During the service a quartette, consisting of Mrs. W. N. Jenkins, Miss Sotie Henderson, Messrs T. and H. Moyle, sang with fine expression a beautiful poem "He Lives, My Jesus Lives" composed for the Easter season by the gifted pastor, Rev. A. J. Reynolds. —SIGNS OF SPRING—Although according to the calendar spring is here it is hard for some of us to believe it when there is still snow to be seen in many places. The surest signs of spring and the ones which give the old folks the most encouragement are when the boys are to be seen playing ball on the vacant lots and by-roads; and, by the activities of the small boys around Summerside, spring has now arrived and marbles and baseball are all the go.—S

The bride was prettily gowned in white Georgette trimmed with silk lace and wore the bridal veil with wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Amy Paynter, sister of the groom assisted as bridesmaid and wore a pretty costume of pink crepe de chene trimmed with silk lace, whilst Mr. Cecil Paynter, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.
