

To Grow Hair on a Bald Head.

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavona de Composee, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of Talcum Perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

THE FOLLOWING WAS INADVERTANTLY OMITTED FROM YESTERDAY'S ISSUE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Edward Howland Robinson Green of Terrel, Texas, son of Hetty Green, banker and bachelor, has arrived here from the East. Colonel Green has personally heralded himself as the greatest hope of the leap year girl, and admits he has his big heart's strings well attuned for Cupid's flashes. She is to be a Western girl, meaning that if the leap year finds Colonel Green with his matrimonial prize she will have come out of the West, free from what the colonel terms the follies of Eastern social life—a real type of Western womanhood.

A girl with a "slashing head," well poised on a good pair of shoulders, a broad, straight forehead, eyes well separated, brown hair, and rugged countenance—a countenance that is not worn by social cares. "I'm going to marry a woman, not a clothes horse," said Colonel Green's own words. No tangled corset strings for him. No continuous seasons of social functions, late suppers and the like. He wants a wife who can care-fully mother a family of children. Colonel Green is accompanied by Charles L. Pierson, an attorney of New York, and his secretary, W. H. Marshall.

"I'm here to look over conditions," declared Colonel Green in response to a query. "Financial or matrimonial?" ventured his interviewer. "New York women do not seem to know the real meaning of marriage. They marry for a home and live out of it. Children are the last thing they want. They are the very last word of the useless. If they can have beautiful clothes and look fashionable they do not worry about domestic accomplishments."

"None of them know how to cook and sew, and, holy horrors, they would deny that their good old homely grandmothers did wash clothes, too."

"If a fashionable New York woman went up Fifth Avenue with a ring in her nose the jewelers could not finish nose rings fast enough to supply the demand."

"They want to peacock about restaurants and theatres for the purpose of being seen by men who are not their husbands."

Colonel Green's idea of a whole-sole matrimonial match is a woman who is that her education should be along domestic lines, and he qualifies it by saying that she should be a good housewife. "Women should marry with the idea of having children and caring for a home."

"Children should be brought up like chickens and healthy pigs—where there is grass and plenty of dirt."

"And there is plenty of grass and dirt in the West," added the Colonel. He laughed at the suggestion that the Leap Year might seal his fate.

LAWRENCE, Feb. 1.—David Williams, a graduate student of the Harvard Divinity School and a member of the Harvard Socialist Club, came into the strikers' meeting, was announced and in a speech urged the strikers to fight to a finish now that their leader had been taken from them.

Williams was in the hall when Joseph Bardeott, acting in the place of Eltor, called the 500 strikers to order. Coolly walking through the crowd to the platform, he whispered to Mr. Bardeott and then began to speak. His speech created much enthusiasm. Williams brought two subscriptions to the strikers' fund, but the amount was not given out.

Williams said: "I would like to say to you men that I am a Harvard man and I am here as a man in sympathy with your case. I want to assist you and our club wants to assist you. Now that your leader has been taken from you, you must stick together and fight to a finish and I am here to give you any assistance that I can."

"This is a fight between capital on one side and justice on the other. It is a hard fight for you. All fights are hard when capital is an opponent. You must win this fight or your conditions will be worse than ever before."

"The militia was sent here because they said that the strikers used their arms. They did use their own arms, but they did not resort to bayonets. Now just remain as you are. Keep out of trouble. Fight hard and there is no doubt but you will get just what you have demanded."

At the close of the speech, Williams was cheered. The big crowd stood up and cheered as he left the hall as quietly as he came.

Resolutions of sympathy were offered for the woman shot in the riot of Monday night.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Canifton, Ont.—"I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was ulcers of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid and another told me it was a tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would never have an operation and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life." Mrs. LETITIA BLAIR, Canifton, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to suffering women.

A very elaborate program was furnished by the Honny Doon Dramatic Club, consisting of plays, dialogues, recitations, stump speeches, singing and violin solos. The solos were ably executed by the club's violinists John D. Campbell and Stephen A. Steele. The basses and pies were ably auctioneered by John A. Steele and Angus P. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Quite a large number of the members and adherents of Brookfield Presbyterian Church assembled at the Manse on Monday evening, Jan. 29th. They presented their minister, Rev. A. J. W. Back, with a handsome driving sleigh and robe accompanied by the following address which speaks for itself— Brookfield, Jan. 29, 1912. Rev. A. J. W. Back:

Rev. and Dear Sir.—We the members and adherents of the Brookfield Presbyterian Church wish to give you a slight token of our respect and esteem.

During the short time that you have been our pastor, we have found in you a preacher of whom we are proud, while you and your accomplished family make quite an agreeable addition in our community.

Please accept this sleigh, robe, envelope, etc., and wishing you and your family a happy and prosperous New Year, we remain, Yours in behalf of congregation— Angus N. McLeod, Murdoch McLean, Brenton Dollar, Everett Johnston, Presentation Committee.

Mr. Back made a suitable reply, thanking his people for the remembering him, and telling them that their appreciation was a source of great pleasure to him.

After spending a pleasant evening in singing, music, etc., all went to their homes feeling that they had had a very happy time.

Stops a Deep-seated Cough in a Hurry

A Family Supply of Unequaled Cough Remedy for 50¢—Money Refunded if it Fails.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large proportion of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one that anyone can make. A pint of granulated sugar, with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, mixed in a 16-ounce bottle with home-made sugar syrup, gives you 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-mixed for $2.00. There's a clear saving of $2.00. Full directions in package.

And money couldn't buy a quicker, better remedy. Takes hold at once, gives almost instant relief, and usually stops the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours. It stimulates the appetite, is slightly laxative, and has a pleasant taste—children take it willingly. Splendid for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains and other throat troubles, and unequalled for prompt results in whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of imported Norway White Pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix it as directed with sugar syrup or strained honey, and it is ready for use.

Used in 10,000 homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy. Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Does Your Skin Feel Dried Up?

Perhaps you have not been taking proper care of your skin. It needs care and attention just as much as your teeth or hair.

If we could live just as nature intended, we shouldn't need need to worry about our bodies and would die of old age.

But if we will repair the ravages incidental to the artificial life we live, we suggest the regular use of some such dainty emollient as British Almond Pink. It smooths out the drawn and uncomfortable feeling from wind, sun or hard water. Leaves a sensation of soft grateful comfort.

Costs only a quarter and we guarantee you will like it. At the price you can hardly afford to be without it. E. A. Foster Central Druggist Store, Sunnyside.

What's the difference?

SCRATCH the name from the box—hide the imprint on the wrapper—and your Tuckett's Special Turkish and imported Turkish look like twins.

But there is a difference! Oh, yes, there is the little duty difference of 10 to 20 cents which the purchaser pays because he allows himself to be hypnotized by the glamor of the word "imported."

There is also another significant distinction. Every ounce of tobacco that goes into Tuckett's Turkish Cigarettes is selected from the small and choice leaves raised in the finest tobacco growing districts of Turkey. Every bale we buy must come up to the Tuckett standard before it is O.K.'d by the Tuckett buyers. Over fifty years' experience in buying and blending has taught us what that standard should be.

Tuckett's Cigarettes

In flavor, fragrance, and luxurious appearance, Tuckett's Special Turkish Cigarettes afford you that full sense of keen enjoyment that obliterates all thought of price.
