A loss running into thousands of dollars was the result of a fire at mid-day yesterday which seriously damaged the local plant of Canada Packers and kept the firemen battling for three hours before they succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.

Firemen were of the opinion last night that the fire had been getting a foothold for some time before they arrived on the scene at approximately 11.20 yesterday morning. It is understood the Company had two or three carloads of egg cartons stored in the plant and firemen said that while the carton material was not of a highly inflammable nature, that very fact made it difficult amid so much bulk to get at the heart of the smouldering mass.

PRESENTATION — On Thursday, May 16th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Munn, Mount Herbert, was filled to capacity when the friends and neighbors of Miss Muriel Munn gathered to honor her on her approaching marriage. The bride elect was escorted to the chair of honor by Ralph Raynor. An address was read by Kathleen Raynor, during which Mrs. Russel Matheson made the presentation of a generous gift of money. Muriel replied in her usual pleasing manner, thanking all for their good wishes and tangible expressions of good will. After the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow", a delicious lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse, after which all departed for their homes wishing Muriel every happiness for the future.

The death occurred on Monday, May 27th at the home of her son, Mr. A. H. Stewart, Georgetown, of Mrs. Mary E. FATHER McKENNA HONORED — Rev. Fr. McKenna, P.P., Morell, P. E. I., has returned to his home after spending a short visit with friends and relatives in U. S. A. On Wednesday, May 22nd, Fr. McKenna was guest of honor at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Cossart, at their home in Montclair, Quincy. About 50 guests were present including friends, relatives and former parishioners who gathered to welcome Fr. McKenna and extend best wishes. After a very enjoyable evening spent in music, card playing and meeting old acquaintances of which Mr. James Cummiskey, Brighton, was master of ceremonies, lunch and refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Cossart, assisted by Mrs. Rita Cummiskey, Aileen Macdonald and Mrs. Eva Kogel. The table was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue. The cake made especially in Fr. McKenna's honor displayed the American and Canadian flags. Fr. McKenna in his usual congenial manner gave a very brief talk and expressed his appreciation to his friends and especially to his cousin, Mrs. Cossart and Mr. Cossart for their kind thoughts and efforts in extending to him a wholehearted welcome and pleasant visit. In conclusion Fr. McKenna promised his friends he will pay another visit to good old U.S.A. as soon as possible. Fr. McKenna's friends all extend best wishes.

Congratulations to Mr. Gordon MacKenzie who received his graduating diploma from Prince of Wales College on Friday. Also to Miss Doris Herring and Raymond MacTavish who received second year certificates and Miss Inez McInnis who successfully passed her first year Commerce Exams.

Many friends here learned with deep regret of an accident in North Carleton on Friday afternoon when Katherine Lowther, little two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Lowther was kicked in the chest by a horse and knocked unconscious. Later reports were that the child's injuries were not as serious as thought at first.

On Tuesday evening a miscellaneous shower was given in Borden Legion Hall in honor of Miss Jean MacIsaac who arrived home from Ottawa last week to be a participant in a happy event in the near future. Jean was escorted to a prettily decorated chair by Misses Bernice Sharpe and Tessie Sexton while the wedding march was played by Mrs. Ralph Toombs. Then while the pianist played "I am working on the Railroad" in honor of the future bridegroom two little boys Allison Jeffrey as engineer and Gerald Arsenault as fireman brought in a large engine laden with gifts. The engine which was a work of art about seven feet long built by Mrs. Toombs was much admired by all. The gifts were opened by Misses Tessie Sexton and Bernice Sharpe while the verses and good wishes were read by Miss Ellnor Campbell and the gifts were arranged on tables by Miss Mary Hogan. The guest of honor who was then showered with confetti thanked every one for their lovely gifts and invited them to visit her in her future home. All joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and the bride to be was bounced by her girl friends. The gifts consisted of linen, china, pyrex, silverware and a large sum of money. The evening was then pleasantly spent in dancing with music furnished by the popular Borden Orchestra.

WEDNESDAY

—CHARLOTTETOWN TO KENSINGTON.—Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Aylward of Charlottetown, recently moved their abode to Kensington, where they are occupying a cottage for the summer months. Mr. Aylward was the genial porprietor of Aylwards furniture exchange, 202 Richmond Street. A sizable migration of city dwellers to cottages in the wide open spaces would help relieve the housing shortage.—K.

—VETERAN BUYS FARM. —Mr. Thomas Turner of Hope River recently purchased a farm near Bloodmony hill on the Kensington-Malpeque road from Orville and Ray Clark. He enlisted in the early months of World War II and spent close to six years in His Majesty's Canadian forces, being present in the heavy action at Monte Casino and many others in the long and hard Italian Campaign.—K.

DWELLING BURNED—Mr. P. A. McKenna, Baldwin's Road, sustained a serious loss a few days ago when his 10-room dwelling-house, together with most of its contents, was destroyed by fire. It is understood there was but little insurance on the dwelling. The cause of the fire is unknown. Baldwin's Road is a settlement near Cardigan.

—A HANDSOME BOAT—There is now nearing completion in the Tanton building, off Water Street, Summerside, and formerly occupied by the Tanton Woodworking Co., one of the largest and finest boats ever built here. This boat, which is being built by Mr. Hugh Waton, of Upper Shemogue, N. B., for Mr. Lloyd Heckbert of Summerside, is 38 feet 9 inches in length with a beam of 9 feet and will be powered with a new Chevrolet engine. Built on very trim and truly shipshape lines, this fine craft will be an outstanding addition to the local fleet of fishing boats. Mr. Waton has built about sixty boats in Prince Edward Island. S

—FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of the late Mrs. John A. Campbell, Freetown, was held on Saturday, May 18th, 1946, from the home. The service, which was conducted by the Rev. Harvey Bishop assisted by Revs. Ralph Wagner and James MacGowan, was very largely attended. Interment was in the People's Cemetery, Freetown. The pallbearers were Messrs. William Mutch, William Drake, Heber Weeks, Austin Scales, Frank Deacon, Reginald Reeves.

—HOLIDAY ENJOYED — Mrs Howard Waite and son Wendall returned home on the late boat Saturday night from a trip to Ontario They visited friends in Toronto, Acton, and Tillsonburg. While at Tillsonburg they motored all through the Niagara Falls district but were sorry they were a little late to see the orchards all out in blossom. They were accompanied as far as Toronto by Mrs James Stright who went to visit her daughter Vivian in Ridgetown.

—DOG MYSTERY — Some days ago a large dog, almost the size of a St. Bernard, and with a head resembling that of a collie, appeared at the door of the home of Mr. Horatio Waite who lives near the shore at Traveller's Rest. The animal was soaking wet and the impression given those who saw it was that it might have fallen from some vessel off-shore and swam to land. The dog apparently was a pet and is being kept at Mr. Waite's until some trace can be found of the owner. S

ATTENDED ART MEETING—Mrs. J. A. Fraser, Mrs. R. E. Mutch, Miss Helen Yeo, M. Ed., and Mrs. Willard MacKay have returned from Wolfville, N. S. where they were attending the annual meeting of the Maritime Arts Association. They are members of the P. E. Island Arts Society.

WEDDING BELLS — A double-ring ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian manse in Campbellton, N.B., when Mary Isabel, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ings, Pownal, P.E.I., and Fulton Denoon, only son of Mr and Mrs C B Langille, Pictou, N. S., were united in marriage by the Rev. John Hardwick. The bride was attired in a pink sheer grown which had wide panel waist richly embroidered and full skirt. She wore a corsage of yellow roses. For ornament a necklace and earrings of Nova Scotia Amethysts, an heirloom of the groom's family The bride's travelling costume was a fitted aqua coat having albino beaver trimming, with matching hat. After a honeymoon trip in various parts of Quebec and the Maritimes, Mr. and Mrs. Langille plan to reside in Mont Joli, Quebec, where the groom is employed as Radio Operator Previous to her marriage, her home community honored the bride at a miscellaneous shower which included a generous gift of money from Pownal Church. Also the bride was entertained at an afternoon tea and shower by Miss Sally Wood, Charlottetown and at a presentation at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Calvin Wood, Cross Roads, and in addition received other gifts of money and useful articles.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER — On Friday evening, May 24th, a large number of friends gathered at Sherbrooke Hall to honor Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harold Matthews (nee Claire Laughlin) with a miscellaneous shower. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. Ray Laughlin, the newly-weds were escorted to their prettily escorted seat of honor. The numerous gifts, which were both beautiful and useful, were opened by Mrs. Oscar Keefe and the Misses Glen McKinnon, Patricia Weeks and Teresa Laughlin. Mrs. Ernest Robertson and Mrs. George Chappell read the accompanying verses and good wishes, while Miss Blanche Laughlin and Miss Marjorie McDonald arranged the gifts on the table. These gifts included china, glassware, silver, linen, bedding and a most substantial sum of money. The groom in his usual pleasing manner thanked their friends on behalf of himself and his bride. Then all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Lunch was then served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to good music furnished by Messrs. Sam MacAusland and Wallace Deighan violin, while the accompanists were Mr. Ray Laughlin, Mrs. Fred McDonald and Mrs. Wilfred Curley. Previous to her marriage the bride was the recipient of many gifts, including a beautiful chenile bedspread from the staff of Sinclair and Stewart Ltd. where she was a member of the staff. S

ORDAINED MISSIONARY RECOGNIZED — The Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church met last night at Marshfield to conduct a Service of Recognition of Rev. F. Norman Young, B.A., O.M., who has been appointed to the joint field of Marshfield, Harrington, Mount Stewart and Highfield for the term of one year. The court was convened by the Moderator, the Rev. Charles Carregy, with prayer in the Kirk yard of St. Colomba. In the absence of the clerk of the Presbytery, Rev. Mr. Somers, the Rev. G.C. Webster was appointed to act. It was decided that Miss Halowell, deaconess, should be designated to work in the Synod camp, and the designation was provisionally set for June 14th at Hartsville, Mr. Webster to address the deaconess. The Rev. Dr. Robertson was appointed to New London for three months. The Presbytery then adjourned to the Church where in presence of a large congregation, the Moderator conducted the Service of Recognition and preached on the urgent need for new thinking, the need to get away from Churchianity to Christianity. The Rev. Mr. Webster, Convenor of Missions, narrated the steps leading to the appoinment of Mr. Young, the Rev. T W Goodwill gave the address to the missionary, and the Rev. J.A. McGowan, the address to the congregation. Special music was rendered by the combined choirs under the direction of Miss McFarlane, a duet being sung by Mrs. Preston Rodd and Mr. Harold Cudmore. At the conclusion of the service, the ladies provided refreshments. The Rev. Mr. Young is a native of London, Ont and a graduate of Knox College. He is one of three brothers in the Presbyterian ministry.

Two hundred and seventy-five farmers and other residents along the St. Peter's Road will be able to avail themselves of electric power by the end of July, it was learned yesterday.

When the line is completed by the Maritime Electric Company, it will mean all residents along the main road from Mount Stewart to Souris will be furnished with electricity. The work involves the installation of 35 miles of new line and 12 miles of re-construction work. The project was made possible by the purchase on May 1, 1946, by the Maritime Electric of the power plant which had been owned and operated by the Town of Souris.

An additional 900 farmers in the Province will be able to avail themselves of the benefits of electric power by the end of 1946 if present plans of the Maritime Electric Company can be implemented. Scarcity of certain mechanical equipment constitutes the only danger to the possibility of the project n[illegible] finished by the end of the year.

80TH BIRTHDAY — Mr. R. H. MacNeill, provincial manager of the Empire Life Insurance Co. Charlottetown, has been receiving many good wishes and congratulations from his relatives and friends and associates both home and abroad on the occasion of his 80th birthday on June 5th. On Tuesday evening a number of friends and relatives called at his home and presented him with gifts and tokens of goodwill. Conspicuous among these was a beautiful reclining chair and ottoman sent by his Head Office staff. A number of the members of Central Christian Church of which Mr. MacNeill is an elder, met at the home of Rev. M.D. and Mrs. Dunbar on Wednesday evening to honor Mr. MacNeill. An informal program and sing-song was conducted by Mr. Dunbar. Congratulations in "Limerick" and a birthday cake with lighted candles were features of the evening. His many friends wish him many more years of health and service.

— MRS. HAMPTON MCLEAN ENTERTAINED — Mrs. Hampton McLean, who for the past year and one-half has been the very efficient president of the Ladies Social Club of Trinity United Church, Summerside, was the guest of honor at a dinner attended by about forty club members at the home of Mrs. George Small, Summerside Road on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. McLean are leaving shortly to make their home in Borden. After a delicious meal had been eaten, an interesting program was carried out. Mrs. A.S McKay and Miss Millicent Strong gave two humorous readings, the one by Miss Strong having been composed by herself. This was followed by a mock telephone conversation between Mrs. K.G. Sullivan and Mrs. P.R. Palmer which dealt with the doings of the club and dwelt on the particularly fine services of the president. Mrs. McLean. At the conclusion of this conversation, Mrs. James McDonald, vice president, on behalf of the club presented her with a beautiful chenille bedspread. Mrs. McLean replied and expressed her thanks to her former associates in the club and her regret at leaving. All then joined in singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."—S.

Successful re-opening services, following extensive interior renovations, were held on Sunday at St. David's United Church, Georgetown. In the morning the minister spoke to the young people on "Litter Louts" and preached on "The Church." The choir rendered "Glory be to God the Father" The Rev. T.E. McLennan of Charlottetown, who was the welcome preacher at the evening worship, chose as his theme "The Meek Inheriting the Earth." Miss Pauline Simmonds, recent graduate in vocal at Mount Allison, was in splendid voice as she sang "Think on Me" and "Abide With Me." The Congregations were excellent and the offerings most generous Among the beautiful flowers which adorned the Church was a bouquet of carnations and roses in memory of Mrs. A.C. Stewart who had passed away the previous week and who had been a loyal member of St. David's Church for nearly sixty years. Mr. Joseph Johnson, the contractor, was thanked by the Rev. S.J Boyce, B.A., on behalf of the congregation for the fine accomplishment of his work.—Geo.

BRIDAL SHOWER — Mr. and Mrs. Almon Boswell, Dunstaffnage were host and hostess on evening of May 8th to friends of near and far, who gathered to welcome their son Rowell and his bride, the former Genevieve Godfrey of Charlottetown, who had returned from a honeymoon trip to New Brunswick. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Irving Thompson, little Muriel Dennis led the way to the living room. The bride was accompanied by the groom's brother, Lincoln and the groom by Miss Evelyn Carr of Charlottetown. The setee of honor was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers. Potted plants and mayflowers added to the beauty of the scene. The heavy laden baskets were brought in by Mrs. Borden Boswell, Misses Patrica Campbell, Isabel Jenkins and Roberta Boswell, the verses were read by Mrs. Stanley Foster. Rowell on behalf of his bride thanked one and all for their lovely gifts. The remainder of the evening was spent in music. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by a bevy of young ladies, then all despersed to their homes, wishing Rowell and Genevieve a happy voyage through life. (Patriot please copy).

Scores of friends gathered at the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon to pay their last respects to the memory of the late Lloyd Dewar in an impressive funeral ceremony which was conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church.

The choir of St. James Church was in attendance and assisted in the singing of the 23rd Psalm and "Rock of Ages."

Previous to his going to Vancouver in 1942 (he died at a Vancouver hospital on Tuesday, May 28), the late Mr. Dewar had been one of the most popular young men in the City. A graduate of West Kent School, he had studied at Prince of Wales College and at other educational institutions on the mainland. About six months ago his health began to fail and continued to grow worse in spite of all that medical science could do.

The remains were accompanied to the Province by the father, Dr. G F Dewar, who is the only surviving immediate member of the family.

The pallbearers were: Maurice Martin, Dr. Gilbert Houston, John Simmonds, John Cameron, John A. McLeod, and M. W. Weeks

Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

—A quiet but lovely ceremony of great interest to many in Prince Edward Island and particularly at Charlottetown, took place on Sunday morning last, June 2nd, at the Parsonage, Bedeque, P. E. I., when the double wedding of Clarence MacInnis, and Elda Hannah Storey, and William Arnold Callbeck and Helen Frances Morris, all of Charlottetown, was solemnized by Rev. James M. Baxter, B. D. of the United Church, Bedeque. The bridegrooms consummated a long standing friendship, each supporting the other as best man, and the two brides lovely in wedding veils and full accessories completed the delightful picture. They were unattended. After the ceremony they left together for an extended holiday on the mainland. Their many friends will welcome them on their return to Charlottetown where they will reside.

BRIDE HONORED — On the evening of April 29th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Seller was the scene of a very happy gathering when the people of Argyle Shore and vicinity met to honor their daughter, Minnie, who recently became the bride of Mr. John Wright, Halifax. After the bride was escorted to a nicely decorated chair, Mr. Jamie MacDougall in a few well chosen words expressed the object of the gathering and called on Mrs. J. Albert MacDougall to read an address and Miss Grace MacPhail presented the bride with a purse of money. Minnie in her gracious manner fittingly replied. Lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have taken up residence in Halifax, where Mr. Wright is employed by Piercey Supplies. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.
