IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WEBSTER VANIDERSTINE.

Entered into rest on Jan. 18th, 1915, at the home of her father, Mr. John Acorn Dundas, Mrs. Webster Vanlderstine, of Midgell Mills, aged twenty-seven, leaving a father and mother, a sorrowing husband, one son, five brothers at home, one in Ontario; one sister, Mrs. E. B. McKenzie, of Bay Fortune to mourn their loss.

MRS. JOHN NICHOLSON

The death occurred at Caledonia on August 7, 1914, of Mrs. John D. Nicholson, formerly Christy Nicholson and daughter of the late Donald Nicholson of Valleyfield. Mrs. Nicholson, who was in her 74th year of her age had been in failing health for several months, and passed away peacefully in the presence of her two daughters and brother and sister, who was summoned to her bed side when the end came. The deceased lady, was a member of Caledonia Church for years, who was a genuine favorite and a devoted mother, leaves to mourn five daughters of whom fou rresides in U. S. A., Mrs. James Irwin of Lexington, Mass.; Mrs. Neil A. MacLean, of Arlington, Mass.; Mrs. William Graves of Coldspring, Mass.; and Mrs. John O. Staples of Belmont, Mass., and Mrs. Duncan D. Matheson of Forest Hill, P. E. I., one son, Dan, of Klondike, Alaska; besides one sister in Nova Scotia and two brothers, John and Ronald of Glen Martin, P. E. I., Mrs. Nicholson was laid to rest at Caledonia Cemetery by her husband, who preceded her some nineteen years ago.

MISS HARRIET BRYENTON

The death occurred at Boston, of Harriett Bryenton, the daughter of John and Sarah Bryenton, was born at Brackley Point Road, P. E. I., Dec. 14, 1885 and died at Danvers, Mass., Dec. 16, 1914. She came to Boston in March, 1907 and to Winchester in June of the same year. During most or all of Miss Bryenton's stay in Winchester she was in the employ of Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, by whom she was trusted and greatly loved. On July 4, 1909 she was admitted to the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Winchester on confesion of faith and continued a faithful member until the time of her death. In the Epworth League she filled some important offices where she discharged her duties with fidelity. In Feb. 1914 Miss Bryenton was taken ill and was for some time in the hospital. During the time of her illness her sister Ella, was very devoted and sought to do everything possible for her relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were especially thoughtful for the deceased and did what they could to comfort and assist her in her sickness. The funeral was held from the Methodist Church of Winchester on Saturday, Dec. 19th, 1914, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. O. C. Poland, D. D.., who paid a tribute to her worth. The many friends in attendance, the profusion of flowers about the casket were a testimony of the love they had for the one they miss. Those sending flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Pond, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Rollins, Mr. D. Mellett, Mrs. C. Dodge, F. M. S. Friendship Class, Epworth League, Cousins sisters, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sellar.

MR. BLANCHARD DEAD.

At Roxbury on Jan. 10th at 3 a. m., death again visited the home of Mr. Andrew Blanchard, and deprived the family of a kind and loving father and the community of an aged and respected citizen of 81 years of age. Deceased had been in ailing health for the last six months. Until several days before his demise he complained of not feeling so well, as usual and at once medical aid was procured but to no avail. He was visited by his spiritual adviser Rev. F. X. Gallant, who annointed him and prepared his soul for its homeward journey. He leaves to cherish his memory one brother, Charles of Bloomfield and one daughter in Attleboro, Mass., and two sons Maurice in Providence, R. I., who arrived home fort the funeral, and John at home. To the bereaved relatives is extended sincere sympathy. The funeral which took place on Thursday afternoon was largely attended by both Catholics and non-Catholics, which showed the esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. The cortege leaving his late home at 1 p. m. arrived at St. Anthony's R. C., Church, Bloomfield at 2 p. m., as the procession neared the church the Bell of St. Anthony's church tolled forth its sad requiem. After the arrival at the church the Mesere Mei Deus was sung and the solemn yet sad funeral service of the Church of Rome was chanted over the remains, the Rev. F. X. Gallant being the officiating priest. At the conclusion of the service in the church the procession proceeded to the Cemetery where the remains were interred, the Rev. F. X. Gallant conducting the Latin burial service at the grave and consigning the body to mother earth their to await a glorious ressurrection. The pall-bearers were Andrew L. Arsenault, Joseph L. Arsenault of Howlan; Peter Blanchard and Mosey Blanchard of Bloomfield; Dan Arsenault and Sylvian Chaisson of Roxbury. Requiescat in Pace: Amen. On Friday morning in St. Anthony's Church a solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated for the repose of his soul. Rev. F. X. Gallant being the celebrant.

SIR WILLIAM OSLER WOULD LIKE TO GO.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.— There is a possibility of Sir William Osler, the famous physician, going to the front with the McGill General Hospital. "I am delighted to hear that your offer of a field hospital has been accepted." Sir William writes to Lieut. Col. Birkett, who is in charge. "Should you get into a typhoid district I will join you as a supernumerary colonel, and as Campbell Howard's assistant."

WOLF IS NOT YET EXTINCT IN QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, Jan. 23.—The report of the Department of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries, for the year ending June 30th, 1914, which will likely be tabled by the Hon. Honore Mercier, when the House meets this evening, contains some interesting statistics of the Department's work and expenditures during the twelve months.

Outstanding among these, are figures which gives the lie to the popular supposition that the wolf is an extinct animal in the Province of Quebec. The records show that between June 30, 1913 and the same date in 1914 there were 146 wolves killed in the Province of Quebec, and a bounty of $15 paid for each, totalling $2,190 expenditure by the Department in bounties for wolves alone.. One settler killed 11.

The total expenditure on Colonization was $274,255 and on Mines and Fisheries $90,719.

Among the colonization expenditures may be noted $2,506 to various colonization societies; $5,000 for maps and pamphlets and $249,545 for colonization roads. Over 12,000 feet of bridges and culverts were repaired by the Department during the time specified.

AN OLD BATTLE GROUND.

(From the Birmingham Age-Herald.)

St. Privat, which is seven miles from Metz, bombarded by French troops, was the scene of a desperate battle before the capitulation of the fortress in the Franco-Prussian war. For four days a French army of 26,000 men fought against 90,000 Prussians and Saxons. They did not retire until 20,000 of them were killed or wounded. The losses on the other side were 40,000.

In his tribute to the bravery of the French soldiers, a Prussian staff officer said: 'Not a single trophy, not a single gun was taken by us. More than 40,000 dead and wounded show the frightful nature of the struggle on the last day, which lasted nine hours, and in which the valor of the Germans triumphed only with the greatest difficulty over the stubborn resistance of the French."

The blame for the final defeat in the struggle is placed on Marshal Bazaine, who remained shut up in Metz and refused aid to the generals in the field, although fully informed of what was taking place. Zola, in his great novel, "The Downfall," has painted a vivid picture of the incidents leading up to the triumph of the Germans over France, and has described the French generals, Bazaine among them, as amazingly incompetent.

EXPERIMENTAL FARM WORK

(BY J. A. CLARK, SUPT. EGP. FARM CHARLOTTETOWN)

One of the most interesting talks during the Short Course in Agriculture was given by Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent of the Experimental Farm. In his opening remarks he dealt at length with the original system of Experimental Farm work as outlined by the late Wm. Saunders about thirty years ago. The finding of crops that re adapted for each locality was the underlying motive that prompted this great man to set the proposed scheme in operation. He selected and established a few farms throughout the Dominion and these proved to be of suhc extensive value that thirty-four are now used.

In the initial stages of crop work an analysis of the soil was used to determine what crops should be grown but this system was replaced by the more reliable one of growing crops and judging from the dred results obtained what ones should be used.

One of the principle crops used for investigation is wheat. It is tried at various stations and studied with relation to its adaptability for various environments. Records of seeding, ripening, yield and quality of grain are kept in all cases to substantiate the work. By such tests and from selection the margins variety has moved the wheat belt of Western Canada 100 miles north. Prelude is another variety that has improved the growing of wheat in the West being eary, short in straw and adapted to fertile soils.

The distribution of Farm seeds is a valuable part of the work. Each farm distributes the varieties adapted to the ocality it operates in.

The beautification of farm homes is an important part of the work. Suggestions, examples of work, and detaied information concerning the cculture of plants and shrubs is gladly given on any occasion.

The originator of the information bureau, the late James Fletcher. This system has done much to bring the farmer and experimentalist into close touch and has betterel the work of both to a marked degree.

The Animal Husbandry Branch of the organization is an important part. The improvement of breeding stock is taken up at most of the Farms and Stations and is showing in a practical way how gradual change toward better stock will increase the profits of the average breeder.

The Poultry Department has been working to establish a utility fowl for the farmers. The work is directed by Prof. F. C. Elford of the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa. And a department has been established at the Charlottetown Station lately. This work is gaining a provincial standing of vast importance and is to receive considerable attention at the Farm.

The Charlottetown Station started work in 1909 on a farm that was in poor condition. Experiments in rotation of crops, adaptability of grains, star-feeding and other problems of general farm importance are dealt with and available information is placed at the disposal of all innuierers.

ANNUAL REPORT OF BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

The fiscal year of the Bank of Nova Scotia ended on 31st December and its Eighty-third Annual Statement appears in this issue. As usual it exhibits a unique position of strength, for the quickly convertible assets, comprising cash, bank balances, investments and call loans total $49,232,412, which amounts to no less than 64 per cent of the Banks' liability to the public; of this 20 per cent. is in holdings of cash alone. The total resources of the Bank mounted during the year from $80,151,829 to $95,733,670 by reason of the purchase of the Metropolitan Bank last November, in addition to an increase of $3,900,000.

The profits for 1914, like those of the other large banks reporting at this time are smaller than in 1913—$1,196,116, as compared with $1,210,774—for the strengthening of cash reserves made necessary by the unusual financial situation, means a sacrifice of profits. The bank paid its usual dividend of 14 per cent., contributed $37,433 to the various Patriotic Funds in Canada, Newfoundland and Jamaica, and the Fund raised to provide for the families of Newfoundland Sealers who lost their lives in the disaster of last March; contributed $50,000 to the Bank's Pension Fund and $100,000 to the Reserve Fund. This sound old institution easily holds its position and sets an enviable example of preparedness, despite the financial stress of wartime.

KRUPP FIRM ASKS FOR PATENTS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The official journal of the patent offices contains two applications relating to armaments from the Krupp firm of Germany. One patent is sought for a gun mounting, another for a projectile fuse. The fact that the Krupp firm should thus reveal secrets of the great plant at Essen to a hostile Government has aroused much comment. Patent agents suggest that some hidden motive may lie back of the applications.

A Great Blessing to be Freed of Indigestion

For Years He Suffered After Almost Every Meal—Attributes Complete Cure to Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The experience of many people who suffer from indigestion is like that of the writer of this letter. Stomach medicines may bring some relief, but chronic indigestion is almost invariably the result of derangements of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and cannot be actually cured until these organs are set right.

MR. BARRETT.

With the liver sluggish there is constipation, and the food ferments in the bowels instead of being digested. This is the source of pain and suffering, and the cause of such dreaded diseases as appendicitis, peritonitis and kidney disease. It is much better to be on the safe side and prevent such ailments by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. J. D. S. Barrett, Nelson, B.C., and formerly of Twillingate, Nfld., writes:—"For several years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. The least bit of food caused me considerable trouble, and often I could scarcely eat a meal a day. The many remedies I tried proved futile until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after using about eight boxes I was completely cured.

"Since that time I have not been troubled with indigestion, which I consider a great blessing. I feel grateful for this cure, and shall gladly answer any inquiries from persons suffering as I did."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25c a box, 5 for $1.00, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

TAKE THIS GERMAN STORY WITH A BIG GRAIN OF SALT.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—The Cologne Gazette today publishes the following sensational disclosures regarding the German advances in France:—

"In September, France had sincere wishes for peace, and she instructed an eminent neutral diplomat to introduce preliminary proposals to this end.

"This diplomat had previously occupied an official position in London and he was under English influence. He betrayed the secret to the British Ambassador in Paris, causing an enormous sensation in London.

"Lord Kitchener was sent to France. He threatened a bombardment of the French coast, and forced from the French Government the well known treaty not to conclude peace except England consented."
