PARTY ENJOYED—On the evening of January 7th 1926 a very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mrs. Christie Nicholson of Glen Valley when the friends and neighbors met to show their sympathy to her son, John D. who for the past year has been a great sufferer with his eyes, words would fail to tell of the pleasure it meant to him to have his friends gather in his home to help pass away a few lonely hours which this young man is called upon to bear as he is not able at the present time to read to pass the long evenings away. Games were played by both young and old till about ten when the gathering was called to order and Mr. Sterling McLean was asked to act as chairman which he did in his usual jolly manner, he then called upon the following to take part in the program and it is needless to say all were greatly enjoyed, especially the gaelic songs. The following is the program. Graphophone selections—Mr. Malcolm McPherson; Recitation—Cyrus Martin; Harmonica Duet—Leslie and Kenneth McDowell; Recitation—Frances MacDowell; Violin selection—Mr. Simon A. Blondon; Recitation—Mrs. Alfred E. Carew; Stump Speech—Mr. Willard A. MacDowell Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carew; Gaelic Duet—Mr. Malcolm McPherson and Mrs. Margaret Elliott. Speeches were then made by Mr. Elmer Abbott, Sterling McLean, Simon A. Blondon, A. Carew and Hugh McLaren. Solo Simon A. Blondon. After which Miss Doris Abbott read an address and Miss Katherine MacKenzie presented Mr. Nicholson with a purse on behalf of those present. Mr. Nicholson in well chosen words thanked his friends for the pleasant time they had given him, also for the present. Mrs. Nicholson also thanked those present for the sympathy shown to her son. The ladies then served a dainty lunch to which all dined. The party was then brought to a close by singing "For he is a Jolly good fellow" and God Save the King. The following is the address:—Mr. John D. Nicholson. Dear John—At this joyous season of the year, we a few of your neighbors have met in your home this evening to spend a few pleasant hours with you, and to show to you that we sympathize with you in the affliction you are called upon to bear, and trust that ere long you will be enjoying good health and be able to attend the social gatherings which we have in the community from time to time. We miss you from our midst John and trust the dark cloud will soon be turned inside out and that you may wear the silver lining of the darkest clouds have the brightest linings. We ask you to accept this little gift as a token of love and sympathy and may the New Year on which we have just entered upon hold of you earth's greatest blessings which are Health and Happiness. As the sincere wish of your friends in Glen Valley. (Patriot please copy)

Five Prisoners Broke Out of Jail

(Canadian Press)
NEWCASTLE, N. B., Mar. 3.—Five prisoners, all remanded on charges at Doaktown and Chatham Road, broke out of jail here during last night. Deputy Sheriff Doran had made his last nightly inspection at midnight, and the escape must have been made between then and daylight. An iron bar, said to have had a flaw in it, was broken and used as a pry to shift the other bars. Blankets were used to lower the prisoners to the ground. There is no word of them today.

A World-wide Business the careful Housewife helped to build

ALL over the world, Sunlight Soap, once known only in Great Britain, is now a universal favourite.

This is a tribute to purity—for Sunlight has always been kept pure, regardless of manufacturing costs—and to the demand of the careful housewife for soap that would cleanse quickly, with little work and in safety.

Any expert laundress will tell you that Sunlight Soap is faithful to fabrics, but ruinous to dirt. There are soaps that appear to work faster, but Sunlight Soap is her choice because she respects the life of the fabrics entrusted to her care. There is no substitute for pure soap.

Your clothes will last longer when your laundress uses Sunlight, the largest selling laundry soap in the world.

Made by Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto.
Sold Everywhere 8-64

"To me, the $5000 guarantee of purity means clean clothes, and a clear conscience, because I know Sunlight won't hurt fabrics."

FORCES CLASHED

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, March 3.—Fascists and Socialists noisily clashed in Hyde Park yesterday. They held meetings simultaneously near each other and the Fascists concluded the meeting by singing the National Anthem, while the Socialists countered by singing the "Red Flag." The clash, however, did not result seriously. Perhaps this was due to the inborn respect of Englishmen for law and order, or maybe it was due to the fear of personal consequences.
