LESSON IV, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 26.

Text of the Lesson, I Sam. xv, 13-23. Memory Verses, 20-22—Golden Text, I Sam. xv, 22—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1903, by American Press Association.]

In our previous studies in this portion of Scripture, in 1889 and 1895, we began at verse 10; now we are advised to study from verse 10, so it is practically the same.

13. And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said unto him: Blessed be thou of the Lord. I have performed the commandment of the Lord.

14. 15. The people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God, and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16. 17. Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

18. 19. Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didst fly upon the spoil and didst evil in the sight of the Lord.

The Lord sent him and told him what to do, and it was his not to reason, but obey. The reason of the command given to Saul is found in Ex. xvii, 8-16, but being long suffering and not willing that any should perish He had given them 400 years in which to repent.

20. 21. And Saul said unto Samuel, Yes, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, but the people took of the spoil... to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

He confesses to have saved the king, who was certainly included in the order to destroy, and yet insists that he had obeyed the voice of the Lord. It is the old story, so common today, of perverting the word of the Lord (Jer. xxiii, 36) and of thinking that He does not mean just what He says.

22. Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice and to hearken than the fat of rams. The first thought in sacrifice is not our giving something to God, but God giving something to us, as in the institution of sacrifice at Eden (Gen. iii, 21) when the Lord God by a sacrifice which pointed on to the great sacrifice on Calvary taught Adam and Eve the way of redemption: Man's thought, which is from the adversary, is that we must first give to God to propitiate Him, whereas we can give Him nothing until we first accept His gift to us.

Dreadful Case of Itching Piles
Doctor Wanted to Burn the Skin With a Red Hot Iron—Patient Was Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Alex. McLean, Tarbot V. S. N. S. writes: "For two years I worked as section-man on the Dominion Coal Company's Railroad between Sydney and G. Bay, N. S., and during that time was exposed to all sorts of weather."

"I was in a desperate condition and had about given up hope of ever being free from this dreadful suffering when a friend told me about Dr. Chase's Ointment. He said he had seen so many cases that it had cured that he would pay for himself if it failed to cure."

"My experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment is that the first application did me more good than did the two doctors, and it has made me as well as and as free from piles as any man. Since being cured I worked during the winter in the lumber woods and experienced no return of my old trouble."
