ANOTHER GREAT LOT OF NEW GOODS

In addition to the great shipment we told you about yesterday--we have just received nine cases more of all sorts of attractive new things.

Advance Showing of Handsome Millinery

AS case after case was emptied yesterday and gave up its beautiful freight of dainty head wear, they met the delighted approval of many eagerly waiting customers. This year's styles show distinct newness in every respect, smaller shapes being universal. Many of the hats turn up at back high and quite sharply. Under trim triumphing will be a prominent feature. Meantime—come in—and sa'eswomen will be pleased to show you the new things. New Ready-to-wear Hats, New Children's Hats, New Untrimmed Straws, New Misses, Hats, New Trimming Materials, New Flowers, etc.

Miles of New Ribbon

Literally Miles—Thousands and Thousands of Yards of the Prettiest Ribbons Ever Shown

CO-DAY puts an end to the ribbon famine in good shape. Among these lovely new things there are baby ribbon in every shade, ribbon for neckwear, ribbon for millinery—Taffetas, Louisines, Messalines, satins, gros grains and all the rest—every width and price. Drop in when you want ribbons, even if you only want an inch.

MORE LOVELY SILKS

Probably the finest early silk showing ever made in the City.

CHOICE new silks, these are, just the kinds that are going to be strongly popular this summer. Here are silks from the Orient, silks from France, silks from every good silk source. Particularly dainty are some of the silks for shirt waist suits—of which this spring's showing is very strong. New lining taffeta, 36 inches wide, white or black $1.65. A great range of plain and check Tamalines, in all new shades 55c. Then there are Louisines, Taffetas, Messalines, Peau de Soie, etc., and shot effects in Louisine Taffetas, etc.
