IN MEMORIAM

JAMES PETER MURTHA.
And the saddest of all is death but saddest of the saddest when stricken in his foreign exile and remote from those near and dear the iron hand of fate drops the curtain of obscurity on the life of one esteemed and liked by all so many.

Such is the sad case of James Peter Murtha who died in Lord Island on May 28 after a few hours illness. Mr. Murtagh was employed as a labourer for one of the local hospitals at the time of his demise. He was suddenly stricken with a violent heart attack and passed away within a very short time.

The deceased was always a favourite in his social undertakings. He was always willing to do anything in his power to please and amuse; by his innumerable wealth of songs, his genial disposition, and his great entertaining powers he won for himself a host of friends both young and old.

He was always ready and willing to help those in any way burdened and always had a kind and genial disposition which helped greatly in maintaining the bright side in every undertaking.

His parents Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murtha and one brother Stephen predeceased him a few years ago. The surviving relatives are one brother John Thomas and two sisters viz. Mrs. Mary Mullen and Emma at home besides a host of friends both home and abroad.

Interment took place in St. James cemetery Summerside on Sunday June 3rd beside his parents and brother. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Fr. McDonald, P. P.

Don't Gamble with the Future
