Find death due To alcoholic Poisoning

The inquest to inquire into the death of Fred Griffin, aged 18 years, who died on Christmas night under mysterious circumstances was concluded last night at O'Leary, the jury returning a verdict that death was the result of alcoholic poisoning.

The jury's findings were based on the report of the doctor and the findings of Dr. Smith, of Halifax, who had made a report on the contents of the stomach of the deceased, which report revealed alcoholic poisoning.

Dr. R. H. Kennedy, coroner, presiding at the inquest which opened at 4 p.m.
Eleven witnesses were examined, including Dr. B. W. Tanton, of O'Leary, who was called to the house of the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John Griffin, on Christmas night about 11.30. He stated that he considered the young man had been dead about two hours.

Claude Griffin, brother of the deceased, and Arthur Rogers, were the main witnesses. They stated that they were out sleigh riding with the deceased late on Christmas evening.
They had been celebrating but did not see whether the boy was drinking. Claude said he noticed there was something amiss with his brother about 11.30. He said he saw nothing amiss with his brother until he was drinking.

Other witnesses testified as to the other circumstances of the case, including the fact that the boy had been out sleigh riding that night and that he had seen either the way home or soon after his arrival at his house that the doctor was sent for at once.

Besides the witnesses previously mentioned, the following evidence was given: John O'Halloran, Miss Ardenau, Joseph Wedge, Ralph Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gallant and Constable, of the R.C.M.P. at Alberton.

Mr. James E. Wells, of Summerside, represented the Crown.
Members of the coroner's jury include: Messrs. Keith Matheson, foreman, Frank McAliff, Alexander MacDonald, William Ellis, Ross Stratton, Alexander Cullbert, and James Cullbert.—S.

Gallant - Peters Nuptials

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Convent chapel on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large company of guests. The bride, Miss Mary Inez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallant of Summerside, was united in marriage to George E. Peters of Summerside. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Muttart.

The bride and groom entered the chapel to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Yvonne Ardenau.
The altar was beautifully decorated for the occasion with carnations and maiden hair fern and the dim lights in the sanctuary gave a very pleasing effect.
The bride looked very attractive in a street length dress of Indian carth wool with matching accessories and carried a white prayer book and pearl rosary.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Laurier and the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Peters and Miss Mary Inez, were with matching accessories.
After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Peters were in the Chapel amidst a shower of rice and confetti.
Mr. Peters is with the Royal Canadian Artillery and left Monday morning to resume his duties at Petawawa. Mrs. Peters will follow shortly.

Their many friends wish them every happiness.—S.

Problem of Caring for Prisoners acute

CAIRO, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Headquarters of Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell grappled tonight with the problem of accommodating more than 70,000 prisoners taken thus far in the lightning British campaign against Italian North Africa.
By sea and by rail, those captured in the victory of Bardia are being taken to the desert to 3,000 daily—great herds of defeated soldiers who will have to be fed, clothed and housed until the war ends.

British sources say they never expected to capture so many. What was done after the Sidi Barrani victory last month, when about 40,000 were seized, was an acute problem.

Since the army has had more experience in handling prisoners, so preparations for the assault on Bardia included wiring of large enclosures on the desert for captives. Even then the British staff was surprised at the numbers taken.

BRIGHTON, Eng.—(CP)—Mrs.
Edith Flora Caroline Dashwood, 85, member of a titled family and guest at Queen Victoria's garden parties.

Fur Agent From London At S'side

Mr. H. Cassell, who represents the Canadian National Fur Breeders Assn. and the P.E.I. fur pool, in London arrived in Summerside last night from New York having made time in 14 hours from London.
Mr. Cassell was in the United States of the surrender of France but had to get out being British. Since that time he has been in London.

He says that taking into consideration existing conditions and the restrictions, the fur trade is good and prices are high. The quality of the furs are good. The British people are not allowed to import furs for home consumption, but they can import for export. The fur trade of the South America which has always been in London continues to be good, speaking of the war.
Mr. Cassell says, the morale of the British is splendid but conditions are not. Everybody is taxed to the limit of their incomes but they do it cheerfully.—S.

Master Austin Pendergast, 6-year-old son of Mr. James Pendergast, recently proved beyond doubt that he is a chip off the old block when he insisted on his father returning from Charlottetown by motor bus, while he drove home by horse and sleigh alone. He enjoyed the trip to the fullest on his first drive which he made in approximately six hours.

for Charlottetown, P.E.I. where she received the appointment of school

Mr. Percy McCarroll, during the height of the severe storm on by the train in approximately two and a half hours. Mr. McCarroll spent the night in Emerald returning home on Sunday.

Messrs. Bernard and McQuaid

Will Take Over

too great to make it will contribute to a more successful and more efficient defence.
At the capital, meanwhile, both houses of Congress were in recess, the president tomorrow of the President's budget message—asking new appropriations for defence —and the formulation of legislation covering the government's plan for leading war materials to Great Britain.

The day brought two other development related to the defence problem: Knudsen, in an address, urged military manufacturers to expand the practice of subcontracting, so that the delivery of machinery necessary to the production of planes and other essential equipment could be expedited.

Leon Henderson, a member of the old Defence Commission, named to head the new agency, said that the artificial price levels might be avoided, said that unless scrap prices are reduced by several dollars a ton drastic steps for government control would be recommended.
The executive order creating the new agency comes in the first instance with authority for "formulating and executing in the public interest all measures needful and appropriate in order to increase, accelerate, and regulate the production and supply of materials, articles and equipment and the provision of emergency plant facilities and services required for the national defence." It can be commended the plants manufactured in various plants to rampant manufacturers, that is, any manufacturer who attempt to hold the government up for unduly high prices or otherwise prove recalcitrant.

Moreover, the agency can decide the order in which articles shall be
make production schedules conform with the needs of the army and navy.

Troublesome Night Coughs Are Hard on the System

It's the cough that sticks; the cough that is hard to get rid of; the cough accompanied by a tickling in the throat that causes the nerve and throat wracking trouble that keeps you awake at night.
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup helps to relieve this coughing condition by soothing the irritated parts, loosening the phlegm and stimulating the bronchial organs, and when this is done the troublesome irritating cough may be relieved.
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been on the market for the past 48 years. The Trade Mark "3 Pine Trees".
Price 35c a bottle; large family size, about 3 times as much, 60c at all drug counters. The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
