THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—On Tuesday, April 14th the Valley field Women's Missionary Society held their annual Thank-offering service. A large congregation responded to the Society's invitation. A program of music was provided consisting of two solos by Miss Dessie MacPhee and Mrs. J. P. MacLeod, also a selection by six voices besides two selections by the whole choir. Miss MacPhee read a missionary sketch "The Demonstration in a very effective manner. Rev. John Stirling, Montague, gave an illuminating address on Home Missions telling of some of the territory where the church is working, the people reached, and the means used. The offering amounted to $80.00. Mrs. MacKenzie presided at the organ.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT.—A three act drama entitled Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Crick was presented at Harrington Hall by the Amateur Dramatic Club to a large and appreciative audience. In the central role Preston Rodd conveyed with realism and humor the part of Aaron Slick, while Mrs. (Dr) Mathieson as the Widow Berry charmingly presented her part, "The Crooked Speculator" was capably acted by James McNaughton and Clarence Green as the "Mysterious Young Man" in the person of Arnett Shaw. Annie Jones "The Girl in Red" was an excellent vampire. Mrs. Arnett Shaw, "The City Girl," was charming and convincing in her part while "Little Sis Riggs" a Regular Tomboy was pleasingly delivered by Jennie McKay. Instrumental and vocal solos, duets were contributed by Phillips Bros., Louie Coles and Rev. T. A. Wilson, between the acts. A lively chorus brought the program to a close. Mrs. J. H. Stewart was the accompanist of the evening. Dainty lunches were sold and coffee served by the "Ladies of the Women's Institute. Everybody going away satisfied they had not heard anything so good for sometime. This very successful entertainment was brought to a close by singing God save the King.

A special service was held in the Methodist Church Dunstaffnage on Thursday evening last at which several new members were received in to the church. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the close of the service by Rev. H. T. Smith, assisted by Rev. H. P. Tupper, all Christians present being cordially invited to partake. During the reception service special and appropriate music was rendered by the choir.

The Dunstaffnage Pastime Club at their regular meeting April 10th, held a debate, the subject being "Resolved that Country Life is more enjoyable than City Life." Both sides put forward strong arguments and the debate proved a decided success. The vote resulted in a victory for the pros.

The ladies of the Young Peoples' League entertained the gentlemen on Tuesday evening last in the hall at Marshfield and a very pleasant time it was for all concerned. The fun consisted of games, contests and music, all of which seemed to make a capital appetizer for the delightful and abundant lunch which followed.

The main topic for conversation out here just now is foxes, the usual greeting to be heard on the road now is: Morning Tom, how's all the folks? how's the foxes? Early reports seem to indicate a good crop of pups in this vicinity.

The funeral of the late Mr. D. A. McDonald of Pleasant Valley was held yesterday afternoon and was largely attended, many being present from long distances. The service was conducted by Rev. George Miller of Clifton and the funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Loyal Orange Association of which the late Mr. McDonald was a member for many years. At the grave the solemn service of the Order was conducted by officers of the Lodge. The pall bearers were Messrs Neil Nicholson, L. A. McIntosh, Roderick Nicholson, Hugh Gillis, Daniel McDonald, D. J. Munroe and D. J. McKinnon.

The late Mr. McDonald was in the prime of life being 55 years of age. He was in his usual health up to a few days before his death, when he was suddenly stricken with pneumonia to which he succumbed.

As last act was a friendly one, a visit to a sick neighbor whose work he did. On his return home he was taken ill. He was a successful farmer and a leading resident in the community always ready to help in every tiling called to his aid. He had a large number of sorrowing neighbors who attended yesterday to pay their last tribute of respect. He will be sorely missed in the community.

He leaves to mourn his wife, four children all of whom were at his bedside and funeral with the exception of one, Mrs. Walter Bell formerly of Tryon and now of California. He is survived by two brothers, Messrs S. A. McDonald of Charlottetown and Mr. H. A. McDonald, merchant of Hamilton, Ontario, and four sisters Mrs. North Peaton and Mrs. D. A. Ross, St. John's, Mrs. John Bernard, Kensington and Mrs. J. D. McDonald, Southport.

This death is the first break in the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. McDonald besides whose names remain the names of their sons to be called hence henceforth the name of the sorrowing widow, family and relatives The Guardian tender its sincere sympathy.

Death at any time is very sad but, when it occurs at home and takes away the mother and a little child to be cared for, then indeed it is still sadder. Such was the case when the Spirit of Mrs. Nelson Carver winged its flight to Him who gave it, at the early age of 32 years. The late Mrs. Carver whose maiden name was Ada Pearson, entered the P. E. I. Hospital on Nov. 16th her baby being born on Sunday 16th, and all looked forward to a speedy recovery, but unfortunately otherwise and she passed peacefully away, in the arms of her husband (who arrived shortly before on Sunday 22nd, leaving her infant baby, four other sons, and one daughter, also her husband, his aged mother and aunt to mourn and cherish the memory of a kind loving mother and wife, whose place in the home cannot be filled, but who was of a kind, hospitable nature, strict and strict and all can testify for they always received a welcome at her home.

There are also left to mourn a sister Mae, in Brockton who was very sick with pneumonia at that time and could not get home, also two brothers Seymour in Lot 48, and Walter in the West.

The funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. Mr. McTigue assisted by Rev. Mr. Thos. Hazelbrook, after which the remains were conveyed to Birchhill cemetery, followed by large concourse of mourners, on Tuesday 25th and tenderly laid in their last resting place.

And now, after scarcely six months, Alexandra, is cast into deep gloom again for the Angel of Death has entered another home, nearby and taken up yonder the loving Father and respected citizen in the person of Mr. Robert McKinnon at the advanced age of 83 years, after a very short illness of a few days of pneumonia, and despite medical aid and loving tender nursing he succumbed on Monday, April 6th. Mr. McKinnon of Scottish descent was of a robust nature and one of the best workers through his perseverance and integrity made a comfortable home for himself and family. He was a most estimable man and possessed a loving and hospitable disposition as everybody was made welcome at his home.

There are left to mourn, his devoted wife and help-mate, who was formerly Miss Janie McPhee, also three sons, Max in the western states, Arthur, Contractor of Malden, Mass., who arrived home to be present at the funeral, and Nathaniel on the homestead, besides a host of friends and relations, many of whom gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to a departed neighbor and friend, at the funeral which was held on Friday 10th.

The services at house and grave were conducted by Revs. Mr. Lind and Tilly interment being at Cross Roads Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. James Sam Cousin, Nelson Carver, Nathaniel Molyneux, John Brown and Wallace Smith.

Mr. W. Boyce, (Mormon), was a recent visitor to Dunstaffnage.

Mr. Herbert Webster, City, paid a visit to his old home in Dunstaffnage on Friday last.

Miss Ruby Stewart, school teacher at York spent the Easter holidays at her home in Dunstaffnage.

AUGUSTINE J. McINNIS Entered into rest at Murray River, on April 7th, 1925, after a short illness Mr. Augustine J. McInnis in the 81st year of his age.

Notwithstanding his advanced age his many friends are entertained by his strong constitution, combined with the best medical skill, loving care and constant attention of a dutiful daughter in charge might eventually combat the disease.

Those hopes were shattered when her death was a great shock to the family and the whole community. Miss Beatrix body could not much longer withstand the rapid demands of the had worked in Mr. William Callindiscreet malady. The end was peaceful. During his illness the deceased was consoled and fortified in a church choir to which she was not a member. Besides a grief-stricken father and mother, she leaves to mourn six sisters namely, May Matilda, Cecilia, Alice Bessie and Kathleen and three brothers named Joseph, Austin and Franklin. A very good roads a large crowd attended the funeral about fifty persons followed the hearse to Seven Mile Bay where service was conducted at church and grave by Rev. W. E. Monaghan. The pall bearers were her chums namely, Jack Green, Albert Cahill, Bern and Wilfred Connolly, Earl Noonan and Henry Octave.

FLORAL TRIBUTES Wreath—Mrs. Joseph Webster and daughter Eva. Spray—Miss Mildred and Jeanne Calbeck. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Affleck. Cross—Misses Aletha, Blanche and Myrtle Noonan. Bouquet—Mrs. Daniel Noonan. Bouquet—Miss Alice Pearson. Bouquet—Miss Ethel Gould.

May her soul rest in peace. (Summerside papers please copy)

MRS. DONALD ROBERTSON In the passing away of Mrs. Donald Robertson of Kingsboro, P. E. I. on March 25th, another link with the past is severed. The late Mrs. Robertson was a daughter of the late John McDonald—Elder—and she possessed the admirable traits of her race to a goodly degree. Strong in body, she attained the ripe age of eighty-five years. Vigorous in mind, a mind of the inquiring type, she was a well read woman and an apt student, maintaining until the last a keen interest in the discoveries and inventions of the day. Her religious life was sincere. She was a devoted Bible Student, a doer of good works, a kind neighbor and a reverent worshipper of God. While not neglecting the calls of humanity at home, she was ardently interested in Foreign Missions, and in recognition of her devoted service to this cause she was made a Life Member of the Baptist Women's Mission Aid Society. Two sons and one daughter residing in the United States, mourn the departing of a good mother. Her son Ernest visited her some months ago and upon receipt of the news of his mother's death forwarded a beautiful floral tribute. The other son, Maxwell, sent a tribute of affection by telegram. A third son, Sewell, well known in business life on Prince Edward Island died about the same time.

The pall bearers were Messrs. T. L. Cook, W. F. McInnis, James Hughes, James McKearney, Thomas Cassidy and William Cain. To the sorrowing and bereaved daughter at home, and the other members of the family absent, the deep sympathy of the community is extended. (Patriot please copy)

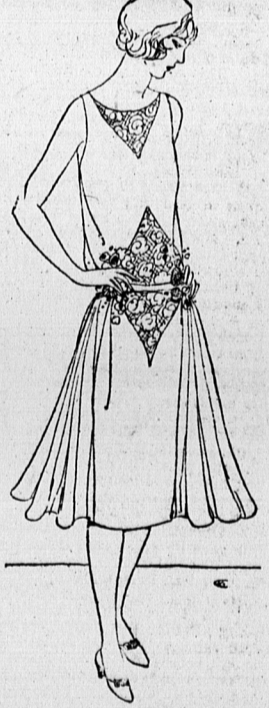

MISS BEATRICE F. McDONALD On April 10th, 1925 for the first time the Angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McDonald, Bedouque and claimed their third oldest daughter, Miss Beatrice Florence, at the early age of nineteen years. Although in all health for the past three months her death was a great shock to the family and the whole community. Miss Beatrix body could not much longer withstand the rapid demands of the had worked in Mr. William Call-

Two years ago, in his home, the aged mother was tenderly cared for during the last years of her life. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. R. MacFarlane, who chose for the text the words: "At evening time it shall be light."

FLESCHIFFON DANCE FROCK IS TRIMMED WITH FLESH LACE

There is a decided vogue this season for all the soft, creamy trims such as flesh, maize, nude and the very delicate tans. The lovely dance frock above is decorated in cream colored chiffon and trimmed at the neck and waistline with insets of cream lace to match. The only touch of color is imparted by French flowers in gay tints, posed at either side of the waist. The same frock would be attractive in any pastel tint, such as pale pink or yellow or blue, with cream lace insets for color contrast.

VETERAN TELEGRAPHER DEAD WINNIPEG, April 17.—John Taft, Inspector for the Canadian Pacific Telegraph at Nelson, B. C., died last night, according to messages received here today. Mr. Taft was manager here for many years and was well known throughout Canada.
