—DEATH OF LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF KILDARE—There passed away on Monday evening after a long and tedious illness Mr. Patrick M. Foley, of Kildare at the age of 73 years. The late Mr. Foley was born at Kildare where he resided all his life. He was one of the best and most progressive farmers of the district. In politics he was a strong Conservative and in religion a devotee adherent to the Roman Catholic Faith. The deceased was held in the highest esteem by his neighbours and friends. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow, six sons and two daughters, namely:—Wilfred, and Gerald of Holyoke, Mass., Frederick of Newark N. J., Oswald of Worcester, Mass., Edward P. of Summerside; Sister St. Margaret of Notre Dame Convent, Montreal, Miss Louise of Watertown, Mass., and Alfred at home, also one brother, Mr. M. M. Foley of Alberton and two sisters, Mrs. Kate O'Brien of Alberton and Mrs. James McMyre of Ontario, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.—S.

—HIGH NOON WEDDING—At high noon on Wednesday, November 27th, St. Mary's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Nina Janet Somers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Somers, Springfield was united in marriage to Mr. Earl Daniel Maynard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Maynard, Ellerslie. Venerable Archdeacon White performed the ceremony in the presence of a congregation, which included a large number of friends of both the bride and groom. The bride was beautifully gowned in a costume of blue georgette and looked exceedingly winsome. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold watch. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, when the immediate friends of the contracting parties assembled to do them honor. A sumptuous repast was served and the health of the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. M. T. Dambie, who expressed the sentiments of all the friends in complimentary terms, concluding by wishing the young couple a long, happy and prosperous life. Among those sitting around the festive board was Hon. Peter Sinclair, who in his characteristically eloquent manner wished the newly married couple every success and happiness through life. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents which is only one testimony of their popularity with all their friends. The evening extended to a delightful social time everyone enjoying themselves to the full. In the wee sma' hours a very delightful function terminated after three lusty cheers for the bride and groom and the singing of Auld Lang Syne. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard left the following morning for their future home in Halifax followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.—S.

—Mr. George Callbeck, of Summerside, returned home from Winnipeg on Tuesday evening. He reports a temperature of thirty two below zero at Winnipeg the day he left there.—S.

—Friends throughout the Province will regret to learn that Mr. George Robinson's condition remains unchanged. Mr. Robinson, of Summerside, has been in Boston for some time undergoing treatment for a nervous disease. His wife and daughters left for Boston two weeks ago and are remaining with him.—S.

—Mr. Bowman, the popular teller of the Royal Bank at Summerside, left on Monday for his home in North Wiltshire on sick leave.—S.

—The many friends of Mrs. R. T. Morrison, of Summerside, will be pleased to hear that she is very much improved, after her recent disposition.—S.

and stockings and carried a lovely bouquet of carnations and fern. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen Casely, who wore a pretty dress of shell pink georgette, trimmed with lace. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George Mayhew. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which sixty guests were present. A sumptuous wedding supper was served, the dining room being daintily trimmed in pink and white. At the close of a delightful evening, a large party of charivariers called to extend their best wishes to the bride and groom, and added much to the merriment of the occasion. The happy young couple left for their new home in Margate, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.—S.

—IMMACULATE CONCEPTION —Last Sunday was the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the Feast being appropriately observed in St. Paul's Church, Summerside, the sermons at both Masses dealing with the Immaculate Conception. In the evening at 7 o'clock, the members of the Children of Mary attended in a body and marched in procession. Hymns to the Blessed Virgin were sung, followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The sermon for the occasion was preached by Reverend J. J. Mac Donald, Pastor of St. Paul's, who traced the history of the Children of Mary and outlined the virtues of the Blessed Virgin. He said the Children of Mary were not an ordinary society. It was founded in Rome in 1538. The Mother of God, said the learned preacher, is the common Mother of all the Faithful but has a special regard for the Children of Mary; exhorting the members to make themselves worthy of that regard by imitating the edifying life of the Blessed Virgin. Extolling the virtues of Mary as Humility, Obedience, Purity and Prayer, the reverend speaker urged the Children of Mary to imitate these virtues and to offer them to the Blessed Virgin to obtain a proper devotion to her Immaculate Conception.—E.

COSSGRAVE MADE L.L.D. IN VALERA'S ABSENCE

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Dec. 11 —The awkwardness of Eamon de Valera's conferring an honorary degree upon President Cosgrave has been averied as a consequence of the Republican leader's present trip to the United States.

The National University, of which de Valera is chancellor, today made President Cosgrave a doctor of laws. Prof. Merriman officiating. G. K. Chesterton, Hilaire Belloc and Rene Basin were similarly honored.

Y. Basketball

In a fast and exciting game Tuesday night the Y team came back strong and won over the Spartans by a score of 35 to 26. The Y players were without Mosher and Murley, who played in the last two games, but Gordon Toombs and Charlie Matheson were back in the game, and good combination with accurate shooting gave the Y team a well earned victory. These two teams are very evenly matched and expect to put up some other very close games.

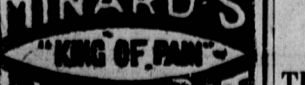

Earl Goss as referee, handled this game in a most perfect manner, which made it one of the cleanest and fastest games played in the "Y" for years. The Y's Men's forwards played excellent combination and worked hard, this one fact alone accounting for the change of score over the last game. The line ups and scores follow:
