JAMES ESSEY, proprietor of Devon Farm, Union, Lot 33, is not only making a specialty of pure bred Jersey stock and Tamworth pigs, but is going into fruit raising on an extensive scale, having already set out about 500 trees. His friends wish Mr. Essey, who is one of our most successful and well to do farmers, the greatest success in his new venture. Isaac Holman who has purchased the farms of Jonathan West, Elwyn Deacon and Robert Vessey is busily engaged in moving his stock, etc., from Winsloe to York. It is needless to say Mr. Holman will receive a cordial welcome to his new home at York.

THE St John Globe in discussing the Island telegraph service says in part:—It is not surprising that, this season, when the mail arrangements between P. E. Island and the mainland have been so badly broken up, attention should again be called to the wretched and costly telegraphic service furnished by the Anglo-American Company. The charges are outrageously high, and the company's offices close at a comparatively early hour in the evening. The Charlottetown Guardian has been making a strong effort to awaken public opinion on the matter. It urges that it would pay a new company to lay a cable.

TO-DAY Irishmen the world over will observe as a holiday the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick—the Patron Saint of the Emerald Isle. The Benevolent Irish Society and the A. O. Dr. Sinnott of St. Dunstan's College. The procession will then re-form and proceed to the hall under the command of Marshall J. Conolly by the following route. From the Cathedral up Great George to Richmond, along Richmond to Queen, along Queen to Grafton to Hillsboro down Hillsboro to Water and along Water to Queen and thence to the Halls.

THE Purity Meeting conducted by Mrs. Dr. Johnston in the W. C. T. U. parlor yesterday afternoon was very successful. Mrs. Judge Hensley read a very appropriate chapter from the Bible. Mrs. Johnston had prepared a catalogue of pernicious literature and Mrs. Smith a paper "Purity in Literature and Art." There was nothing so much to be dreaded in the home etc., as the enervating, degrading influences that are thrown upon the imagination of our youth through the press. Evil thoughts are an introduction to every debasing practice, they are the precursors of evil deeds. Mrs. Campbell's paper on "Teaching Truth" was a talk to mothers dwelling on the thought that we are made in the image of God. Through sex comes all the sweetest ties of life, mothers fathers, husbands, wives and children. A discussion followed and all felt stronger the great need of guarding our youth, and making the home a temple of purity.

FOR that cough. We strongly recommend "Mac's Cough Mixture." It is probably the best remedy we have ever sold. It is not a mixture of syrup etc., but is a good strong mixture one bottle of which is generally sufficient to cure a cough. For children we have a milder remedy "Syrup of White Pine," it is very pleasant and children take it readily. Price of either 25c a bottle.
