BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE

Hair All Came Out and He Suffered Very Much—Under Doctor Three Months and No Better—Permanently Cured at Small Expense.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczemas:

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since.

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says: "I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me.

"We use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment in our family now for general use, and it keeps our skin soft and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies for all cases of eczema. (signed) A. C. Barnett, Avard, Oklahoma, Mar. 30, 1905."

ISLANDER TELLS OF SAN FRANCISCO

Graphic Description by James L. Evans, A Former Charlottetown Boy--The Scenes and Incidents Relistically Presented--Camping Out on the Hills--The Magnitude of the Disaster.

On Tuesday night I retired almost in the small hours, and on awaking at 5 o'clock, Wednesday morning, I congratulated myself that I had an hour or so of sleep ahead of me.

I had no sooner settled back when the earthquake came upon us, as though a mighty hand had grasped the city, shaking and twisting it in a manner indescribable. All that could be heard was the creaking of timbers and breaking glass, and the screaming of people. The pictures on my walls were flung about and everything on the bureau and the table was thrown this way and that about the room. After picking the things up, my first thought was to return to bed, but on looking from the windows I could see the streets torn up, and houses twisted and in one place a fire had started. So I dressed myself and made for the street to find things much worse than I expected.

The building which I lived in was canted back about two feet, and the adjoining one, which is Mr. Mobbs' store was thrown from its foundation, the ground in the rear having dropped about three feet, and at Copp Street about fifty feet away, the ground had sunk five feet or more. Mr. Mobbs and family had a very narrow escape, and had to leave the building by the window, as the doors could not be opened, being jammed by the twisting of the building. The foods in the store were thrown from the shelves and badly damaged. The scene, both from within and without, cannot be described in words.

About a block distant, the Valencia Hotel, a four storey structure was lifted from the foundation, and thrown into the street. Between fifty and sixty persons lost their lives when it fell. Many other buildings in the vicinity were also wrecked and thrown to the ground and streets and car tracks twisted and torn up As off course car traffic was suspended, I walked down town as soon as possible, and when I had reached Eleventh Street flames were pouring from the buildings on all sides. The further down town I went the fiercer were the flames. You may imagine it was no easy task to make my way to Third Street, as I had to go over streets covered with fallen walls. In some places one could see the heads of horses buried in ruins, and I have no doubt that human beings were also entombed in the debris. Arriving at 22 Third Street at 6.45 a. m., I found the store burning fiercely, or what was left of it, which was not very much. The principal buildings such as the City Hall, the Majestic Theatre, and those that escaped the earthquake, were doomed to destruction by fire, from the waterfront up, nothing remains : miles of waste, twisted water pipe and gas pipe, not a business house left standing in the wholesale and retail business districts. Such a desolate looking waste, words fail to describe it.

I retraced my steps and seeing the fire was working out in the direction I was going I realized that there was no time to waste. We endeavored to save some of our belongings. Our buildings were roped off as unsafe, and they certainly were. I came out with two suits of clothes but am liable to have to go to bed while my undershort is laundried. We moved enough groceries to last us for a few days, and found a roof to cover us at Mrs. Mobb's sister's. Mr. and Mrs. Pound were in our party as their home was also destroyed.

You can imagine there was no sleep for any of us that night, and we sat on the doorsteps and in the hallway with all doors open, waiting for a tremble to be felt again. We were saved any shocks, but had to face worse for we could see the flames creeping nearer block by block and could hear the roar of the dynamite as they tore down the buildings to try and stop the flames.

By the next day at noon we feared that the district in which we had located was going to suffer. We packed up our provisions and bedding and started for the hills, which was a task not to be envied, for our party by this time numbered about thirty-one. There was the Higgins family, eighteen all told; three of the Pounds; seven of Lemuel Arthur, two others and myself.

We arranged a tent to cover the children, and spread bedding as best we could for the night; imagine cooking for that crowd. I tell you our bill of fare did not include salads, etc. but we had some old fashioned barley soup. All night long we watched the flames creep farther and farther out to the mission and from where we were camped we could see the flames leap from block to block.

By one o'clock Friday a. m. things looked better and we felt easier, as the flames had been arrested, and thanks to some of our party as leaders two hundred and fifty, headed by Mr. Arthur and son, formed a brigade to tear down buildings on Dolors Street, that being a boulevard, and the flames could hardly leap across so wide a street, that being all the hope we had of our part of town being saved. Some of the buildings caught, but were torn down.

Toward morning we had a couple of hours sleep; then we up and breakfasted, on fried bacon, bread and coffee. We did not have it served in any elegant style but it mattered not; the thousands camped on the hills besides, us were in worse plight than we. It surely was a chase for life. There were 50,000 camped in Golden State Park, and I fancy that the majority are still camping there.

Well we held a council and decided to return to Eureka Street, and we had a time hurrying off the little folk, and packing up the grub and bedding and clothes. We can smile now, but the stern reality was not funny. It took us till three o'clock to carry all back; that was Friday—we can hardly tell the days in all the turmoil.

BLOOD HUMORS

PIMPLES
BLOTCHES
ERUPTIONS
FLESHWORMS
HUMORS

Many an otherwise beautiful and attractive face is sadly marred by unseemly Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions, Fleshworms and Humors, and various other blood diseases.

Their presence is a source of embarrassment to those afflicted, as well as pain and regret to their friends.

Many a cheek and brow—cast in the mould of grace and beauty—have been sadly defaced, their attractiveness lost, and their possessor rendered unhappy for years.

Why, then, consent to rest under this cloud of embarrassment?

There is an effectual remedy for all these defects, it is,

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

This remedy will drive out all the impurities from the blood and leave the complexion healthy and clear.

Miss Annie Tobin, Madoc, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending your Burdock Blood Bitters to any one who may be troubled with pimples on the face. I paid out money to doctors, but could not get cured, and was almost discouraged, and despaired of ever getting rid of them. I thought I would give B.B.B. a trial, so got two bottles, and before I had taken them I was completely cured and have had no sign of pimples since."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, for over 30 years, and has cured thousands in that time. Do not accept a substitute which unscrupulous dealers say is "just as good." "It can't be."

To Loosen The Cough

AND BRING ABOUT A THOROUGH CURE OF COLD USE

Dr Chase's SYRUP OF Linseed and Turpentine

It is sometimes dangerous to stop a cough.

The aim should be to loosen the cough, relieve the tightness and pain in the chest and aid expectoration, so that the obstructing and irritating mass may be passed out of the air passages.

This is exactly what is accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

It is not a mere cough mixture, and not intended to stop the cough, but rather to cure the cold.

If you have tickling in the throat, pains and tightness in the chest, sensations of irritation, of oppression or suffocation this great family medicine will afford almost instant relief, and thoroughly overcome the cold which gives rise to these symptoms.

Not only is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine a positive cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and severe chest colds, but is also a preventive of all diseases of the lungs.

It has time and again proven its right to a place in every home, and is the stand by in thousands of families.

Miss Ada O'Brien, Cape Cove, Gaspe County, Que., writes: "Eight months ago I was taken with a severe cough, which lasted three months, and, though I had tried all sorts of medicines, they failed to do me any good. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and I was completely cured by two bottles. I can recommend it as a splendid medicine.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. Mr. Massey relates his experience for the benefit of others who may be similiarly afflicted. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25 cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by all druggists.
