

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

For Dyspepsia

If you suffer Stomach Trouble, and you try our remedy, it won't cost you a cent if it fails.

To prove to you that indigestion and dyspepsia can be thoroughly relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will do it, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give you satisfaction.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin have been properly combined with Carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain that there is nothing so good for stomach ills as Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets that we urge you to try them at our risk. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store:

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

ST. JAMES CHURCH annual tea is being held today.

TRVON CIRCUIT.—The Rev. D. McLean will preach on Sabbath next, 30th inst, at Tryon at 11 a. m., Hampton at 3 p. m. and Bonshaw at 6 p. m.

MARATHON.—The annual Boston Marathon will be held this year on April 19th. There will be a large number of Canadian runners, including Thomas, the Indian, of P. E. Island, says a Sydney exchange.

THE CATHEDRAL SPIRE.—Owing to the stormy weather which made it very difficult to complete the work of sawing away the posts at the foundation of the Cathedral spire the work of hauling down the latter has been postponed until today, weather permitting.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. Robert Fennell, Miss Fennell, and Mrs. Wright, Charlottetown, had quite an exciting experience while sailing from Philadelphia to Savannah on the steamer Dorchester, during the recent storm in the South. The steamer was wrecked and was obliged to put into Norfolk, Va., for shelter.

INTERESTING ADDRESS.—Notwithstanding the storm of yesterday upwards of 100 people attended the lecture given by Mrs. Dunbreck in New Glasgow Hall and listened with keen interest and appreciation to her splendid discourse on "The home influence, the foundation of national development."

THE INWARD TRAINS.—The western accommodation arrived in Charlottetown yesterday at 12.55 p. m., thirty-five minutes late, the eastern at 11.15 a. m., ten minutes late, the southern at 10.30 a. m., fifteen minutes late, the Cape Traverse at 10.40 a. m., thirty minutes late and the Summerside at 6 p. m., forty-five minutes late.

ANNIVERSARY.—Mrs. Helen Robertson of Jamaica Plain, Mass., celebrated her eightieth birthday on March 21st. The day passed quietly, marked only by numerous letters and post cards expressing congratulations and good wishes; but, on Saturday, to her great surprise, a score of nieces and nephews, also, some of her grand-nieces and nephews, arrived prepared to spend the day. Mrs. Robertson was the recipient of many useful gifts. Games were played and many old-time songs were sung, after which dinner was served. The party broke up at a late hour after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Mrs. Robertson was formerly Miss Helen Dalziel of Murray Harbor North, a sister of Mr. James Dalziel of that place, and has hosts of friends in this Province. She married Mr. Alex. Robertson of Brudenell, and lived there until his death five years ago when she moved to Jamaica Plain where she now resides with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hendren. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell of Brookline, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, and son, Dalziel, of Quincy, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. M. Cardin of Auburn, R.I.; Miss Muriel Lavers and Misses Margaret and Frances Reid of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. David Young of Dorchester, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Luther, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell, Miss Grace Campbell, Miss Lulu Dalziel, Miss Jennie Campbell and Miss Mabel Patterson of Attleboro, Mass.
