

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Byrne McCourt, City, has returned to Moncton.

Mrs. Dr. McLeod, City, passed last week in Summerside.

Mrs. Hogg, Proprietress of Wonderland returned Saturday from a business trip to Halifax.

Samuel Kennedy, Sr., Bradalbins and Rve. Dr. Gauthier, Palmer's Road were in the City Friday.

Gordon L. Cobson returned to the City Saturday from a four weeks business trip through Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 3.25 and tomorrow at 4.00.

Mrs. D. J. Bonnell, left Saturday on a weeks visit to friends in Grandview.

Lady Davies, Ottawa, entertained at a tea for married ladies Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. B. Wade of Halifax, says the Ottawa Citizen.

In Mr. McLean's resolution respecting change of time for opening the lobster fishery... reported in The Guardian of Saturday last, the proposed change should read "from 20th April to 1st May, instead of 20th May, as printed.

A great deal of interest should centre around the program at New Wonderland tonight, which is given on page four.

The price of pork in the itemized Summerside market, yesterday should have read seven and three quarters to eight and one half cents per lb.

Charles and Mrs. Miller of Victoria, have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their youngest child Raymond L. Miller, who passed away Saturday morning, aged one year and six months.

Alderman Harry P. Duchemin, of Sydney a Charlottetown man, is having a controversy in the newspapers with Joseph A. Gillies, K. C., over the matter of school accommodation for that city.

Among the passengers to the City on Saturday by the special from Georgetown were the following. Oran Thompson, Amherst; F. C. Potter, Toronto; Mr. Gardiner, Toronto; J. Smith, Montreal.

The Dominion Hotel property at Emerald, about fifty yards from the station, is being offered for sale at a bargain. The buildings are all in good repair, and it is a splendid business stand. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

The chorus from the creation "The Heavens are Telling" was effectively rendered by the First Methodist choir last evening. The Trio was excellent. Miss Fitzgerald found two able and sympathetic supporters in Geo. H. Moore and F. H. Beert. Too are these evenings of music from the great masters.

About April first Messrs Ross and Matthews, Insurance Agents, move to their new offices in the Masonic Building and William Cantwell will occupy their old stand as a barber shop. H. H. Brown has leased Mr. Cantwell's present shop, which is next door and in the same building, and will be in a better position than ever to cater to his large increasing trade.

Previous to the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Grant for Charlottetown where they will permanently reside a very interesting function was enjoyed by Mr. Grant and the members of the operating and mechanical staffs of the Nova Scotia Telephone Company's station at Truro. He has been manager for some time past and as such was presented by the employees with a beautiful solid leather traveling bag and accoutrements. The incident was one of more than usual felicity. The efficiency of the operators has long been thoroughly appreciated by the company's manager and its numerous patrons, and it was declared by all who took part in the presentation that it is because of the sympathetic co-operation of manager and employees that this fact is apparent now as in the past. Mr. Grant's eloquent praise of the staff at the switch board was warm, as it was well deserved. Ex-Mr. and Mrs. Grant are heartily welcomed to this City and Province, and the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield will be greatly regretted.

On Friday evening, March 5th, Cornwall Division S. O. P. had a fraternal visit to Heather Division at Long Creek. The roads were good, and the night all that could be desired, and some fourteen sleigh-loads of the Cornwall girls and boys turned out to participate in the pleasures which attend such occasions as fraternal visits. The Heather Division being quickly despatched the W. P. Bro. John McKenzie, after giving an address of welcome, invited the W. P. of Cornwall, Hugh Miller, to a seat on the platform, after which, the following program was rendered:—Chorus—The Temperance Bells—Choir. Reading—Lottie Drake. Solo—John Hertz. Recitation—Charlotte Lowther. Dialogue—The Bashful Boy—Three characters. Solo—Hattie Drake. Reading—Grace Drake. Chorus—There Will Be a Golden Morrow—Choir. Recitation—Mamie Stone. Diet—Margaret and William Stevenson. Recitation—Minnie Drake. Reading—David Scott, (encored.) Solo—Harry Hyde, (encored.) Reading—Hannah McGreg. Chorus—Harmonica selections—Gordon McLeod. Recitation—Lemuel Drake. Address—Rev. H. Miller. Chorus—The Cornwall Band—Choir. The program ended and a number of short speeches being made, a vote of thanks was tendered the members of Cornwall, for the good entertainment they provided, and then refreshments were served by the lads and lassies of Heather. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the members of Heather in the royal manner in which they treated the visiting Division, and the hope was expressed, that at Cornwall in the near future—"The members of Heather" might spend another such evening together. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very pleasant and profitable meeting.

Mrs. Moore, wife of Colonel Moore, went to Summerside on Saturday, to remain a week.

How needless waste of time is done away with by the use of the Guardian's classified ads is told in that column.

Any person who has a desirable city residence with all modern improvements to let should apply at this office at once.

Harry Webster, who for some time past has been at his home in this Province, came to the city from Norboro Sask, where he has resided for three years.

A correspondent says: D. L. McKinnon, Crapaud, is a lucky winner for 1909. For 75c invested in Calgary he receives a deed of a lot of land valued at $5000. Mr. McKinnon is to be congratulated on his success.

Rev. Edward Bell of York, delighted a large audience in St. Bonaventure's Hall Tracadie on Monday evening with a graphic lecture on "A Trip Through the British Isles." The lecture was under the auspices of the Library Association and the Rev. P. D. McGuigan, President of the Association occupied the chair.

The subject of the sermon given by Rev. J. F. Floyd, in Central Christian Church, last evening was "The description of Jerusalem and its environs. This is the sixth of Mr. Floyd's series of sermons on Our Tour through Bible Lands, and was a great effort, describing minutely the many different nations and customs of living as well as the chief characteristics of the land.

Two young provincialists Gordon J. Cameron of this City and Benjamin Dockendorff of Lower North River, leave this City this evening for Georgetown en route to Moose Jaw, Sask., where they intend taking homesteads, and will reside for the future. Their many friends wish them every success in this undertaking.

The funeral of the late L. R. McKinnon, Hampton, took place on Friday last at 2 o'clock at Crapaud Cemetery. The service at the house was conducted by Revs McLeod and McDougall, and at the grave by the Masons, Rev. Mr. Field officiating. The pall-bearers were H. Crosby, H. McVittie, W. M. A. McQuarrie, Donald McLean, J. C. Houston and Frank Lang. The deceased was 39 years of age, and is survived by a wife and four children, who have the sympathy of many in their bereavement.

Once more the community is called upon to record the death of an old and respected lady, in the person of Mary Hannan, who passed away at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Joseph Praught, Alberry Plains, on Wednesday the 10th instant. She was attended in her last hours by the Rev. Dr. Morrison and she died consoled by the rites of the Catholic Church, of which she was a faithful member. The deceased lady was in her eighty-seventh year, and was well and favorable known in Vernon River and Iona, where she kept house for the Rev. James Phalen for upwards of forty years. By her kind and genial disposition, she won the respect of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her funeral took place to Vernon River Station Thursday morning, thence by rail to St. Margarets, where interment took place Friday morning in the Catholic Cemetery.

$15. The talk of the town our lovely suits at $15.

MUCH AS THE higher priced suits are being admired—and their perfect finish and tasteful design call for admiration from everybody—they are not the centre of the most enthusiastic comment in the ready to wear department these days.

But the wonderful values at $15.00 are springing surprises on everybody. Pretty? You should see them.

They are aristocrats of style—they are daintily designed—and they are perfectly tailored—by the best man tailors in the land.

They are just such suits as seven out of every ten women long for—but do not dream of buying at our price.

They are serges—venetians etc.—in plain or stripes—there are blacks, browns, blues, and greens.

Coats of the correct new lengths, skirts of the $15. latest cut.

A few days ago one of our fifteen dollar suits was carefully compared with the lightest dollar line in a big mail order house.

The lady's judgment without any suggestion of ours was that our fifteen dollar suit was better than the Mail order lighteen.

And the order stayed in Charlotte-town.

Our other lines are as follows
12.50, 16.50, 19.50, 22.50, 25.00.

The April patterns—April Designer—April fashion sheets are all in.
STANDARD—The best seam allowance pattern in the world 10c and 15c.

Another reinforcement comes to the Scotch Dress Linens

THE WONDERFUL selling of this line has surprised even ourselves and we look for a good deal in the way of big sales you know. But the more you consider the goods the less you will wonder—Lovely in finish—beautiful in colouring—handsome in design and almost endless in wear—these handsome linens are the ideal summer suiting fabric.

Friday—direct from Scotland came a parcel of handsome new designs—these in stripes of several sorts, lustrous finish more like raw silks than linens almost, and very moderate indeed at our special price. . . . . per yd 27c.

A notable Value in Skirts 2.98

AMONG a number of excellent values recently to hand this one stands out prominently—it is made in the most modern design—of a dark gray cloth with white pin stripe—very neat and effective in finish, and a good "Three" fifty value. . . . . 2.98

And then there are so many of the other and better grades—there is a handsome line of Venetians and panamas from the best makers in the Dominion at. . . . . 5.75

There are Panamas—Voiles—Venetians at 7.50, 8.75, 10.00, 12.50, 15.25.

Best Dress Goods Stock in Charlottetown

During the last few years this store has swung into leadership in dress goods—so far in fact that this department has no serious competition. Day after day customers call here—get samples—go all round town—return—tell us "You have the greatest showing of dress goods we have seen." And after all that is the judgment that we value—your judgment.

Have you seen our enormous range of new all wool dress fabrics, plains—fancy—stripes, etc at. . . . . 69c.
