

There is no other tobacco just like Old Chum

Good Old Chum!

Think back over that morning on the marsh... all the ducks flying so high... your legs getting cold in your waders... waiting... waiting... what a comfort your Old Chum "blind"—what a comfort the aroma of that mellow Virginia tobacco... how satisfying the flavour!

After all—"there is no other tobacco just like Old Chum". And the record proves it—beyond a doubt Old Chum has been preferred as the ideal tobacco for more than 50 years.

Y. P. Union Convention Held At York

The Eastern Young People's Union of the Prince Edward Island United Church Presbytery held their annual convention at York on Friday, October 1st, with a registration of one hundred and ten delegates.

The afternoon session opened with a devotional service conducted by Mr. Stewart Union under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Douglas, assisted by Miss Margaret Martin and Mr. Ernest Warren.

The business meeting followed with the President, Miss Enid Coffin of Montague, in charge. The minutes of the last convention were read, as was also the Treasurer's report, by the Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Marion Hume of Charlottetown. The following committees were then appointed:

Nominations Committee: Rev. A. E. MacKenzie, Mr. Frederic Large and Mrs. Florence Moore.

Resolutions Committee: Miss Etta Ross, Miss Ruth Langill and Mr. Harold Vessey.

Press Committee: Miss Mabel Ling, Miss Eleanor McNevin and Mr. Arthur Vessey.

The visiting delegates were welcomed by Rev. J. A. Nicholson of York, after which the First Secretary, Rev. W. S. Godfrey of Sackville addressed the convention.

The delegates were then divided into four groups as follows: "Missions"—Rev. D. K. Ross, Pownal; "Citizenship"—Rev. W. A. McQuarrie, Hunter River; "Fellowship"—Rev. E. R. Woodside, Cornwall; "Culture"—Rev. S. J. Boyce, Mt. Stewart. After forty-five minutes discussion the groups re-assembled to discuss the findings in open forum.

After all had done justice to the delicious supper served by the York Union a solo by Mr. Harry Vessey was heartily enjoyed. Greetings were then brought to the convention by Miss Mabel Grant from the Christian Church, and by Mr. Reginald McNutt from Zion Presbyterian Church. Reports of the Maritime Conference in Sackville were given by Miss Ruth Langill and Miss Gladys Taylor of Charlottetown. Reports of the Camp held in July were given by Rev. W. E. Aitken and Rev. A. E. MacKenzie. Rev. W. S. Godfrey then led the group in a jolly sing-song.

The evening service was conducted by Belle River Union under the leadership of Miss V. Stewart. She was assisted by Messrs John Gilmore and Leslie Stewart. The York choir led the singing. This was followed by an address by Rev. W. S. Godfrey.

Following the devotional service greetings were brought from the Baptist Y. P. U. by Rev. B. G. Manzer of North River. The report of the Resolutions committee was read by Miss Ruth Langill and followed by the report of the committee for judging the year's work of the different unions was very capably given by Rev. B. G. Manzer who stated that he and Rev. E. O. Lancaster of Milton had great difficulty in arriving at a decision, but had finally awarded the shield to Greenwich Union, with Trinity second, Montague third, and Mt. Stewart fourth.

A very impressive installation service was conducted by Rev. W. S. Godfrey when the following officers were installed:

Honorary President—Rev. E. R. Woodside, Cornwall.
Past President—Miss Enid Coffin, Montague.
President—Mr. Harold Vessey, York.
Vice President—Mr. Allison MacLean, Montague.
Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Olga Toombs, Charlottetown.
Convener of Christian Fellowship—Miss Isabel Brown, York.
Convener of Christian Citizenship—Miss Muriel MacDonna, Cornwall.
Convener of Christian Missions—Miss Etta Ross, Pownal.
Convener of Christian Culture—Miss Louise MacQuarrie, Hunter River.
Director of Leadership Training—Rev. W. E. Aitken, St. Peter's Bay.
Director of Boys' and Girls' Work—Mr. John Ellis, Marie.
Publications—Miss Marion Hume, Charlottetown.

Breuer-Macphail Nuptials

The marriage of Miss Catherine Macphail, only daughter of Mr. Macphail, and niece and Mrs. G. Macphail, of Montreal, to Mr. Carl Breuer, vice-consul and third secretary at the United States Legation, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Max Carl Breuer, of Buffalo, took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at three o'clock, on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. Robert Johnston, D. D.

The church was artistically arranged with palms, chiotium ferns, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in shades of bronze and yellow. Mr. Desmond Iveson presided at the organ, and as the bride entered the church, he played the wedding march from Lohengrin. At the close of the service Mendelssohn's wedding march was played. During the singing of the register, Mr. Iveson played several selections which were favorites of the bride.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a model gown of white satin calimante, made on long simple lines, the sleeves shirred at the top and full to the elbow, with close fitting cuffs ending in points over the hand. The skirt formed a long graceful train. Her veil of misty tulle, which had been worn by her cousin, Mrs. Lionel Lindsay of Montreal, fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and white heather, and she carried a bouquet of pink Briarcliff roses and lilies-of-the-valley finished with farleyense ferns tied with white satin ribbon.

Her only ornament was a diamond brooch which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Rankine Nesbitt, of Toronto as matron of honor, and Miss Medora Britton, of Toronto, and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of Ottawa, as bridesmaids. Little Miss Meg Lindsay, of Montreal, the junior bridesmaid, was wearing a pretty Kate Greenway dress of dove blue taffeta trimmed with velvet ribbon, with a wreath of French flowers in her hair, carrying a Victorian bouquet of Johanna Hill roses edged with baby chrysanthemums in yellow tone. The matron of honor and two bridesmaids were gowned alike in dove blue taffeta in period style, trimmed with velvet. They wore turbans of the dove blue taffeta and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The Hon. Norman Armour, United States Minister to Canada, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Jules C. Silber, of New York; Mr. Harvey E. Mole, Jr., of Summit, N. J.; Mr. James T. Rickard, of Andover, Mass.; Mr. George Palmer, of Providence, Rhode Island; Mr. Robert English, of Ottawa; and Mr. Andrew Macphail, of Ottawa, brother of the bride.

Mrs. J. G. Macphail, mother of the bride, was wearing a Molyneux model in fuchsia velvet designed on empire lines with a French model hat of the same shade, and a corsage bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Chateau Laurier, about 350 guests being present. The toast to the bride was proposed by the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Breuer left by motor for the Adirondacks, Washington and New York and will sail by the S. S. Santa Lucia on October 23 for La Paz, Bolivia, where they will reside. Mr. Breuer having been transferred to that post in the United States Legation. Going away the bride wore a two-piece fitted jacket costume of bracken brown worsted tufts by Vionnet, belted with leather, a French model off the face hat of brown velvet and brown shoes, with a shoulder knot of Johanna Hill roses and a neckpiece of sable fur, the gift of the bridegroom.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Sir Andrew Macphail, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey B. Macphail, Dr. and Mrs. Lionel Lindsay, Miss Meg Charlottetown.

Recreation—Mr. Alistair MacLeod, Charlottetown.

Finance Dairy Cattle For China

MADAM CHIANG KAI-SH-K OFFERS $1,000 IN GOLD TO SHIP UNITED CHURCH CATTLE

TORONTO: Trusted friend of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Madam Chiang Kai-Shek, Rev. Frank Dickinson, United Church Missionary and Professor of Agriculture in the West China Union University, who is in Canada on furlough, has been thrilling Presbyteries, laymen's conferences, young people's societies, and Sunday Schools, with his exciting story of how he increased milk production in China, introduced the first lemons and grapefruits into Szechwan, improved agriculture and poultry developments, and established friendly relations between Chinese people and the work of the missionaries. The West China Union University is supported by five denominations.

Rev. Frank Dickinson, M. A. Professor of agriculture, West China Union University, Chengtu, China.

Professor Dickinson is touring Canada for the purpose of interesting agriculturists and churchmen in his work in West China. He came to Canada with the avowed purpose of securing help, bulls, poultry and seed to take back with him to China.

Young people's societies of the United Church in the Maritimes have promised Professor Dickinson that by the end of October they will raise $1500 toward equipping the model dairy barns in Szechwan. This gift is over and above the young people's societies regular gifts to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the United Church.

Word has recently been received by Professor Dickinson from Madam Chiang Kai-Shek that she will pay $1,000 in gold toward the cost of transportation of any cattle and poultry Dr. Dickinson secures in Canada to send to China.

"Unless the Church can bring salvation to the hearts and lives of the Chinese people, the Anglosaxon world will have a miserable time in the future," Professor Dickinson said in a recent interview. He pointed out that 85 per cent of the population in Szechwan Province, which has 55 millions of people, are agriculturists or related to agriculturists. "Canadian farmers have giant farms compared to the microscopic farms of the Chinese," Professor Dickinson pointed out.

As a result of Professor Dickinson's improving Chinese cattle stock, Chinese cows which previously yielded 14 teacups full of milk a day now yielded 40 to 60 cups a day. Professor Dickinson introduced the first pure-bred holstein bull in West China in 1924.

Not only has Professor Dickinson established friendly relationship between the Chinese authorities and the work of the Church in China, but his department has been instrumental in teaching many Chinese ministers in scientific agricultural methods.

Three hundred non-alcoholic drinks will be tested at a conference in Berlin of the Manufacturers of Unfermented Fruit Juices.

P. E. Island Hospital Annual Report

Since the recent issuance of the printed annual report of the Prince Edward Island Hospital covering the period from April 1, 1936 to March 31, 1937 attention has been drawn to the fact that it does not contain the names of those ladies who made collections throughout the country of both cash and supplies for the luncheon held by the Ladies Aid at the exhibition during the period in question. Nor does it contain the names of many wonderful members of the Ladies Aid who are working throughout the year.

The printed reports of the Ladies Aid have always been briefly concise setting forth merely in simple figures the immense quantities of linens, hospital beds and bedding and other material and equipment supplied to the Hospital, the total disbursements by the Aid last year, apart altogether from the disbursements made by the Hospital Board totalling $5,052.10. The Ladies Aid in the handling of so much money keep their expenses down to the very minimum and they have not acknowledged through the press the great number of gifts sent to them only because of the cost involved. The Trustees in printing the names of those who assisted in the annual collection and who sent vegetables, fruit, poultry, etc., direct to the Hospital had no intention of overlooking the wonderful efforts of the other ladies of the Aid and of those who assisted them throughout the country districts.
