PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH— ANNUAL MEETING—The fifty-sixth annual meeting of the plot holders of Sherwood Cemetery Company was held Tuesday afternoon with the president, Judge Stewart, presiding. The present directors were re-elected. The directors' report shows that notwithstanding some heavy expenses on the keeper's house during the past year that there is a balance to credit in current account. The cemetery capital account now amounts to $8,841.34, of which some $3,845.00 has been paid in by plot holders for the perpetual care of their plots. The directors urge plot holders who have not already done so to pay into this fund a sum sufficient for the perpetual care of their plots. The directors also request that those paying yearly subscriptions for care of plots hand same to the secretary. The subscriptions for this season are now due.

RADIO FUND FOR THE PRO- VINCIAL SANATORIUM—During the campaign in September for funds to build and equip a Provincial Sanatorium, the canvassers in Charlottetown were divided into teams and a prize of $25.00 was given by Lt. Col. Pull to the team raising the largest amount. The winning team was captained by Mrs. Seth Henderson. The winners of the prize have forwarded the money to the Secretary of the Provincial Sanatorium Commission expressing the desire that it be used to begin a Radio Fund for the Sanatorium. A radio in such an institution where the patients are required to remain in bed for such long periods of time will be of great value as anyone can readily appreciate. The ladies who have given this money for such a purpose are to be highly commended.

Mrs. Alice Merkel left on return yesterday morning to Tulsa, Oklahoma, after visiting her mother, Mrs. W. P. Doull, who it is pleasing to note is greatly improved after her recent illness.

Patience, dear reader, while I sing An ode to the coming of gentle spring,
A robin sits on my window sill,
And shivers and shakes from tail to bill,—
He's a wise old bird, and he knows 't is spring,
But his throat's so hoarse, he cannot sing,
The crocuses cuss in my back yard,
When they bump their heads on the frozen sod.
The violet lifts up its head of blue,
Yeah, blue from the cold, I'm telling you,
The pussy willows brave the storm,
But they have to wear fur coats to keep warm.

The many friends of Miss Anastasia Collins, R. N., New York, but formerly from Vernon River, are sorry to learn of her recent illness and trust for her speedy recovery.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. DONALD P. MCKINNON
There is no flock however watched and tended
But one dead lamb is there,
There is no fireside howsoever defended
But hath one vacant chair.

The truth of those saddest of sad words was fully exemplified by the death of Mrs. Donald P. McKinnon, Forest Hill, on Mar. 13, of this present year at the advanced age of 82 years. Although in failing health for several years, she was always comforted by the certainty of a happy life beyond the grave. By her death, the community loses an upright, God fearing woman, who, with her husband upbuilt a comfortable home for themselves and their family. By her death there are left to mourn a sorrowing husband; one daughter, Mrs. Henry B. McDonald, Cable Head East; another daughter, Mrs. James Gunn, St. Peter's West, having predeceased her 19 years ago; two sons, Peter D., on the home stead, and Alexander, St. Peter's Village; two sisters, Sadie McLeod, at Forest Hill; Mrs. J. C. Boyd, New York City; three brothers, Neil McLeod, tailor, St. Peter's Village; Malcolm and Daniel McLeod, both farmers at Forest Hill, besides a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral from her home to the Presbyterian Cemetery, at Dundas, was largely attended, despite the inclemency of the weather. Service was held at her late home by Rev. J. Admanson, and at the grave by Rev. Mr. Constable, after which the mortal remains of one, whom all loved in life and will not forget in death were interred beside her youngest daughter, Mrs. J. Gunn, there to await a glorious resurrection.
