MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER —A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Rodd, Winstoe, on September twenty third, when friends and neighbours gathered in honor of their daughter Olive, who was soon to be a principal in a very happy event. The living room had been tastefully decorated for the happy occasion with pink and white streamers and wedding bells by the girl friends of the bride. To the strains of Lohengrin Bridal Chorus played by Miss Myrtle Taylor, the bride-to-be was escorted to a prettily decorated chair by Mr. Ivan Turner. She was then presented with a lovely bouquet by her little sister Myra. A daintily decorated basket well laden with gifts was carried into the room by the Misses Doris Sellar and Joyce Auld, who unwrapped the parcels, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Letha Horne. The many useful and beautiful gifts were nicely arranged on the table by Miss Verna Turner. The bride-to-be, in a few well chosen words, thanked her many friends for their kindness and invited them to visit her in her new home in Hazelbrook. Confetti was then showered on the guest of honor and all united in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A delicious lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening whiled away in music, games and social intercourse. The guests departed wishing Miss Rodd every future happiness. Keep Minards in the home.

PLAYERS ARE GIVEN SHOCK —It actually happened, according to the sworn testimony of four women given today. At a bridge game last week the four were each dealt a perfect hand in all four suits. At the home of Mrs. J. S. Mason, Brookside Avenue, the incident occurred. Mrs. Henry Glendenning dealt the hand. Jack Townsend dealt a grand slam in spades. Mrs. Glendenning thought she had diamonds as well as hearts in her hand, hence the game bid in heart. Each of the bidders had the complete suit, 13 cards in the suit that they bid. The hand was awarded Mrs. Townsend without being played. —(New Glasgow News.)

Mrs. Glendenning thought she had diamonds as well as hearts in her hand, hence the game bid in heart. Each of the bidders had the complete suit, 13 cards in the suit that they bid. The hand was awarded Mrs. Townsend without being played. —(New Glasgow News.)
