A circular issued by Secretary William of Moncton, calls attention to the fact that the eighteenth annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade will be held in the town of Truro, N. S., on Wednesday, 21st August next. The several boards are urged to consider at an early date the subjects they desire to have discussed, and forwarded to Mr. Williams with the resolutions introducing same before the 30th inst., in order that copies may be sent to the affiliated boards at least one month before the date of meeting as required by the constitution. The circular adds:—The resources and potentialities of the Maritime Provinces are becoming better known; the interest of capitalists is being enlisted in the development of their natural wealth; the older industries are expanding, and new ones are being added; a spirit of optimism is abroad, and the feeling prevails that these Eastern Provinces are at last coming into their own; therefore the attendance and interest displayed at the forthcoming meeting at Truro should be commensurate with the large issues at stake. Truro is delightfully situated in one of the most fertile sections of Nova Scotia. It has several large industries, the Provincial Experimental Farm, the beautiful Victoria Park and Joe Howe Falls, the Provincial Normal School, etc., and being on the main line of the Intercolonial Railway, with its summer time table in force is easy access from all parts of the Maritime Provinces.

The Patriot is unnecessarily worrying itself over an ordinary news item in the Guardian. There are the simple facts; there was a street rumor to the effect that the Tanton property on Great George Street has been sold and that the purchaser was the Patriot Publishing Company. The Guardian, as its custom invariably is, investigated the rumor and found from an authoritative source that there was nothing in it. It accordingly published the fact. The Patriot should not be too thin skinned. It does not matter a iota to the Guardian whether the Patriot Publishing Company bought, offered to buy, or failed to buy the or any other property, it simply gave the news. That the Patriots' intentions are laudable, peaceable, progressive and for the good of the general public," is not disputed but a little common sense along with these laudable intentions should not be inconsistent.

Sunday, June 23rd, was an important day for the Methodist Church in Campbellton, N. B. At the morning service the pastor extended the right hand of fellowship to thirty-one persons who were received into full membership. All these came from the Sunday School and took the first definite step toward the Kingdom as the result of a recent Decision Day. On the evening of the 23rd the pastor preached his final sermon to a large congregation. A few days previous to this the congregation, held a social in the basement of the church, when they gave a very pleasant surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Mr. Appleton, addressing them, said that the congregation could not let them depart without an expression of the love and esteem in which they both were held. He alluded very kindly to the work that had been accomplished during the past two years, and in behalf of the congregation, he presented to Mrs. Morris a handsome mahogany piano bench, and to Mr. Morris a purse of gold. The pastor and his wife responded expressing their love for the people and their gratitude for all the kindness shown them.—Wesleyan. Mr. Morris is a native of Granville and is now stationed in this Province.
