In Memoriam

MR. A. B. BALDERSTON

A. B. Balderston, president of Balderston Motors Ltd., and a prominent member of the city's business circles for 37 years died Tuesday in hospital after a short illness.

The death of Mr. Balderston, which came suddenly, was a distinct surprise and shock to his many friends and business associates.

Mr. Balderston, who was 64 years of age, was born in North Wiltshire, P. E. I.

He came to Vancouver in the spring of 1903. In 1904, he entered the dairy business, founding the Valley Dairy. He operated this firm for 25 years until 1929, when he sold it to the P. Burns Company.

After disposing of the dairy, he entered the automobile sales business, establishing one of the city's largest automobile organizations.

Mr. Balderston was very active in the city's club circles and took a keen interest in sports. For many years he had been a member of the Vancouver Lions' Club and also held membership in the Grey Golf Club, the Vancouver Curling Club and the Terminal City Lawn Bowling Club.

He was a charter member of Canadian Memorial Church, prior to which he was an active official of the now defunct Sixth Avenue Methodist Church.

Mr. Balderston was predeceased by his wife, who died in 1929. He is survived by a son, Wilfred Robert, and a daughter, Miriam Beatrice, both at home; a sister, Mrs. D. Caudle, Evansburg, Alberta; five brothers, Howard Balderston in Prince Edward Island; Rev. Hedy Balderston, here; Dr. Stephen Balderston, Evanston, Ill.; Herbert Balderston, in Los Angeles; and Dr. Edgerston Balderston, of Springfield, Mass.; a sister-in-law, Miss Boyver, at the family residence.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the Memorial Church with the Rev. G. Harrison Villett officiating. Place of interment is undecided. In charge of arrangements is the Mount Pleasant Undertaking Co.—Vancouver Daily Province.

Pte. Sterling L. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Campbell of New Glasgow, P.E.I. who arrived safely in England last week.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webster have arrived from Portland Maine, to spend the summer months at their summer home in Midgell. They have been coming here for many years from the rush and heat of the city.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Gauthier, on the arrival of a baby boy.

Pte. Joseph W. McDonald, R. C. A., arrived home last week for the first time since leaving the Island, and will spend two weeks before leaving.

The Misses Mabel and Mary O'Brien, teachers at St. Andrew's and Morell, are spending a month's vacation in Ottawa at present.

Mr. Cyril Sinnott has accepted a teaching position at Tracadie for the coming term.

Mr. Frank Coffin who conducted a business here for some years before moving to the city was a visitor here last week.

Mr. Albert Griffin and his son James joined the Air Force together last week. The father who served as a police officer for years in Moncton, has gone to the Air Force Police where James was called to a training centre hundreds of miles away.

Miss Margaret McDonald was a visitor here from the city last week.

The annual church festival under the auspices of the Anglican Church on Thursday evening at the Lox 40 Church grounds. Rain that at times seemed to bring the party to a close early held off and the gathering grew larger. A first class supper was served.

Quite a number of men are at work at Morell digging a larger cellar under the warehouse and store of Dingwell & Rossiter. This speaks well for the busy firm and the employment is very welcome to a number of men.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove Coffin have returned from Moncton and Halifax. They went to Moncton to attend the funeral of Rev. George Coffin, C.S.S.R., who passed away very suddenly while talking to some friends from a heart attack. Fr. Coffin was well known here, where he spent his early life before entering the priesthood.

His friends regret that the condition of Pte. Arthur Blackland, who is confined to hospital in England, has grown more serious.

Mr. Gordon McEwen left last week for Detroit, Mich., with his father, Mr. McEwen, has made his home with his grandparents since a baby being born in the States he will no doubt reside there in future.

Miss Irene Drake is spending her vacation with her mother Mrs. Earl Drake.

The largest crowd ever seen in Morell was at the ball on Friday night for a monster dance. Scores of army and navy men on leave were present and lent color to the party. The Avar's Orchestra furnished music in the style.

Able Seaman Terrance Gallant is away for this week through here Saturday morning filling any holes or cracks in the pavement they found very little to do as the road is almost in perfect condition. The telephone crew replaced a number of poles along the line here last week, all bad ones being removed.

Owing to lack of man power several farmers have installed hayforks and hay carriers in their barns this season.

Mrs. Ella Coffin Morell is spending a well earned vacation in Boston with her daughter Helen and other friends.

Those in charge of the big party known as Bristol Day are busy on the plans for the proceeds will go to air raid victims in Bristol, England.

Miss Eileen O'Brien, teacher at Fortune Road is at present spending her vacation in New York City with friends.

Old friends of the late William J. O'Brien, especially railway men will remember that fifteen years ago last Saturday July 19th, 1926, Mr. O'Brien was trapped between the cars in Souris yard while making up the afternoon train and passed away on July 27th one week after the accident. The train was in charge of the late Peter McCarron, who has also passed on.

Mr. George Barry has answered the call to the army and will enter camp the last of this month.

Mrs. William Francis has moved to the mainland where she seeks better health.

Sea View And Vicinity

The Orange Tea which had to be postponed owing to the downpour of rain on the 12th was held on Monday afternoon and quite a number from this community attended and greatly enjoyed the tea as well as the sports the weather was ideal and all present spent a pleasant afternoon.

This country experienced over the past week end one of the worst rainstorms they have had for a long time. The low land was simply flooded. Again the farmers are trusting that the weather will become settled before they begin haying.

Mrs. John E. Campbell entertained the members of the Sea View W. I. at her home on Wednesday evening for their July meeting.

Miss Marion Sutherland, Ottawa, has arrived for her annual holiday and is spending it pleasantly at her old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Pickering and little son Karl who were recent visitors to Sea View have returned to their home in Summerside.

Mrs. Leigh Sutherland spent a few days recently in Malpeque to learn that Miss Dorothy Thompson has resigned her position with the Malpeque Trading Co. In the years of service there she made many friends who all wish her every success. Miss Thompson has accepted a position with the T. Eaton Co. of Moncton, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Champion of Boston are spending their holidays with friends in Darnley and Spring Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sturdy and work at Summerside were recent visitors to Darnley the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Caseley Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bearsto and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Adams were recent visitors to Elmstale and enjoyed a pleasant visit with friends there.

A goodly number of the Sea View W. I. members attended the convention recently held in Malpeque.

The sympathy of many from this community is extended to Mrs. F. W. Donald in the passing of her father the late Mr. John A. Brown in the early hours of July 16th, at his home in Graham's Road.

WHO WOULD NOT FIGHT ?

By James Maclean Who has not heard the squealing rat of Rome Upon the air, not measured every tone; Nor heard the grunts, not sensed the flecks of foam Of that depraved and yeasting German drone?

Demented, crazed, to wild-eyed frenzy driven Who has not marked the eyes with madness glazed Of devil ridden maniacs unshriven As ever filled a nightmare, ever gazed

From madhouse bars? Who has not seen the beast Revolving in each feature, every pose? Who has not seen the door of Hell ajar? Who has not felt the reek that thence arose

With them, disclosing what, and whence they are? What lower could there be in any form Of life than that which sinks below the line Of nature to depravity—the swarm Of slimy things that follow where they lead

Through blood and mire, through darkest jungle hate To lowest depths of pervert thought and deed. Therein, thereon, thereof to build their state?

Who would not fight who sold their souls to Hell For counterfeit reward and wage of lust, Whose every posture every tone as well, Fills all the world with loathing and disgust?

MALPEQUE W. I. The members of Malpeque W. I. met in the Institute room on Thursday evening. President in the chair and the meeting opened in the usual way with the Ode and Creed. 14 members responded to roll call after which the minutes were read and approved. Sick and school committees reported and a new sick committee Mrs. Ralph Bearsto and Mrs. Charles Taylor was appointed. Some correspondence was read and discussed after which several other items of business were brought before the meeting. Members decided to clean the hall and have it renovated before the District Convention. The Red Cross Convention then introduced the subject of the H. M. S. Corvette as one of those
