ottawa. The only point absolutely clear in the situation is that the sum named cannot possibly supply a strong, ice-breaking steamer such as has been asked for and is so urgently needed for our winter service

Boston Sunday Globe is among the many prominent newspapers giving extended and favorable notice of the Island Tunnel project. The discussion of this topic by foreign journals is doing much to make the Island better known.

At the Tunnel Tea everybody was talking Tunnel. We did not hear a word during the entire day said in favor of the car-ferry, but we heard much in condemnation of it as an impracticable plan, and as an obstruction calculated to delay the only real remedy.

Even under the favorable weather conditions of the present season too many Island farms show evidence of a "cropped out" and exhausted condition. Our farmers must learn that the fertility taken out of the soil by constant cropping must be restored to it. A farm is like a bank account. There must be deposits made equal to what is chequed out.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

O, fudge! When you can buy reliable boys' clothing that will stand the test of hard wear, what's the use of experimenting? You may buy inferior makes of clothing but does it pay in the end? Are you satisfied with the results; would not one good suit for that boy be a good investment, rather than two of a cheaper grade. You can pick up some good values in our boys' department just now.—James Paton & Co. 7dw 11
