

Annual Meeting Diocesan Council C.W. League

The annual executive meeting of the Diocesan Council, Catholic Women's League, was held recently in the Legion rooms, Charlottetown...

THE KIRK

Preaching yesterday morning on the text "The Good Shepherd" called His own sheep by name...

CENTRAL GUARDIAN Field Day At Rose Valley

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a new paper may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

No Enthusiasm In Britain Over Loan Approval

(By John Dauphinee, Canadian Press Staff Writer) LONDON, July 14—(CP Cable)—Approval by Congress of the United States loan to Britain was accepted in the United Kingdom today with some grudging but no real enthusiasm amid warnings...

Supersonic

Continued From Page 1 ahead in the development of the jet engine which is only now being put to use by the American army and navy air forces...

Bad Fire

Continued From Page 1 For a time it was feared the ferry for the Halifax-Dartmouth service will under construction...

"Gertie", the duck which acquired continent-wide publicity last year when she built her nest on a bridge piling in downtown Millwaukee, Wis., has returned to the same spot -- this time with a boy-friend. "Gertie" was identified by the band on her leg (arrow).

To Command

Continued From Page 1 near Bremen. While C.O. of the 3rd L.A.A. Regt. Col. Peake won the Distinguished Service Order for gallantry in action...

Cabinet

Continued From Page 1 reds of manufacturing plants a steel production dependent on steel production.

House Of Commons Will Be Rebuilt

LONDON, July 14—(Reuters)—The House of Commons, razed by the bombs in 1941, may be rebuilt by 1949—in time for members of the present parliament to use it before their term of office expires in 1950.

Large Sum Raised For Relief

Success of the overseas famine relief program recently launched by the Seventh-day Adventists is revealed in a report just received by Rev. G. E. Whelan...

TERMS OF LOAN

WASHINGTON, July 14—(AP)—The financial agreement between Britain and the United States, approved by Congress Tuesday, provides:

RATES Births and Marriages 25c. Cash must accompany order.

BIRTHS MacKINNON—At the P. E. Island Hospital, July 7, 1946, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKinnon, Cornwall, a daughter.

MARRIAGES STONE-SMITH—At Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, on Monday, July 14, 1946, by Rev. T. E. McLennan, Hazel Pauline Smith of Charlottetown and Charles C. Stone of Andover, Maine.

DEATHS MacLEOD—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Sunday, July 14, 1946, Mrs. J. Otis MacLeod, Ulg. Funeral from her late residence on Tuesday, July 16, at 2 p.m. St. Ignace Roman Catholic Church.

HUNT WILD BOAR HERFORD, Germany, July 12—(Reuters)—A British army of the Rhine is hunting wild boar under instructions—because of the damage to crops during the first hunt, a wireless truck maintained the army's advance on the scrubs equipped with service rifles. The bag was two boar.

Card Of Thanks Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers and family wish to thank their many friends for all their acts of kindness during their recent bereavement.

In Memoriam In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Elizabeth MacDougall, who passed away on July 14, 1942. I am thinking of you in silence but ever in my aching heart. Your beautiful memories I keep. Flowers placed upon your grave.

In Memoriam In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Elizabeth MacDougall, who passed away on July 14, 1942. How sweet to sleep where all is peace. Where sorrow cannot reach the breast. And where all life throbbings cease. And where I shall be laid to rest. Daughter Edna.

In Memoriam In loving memory of Sgt. George R. Sims, who was killed in France on July 15, 1944. Somewhere in France he is sleeping. There with his comrades brave. For home, and friends and dear ones. His bright young life he gave.

In Memoriam There is a picture in my memory. It is the kindly, docile, and ready to die in my aching heart. On a dear young boyish face. By His Grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Sims and Ann Latta.

N. D. MacLean UNDERTAKER EMBALMER Charlottetown and North West End Phone 149

SEND YOUR order for tickets on the St. John's Express to Mr. Leonard MacDonald, chairman of the Committee in Charge of the Recreation Centre Carnival at P. O. Box 147. Tickets 10 cents each 12 for $1.00.

HOME ON VISIT—Miss Ethel Moreide of San Francisco is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Nelson MacDonald of Hunter River, P. E. I. It is 33 years since she left her home in North Milton and her many friends will be glad to see her back again.

FUNERAL SATURDAY—The funeral of Miss Helen Kesteven, who passed away in St. John, July 12, was held Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. at the St. John's church and grave were conducted by Mr. Donald Nicholson. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. H. Somers.

LEAVING FOR ST. JOHN—Mr. J. P. Connolly, Provincial Deputy Minister of Reconstruction, leaves for St. John, N. B., in the afternoon to attend the meeting of the St. John's Government. Mr. Connolly hopes to return to Charlottetown on Monday.

HONORED BY KING—Two brothers, Mr. H. F. Gordon, Deputy Minister of Defense for Air, and Mr. P. W. Gordon, of Hamilton, Ont., were among those honored by King George VI. at the 10th Anniversary of the Order of the British Empire. They were brothers of Mr. J. Gordon, Mayor of Charlottetown.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Louise MacDonald, who passed away on Tuesday, July 14, was held at the MacLean Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. T. H. Somers, at nine o'clock. The pallbearers at the MacLean Funeral Home were Edward Shaw, Edward Byrnes, John MacFarlane, Louis MacFarlane, Leslie MacDonald, Milton Cannon. The pallbearers at the church were Robert MacDonald, Norman MacDonald, Fletcher MacEachern, Wilbert Currie, Weldon Taylor.

LEAVE FOR WINNIPEG—Lieut. Governor R. F. McWilliams and Mrs. McWilliams left yesterday morning on their return trip to Winnipeg. They were accompanied by Rev. T. H. Somers, Governor J. A. Bernard and Mrs. Bernard. On Saturday they were accompanied by Premier J. Walter Jones and Mrs. Jones, the Governor and his wife were shown many points of interest in the Province. During the day, the visitors had the opportunity of renewing an old friendship with the Rev. Dr. S. J. Bonnell and Mrs. Bonnell, who are now at Cavendish. Both the Governor and Mrs. McWilliams knew Dr. Bonnell when he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Winnipeg.

FUNERAL OF DR. A. B. MARTIN—The funeral of Dr. A. B. Martin, of Mt. Stewart, was held yesterday afternoon. A short service was held at the residence conducted by Rev. W. T. Mercer followed by services at the United Church conducted by Rev. W. T. Mercer. Rev. T. E. McLennan and Mrs. McWilliams sang the service. Mr. Leigh Dingwall sang as a solo. "The Lord is My Shepherd" and the choir sang "I Shall Know Him". A representative of the Canadian Red Cross Society, Mrs. J. A. Fisher, officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were, J. A. Fisher, John D. MacDonald, George MacKenzie, Roy Leard, D. D. B. P. J. MacDonald, Interment in Forest Cemetery, Mt. Stewart.

Miss Maude MacLean, R. N., of North River, left Friday for Ottawa, where she is taking a position on the staff of the Ottawa Civic Hospital.

LONDON (CP)—Civil staffs employed by the Government departments on April 1 totalled 65,500, an increase of 4,600 since the end of 1945.

Mr. D. C. Schurman, Assistant Superintendent, Experimental Station, "Field Husbandry and Fertilizer" brought to the attention of those present the need to be derived from the judicious use of manure and commercial fertilizers. In his presentation he stressed the need of a policy where manure would play a leading role in crop production. The value of manure as compared with commercial fertilizers was discussed at some length and the speaker suggested much knowledge might be acquired by looking about the country and the value of barnyard manure. In his construction of a building program, Mr. N. W. Adams, Dominion Forestry Officer, Fredericton, New Brunswick, reviewed the "Wooded Management Project" active at this station. He stressed the importance of the many problems associated with forest conservation utilizing special methods. He pointed out that putting was the only means whereby the forest could be protected from the timber stand, and farmers were reminded that the forest was a source of income to outbreaks of aphids and insects of injurious fungi diseases. The speaker stressed the importance of a well balanced ration of forest products in order to keep the flock healthy and insure economic production.

On behalf of the farmers present Rev. G. E. Whelan expressed appreciation of the work under study at this station, and thanked the speaker for their informative address, stressing the importance of the forest in keeping in touch with the latest developments in scientific agriculture.

Progress on the progress of the station was discussed by the visitor and a visit paid to areas of the farm under various fertilizer projects.

Success of the overseas famine relief program recently launched by the Seventh-day Adventists is revealed in a report just received by Rev. G. E. Whelan, who is in charge of the sessions of the world General Conference just closing in Washington, D. C.

Reporting to the 800 convention delegates, among whom were more than 300 from foreign lands, J. J. Strahle, director of European famine relief, said that he had spent $250,000 of the $600,000 raised in a recent North American campaign for famine relief in Denmark and Sweden for food sent into Poland, 50,000 pounds of butter and large quantities of cheese, barley, peas, beans, powdered milk and soap. Before returning for the conference he had just shipped from Denmark 10 tons of food to Vienna and 10 tons to Budapest, and from Switzerland, 2 carloads of potatoes to Germany and a carload of Vienna.

European delegates repeatedly thanked the conference for the clothing sent to war-stricken areas. A total of 800 tons of new and used clothing was sent overseas by the welfare societies in the Seventh-day Adventist churches of North America.

Church leaders reported progress in the various activities of the denomination since the last world conference in 1942. Sales of Adventist literature rose 68 per cent for the 5-year period.

The Seven-day Adventist church operates 14 hospitals and clinics in all parts of the world. Thirteen sanitariums in North America, with a capacity of 2,000 beds, cared for 60,000 in-patients during 1945. Doctors are arriving at foreign posts to re-open a number of overseas hospitals which were closed during the war.

Enrollment in denominationally operated colleges during the past school year topped 60. Secondary school enrollment was 9,830; elementary school, 21,153.

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

Mr. D. C. Schurman, Assistant Superintendent, Experimental Station, "Field Husbandry and Fertilizer" brought to the attention of those present the need to be derived from the judicious use of manure and commercial fertilizers. In his presentation he stressed the need of a policy where manure would play a leading role in crop production. The value of manure as compared with commercial fertilizers was discussed at some length and the speaker suggested much knowledge might be acquired by looking about the country and the value of barnyard manure. In his construction of a building program, Mr. N. W. Adams, Dominion Forestry Officer, Fredericton, New Brunswick, reviewed the "Wooded Management Project" active at this station. He stressed the importance of the many problems associated with forest conservation utilizing special methods. He pointed out that putting was the only means whereby the forest could be protected from the timber stand, and farmers were reminded that the forest was a source of income to outbreaks of aphids and insects of injurious fungi diseases. The speaker stressed the importance of a well balanced ration of forest products in order to keep the flock healthy and insure economic production.

On behalf of the farmers present Rev. G. E. Whelan expressed appreciation of the work under study at this station, and thanked the speaker for their informative address, stressing the importance of the forest in keeping in touch with the latest developments in scientific agriculture.

Progress on the progress of the station was discussed by the visitor and a visit paid to areas of the farm under various fertilizer projects.

Success of the overseas famine relief program recently launched by the Seventh-day Adventists is revealed in a report just received by Rev. G. E. Whelan, who is in charge of the sessions of the world General Conference just closing in Washington, D. C.

Reporting to the 800 convention delegates, among whom were more than 300 from foreign lands, J. J. Strahle, director of European famine relief, said that he had spent $250,000 of the $600,000 raised in a recent North American campaign for famine relief in Denmark and Sweden for food sent into Poland, 50,000 pounds of butter and large quantities of cheese, barley, peas, beans, powdered milk and soap. Before returning for the conference he had just shipped from Denmark 10 tons of food to Vienna and 10 tons to Budapest, and from Switzerland, 2 carloads of potatoes to Germany and a carload of Vienna.

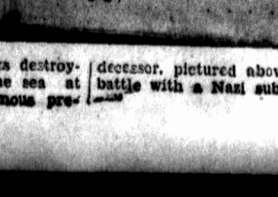

European delegates repeatedly thanked the conference for the clothing sent to war-stricken areas. A total of 800 tons of new and used clothing was sent overseas by the welfare societies in the Seventh-day Adventist churches of North America.

Church leaders reported progress in the various activities of the denomination since the last world conference in 1942. Sales of Adventist literature rose 68 per cent for the 5-year period.

The Seven-day Adventist church operates 14 hospitals and clinics in all parts of the world. Thirteen sanitariums in North America, with a capacity of 2,000 beds, cared for 60,000 in-patients during 1945. Doctors are arriving at foreign posts to re-open a number of overseas hospitals which were closed during the war.

Enrollment in denominationally operated colleges during the past school year topped 60. Secondary school enrollment was 9,830; elementary school, 21,153.

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

Mr. D. C. Schurman, Assistant Superintendent, Experimental Station, "Field Husbandry and Fertilizer" brought to the attention of those present the need to be derived from the judicious use of manure and commercial fertilizers. In his presentation he stressed the need of a policy where manure would play a leading role in crop production. The value of manure as compared with commercial fertilizers was discussed at some length and the speaker suggested much knowledge might be acquired by looking about the country and the value of barnyard manure. In his construction of a building program, Mr. N. W. Adams, Dominion Forestry Officer, Fredericton, New Brunswick, reviewed the "Wooded Management Project" active at this station. He stressed the importance of the many problems associated with forest conservation utilizing special methods. He pointed out that putting was the only means whereby the forest could be protected from the timber stand, and farmers were reminded that the forest was a source of income to outbreaks of aphids and insects of injurious fungi diseases. The speaker stressed the importance of a well balanced ration of forest products in order to keep the flock healthy and insure economic production.

On behalf of the farmers present Rev. G. E. Whelan expressed appreciation of the work under study at this station, and thanked the speaker for their informative address, stressing the importance of the forest in keeping in touch with the latest developments in scientific agriculture.

Progress on the progress of the station was discussed by the visitor and a visit paid to areas of the farm under various fertilizer projects.

Success of the overseas famine relief program recently launched by the Seventh-day Adventists is revealed in a report just received by Rev. G. E. Whelan, who is in charge of the sessions of the world General Conference just closing in Washington, D. C.

Reporting to the 800 convention delegates, among whom were more than 300 from foreign lands, J. J. Strahle, director of European famine relief, said that he had spent $250,000 of the $600,000 raised in a recent North American campaign for famine relief in Denmark and Sweden for food sent into Poland, 50,000 pounds of butter and large quantities of cheese, barley, peas, beans, powdered milk and soap. Before returning for the conference he had just shipped from Denmark 10 tons of food to Vienna and 10 tons to Budapest, and from Switzerland, 2 carloads of potatoes to Germany and a carload of Vienna.

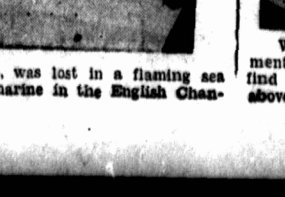

European delegates repeatedly thanked the conference for the clothing sent to war-stricken areas. A total of 800 tons of new and used clothing was sent overseas by the welfare societies in the Seventh-day Adventist churches of North America.

Church leaders reported progress in the various activities of the denomination since the last world conference in 1942. Sales of Adventist literature rose 68 per cent for the 5-year period.

The Seven-day Adventist church operates 14 hospitals and clinics in all parts of the world. Thirteen sanitariums in North America, with a capacity of 2,000 beds, cared for 60,000 in-patients during 1945. Doctors are arriving at foreign posts to re-open a number of overseas hospitals which were closed during the war.

Enrollment in denominationally operated colleges during the past school year topped 60. Secondary school enrollment was 9,830; elementary school, 21,153.

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

Mr. D. C. Schurman, Assistant Superintendent, Experimental Station, "Field Husbandry and Fertilizer" brought to the attention of those present the need to be derived from the judicious use of manure and commercial fertilizers. In his presentation he stressed the need of a policy where manure would play a leading role in crop production. The value of manure as compared with commercial fertilizers was discussed at some length and the speaker suggested much knowledge might be acquired by looking about the country and the value of barnyard manure. In his construction of a building program, Mr. N. W. Adams, Dominion Forestry Officer, Fredericton, New Brunswick, reviewed the "Wooded Management Project" active at this station. He stressed the importance of the many problems associated with forest conservation utilizing special methods. He pointed out that putting was the only means whereby the forest could be protected from the timber stand, and farmers were reminded that the forest was a source of income to outbreaks of aphids and insects of injurious fungi diseases. The speaker stressed the importance of a well balanced ration of forest products in order to keep the flock healthy and insure economic production.

On behalf of the farmers present Rev. G. E. Whelan expressed appreciation of the work under study at this station, and thanked the speaker for their informative address, stressing the importance of the forest in keeping in touch with the latest developments in scientific agriculture.

Progress on the progress of the station was discussed by the visitor and a visit paid to areas of the farm under various fertilizer projects.

Success of the overseas famine relief program recently launched by the Seventh-day Adventists is revealed in a report just received by Rev. G. E. Whelan, who is in charge of the sessions of the world General Conference just closing in Washington, D. C.

Reporting to the 800 convention delegates, among whom were more than 300 from foreign lands, J. J. Strahle, director of European famine relief, said that he had spent $250,000 of the $600,000 raised in a recent North American campaign for famine relief in Denmark and Sweden for food sent into Poland, 50,000 pounds of butter and large quantities of cheese, barley, peas, beans, powdered milk and soap. Before returning for the conference he had just shipped from Denmark 10 tons of food to Vienna and 10 tons to Budapest, and from Switzerland, 2 carloads of potatoes to Germany and a carload of Vienna.

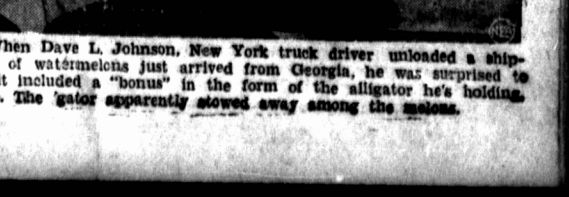

European delegates repeatedly thanked the conference for the clothing sent to war-stricken areas. A total of 800 tons of new and used clothing was sent overseas by the welfare societies in the Seventh-day Adventist churches of North America.

Church leaders reported progress in the various activities of the denomination since the last world conference in 1942. Sales of Adventist literature rose 68 per cent for the 5-year period.

The Seven-day Adventist church operates 14 hospitals and clinics in all parts of the world. Thirteen sanitariums in North America, with a capacity of 2,000 beds, cared for 60,000 in-patients during 1945. Doctors are arriving at foreign posts to re-open a number of overseas hospitals which were closed during the war.

Enrollment in denominationally operated colleges during the past school year topped 60. Secondary school enrollment was 9,830; elementary school, 21,153.

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

The fourth Canadian-built Tribal Class destroy-destroyer, pictured above, was lost in a flaming sea at battle with a Nazi submarine in the English Channel recently. Two years after its famous pre-

When Dave L. Johnson, New York truck driver unloaded a shipment of watermelons just arrived from Georgia, he was surprised to find it included a "bonus" in the form of the alligator he's holding above. The "gator" apparently stowed away among the melons.