That Nova Scotia and P. E. I. are still the nursery of leaders of men is seen in the fact that Saskatchewan has come to this home of university presidents, the Maritime Provinces, and find a head for its new institution of higher learning, Prof. Walter C. Murray, of Dalhousie College, Halifax, having been selected. President Tory of the University of Alberta, is president of Edmonton Maritime Club. Dr. Falconer of the University of Toronto came from Halifax and Dr. Schurman, of Cornell, from Prince Edward Island, while many other lesser celebrities in the academic world have hailed from the part of Canada down by the sea. The product of the maritime universities serves as a powerful argument in favor of the small institution and should serve to encourage the new provinces in the start which they have made in advance of a large population.

From the Strassburg Mountaineer--The death occurred on Tuesday morning at Strassburg of Miss Farney Ella Horne, only remaining daughter of T. and Mrs. Horne of Winslow, P. E. I. The deceased was a niece of Jno. and Mrs. Holeman and had been staying with them for some months and during that time had made a great many friends in the district. A large crowd of friends and sympathizers were present at Mr. Holman's on Wednesday afternoon when a service was conducted by Rev. W. Tanton, Methodist Pastor. The reverend gentleman spoke of the deceased's patience in suffering, and beautiful resignation and testimony. After the ceremony the coffin, which was covered with beautiful flowers including a wreath and pillow from the Methodist ladies Aid, was conveyed to the depot (for Winslow, P. E. I.) followed by a large number of mourners. Miss Horne, was only 23, was an active church worker in Winslow previous to her coming west, and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family who have lost four children in the last two years.
