Before leaving they were presented with cigarettes by the Provincial Government through the Carry On Canada. The presentations were looked after by a representative of the Canadian Legion War Services.

INSTALLING CENTRAL HEATING—The oil burning system, used in the heating of the Provincial Building, is out for the duration. Workmen are now installing a central heating plant in the Court House which will heat that building and also the Provincial Building. Coal will be used as the heating agency when the large boiler is hooked up to the furnace in the basement of the Court House. A large opening has been made in the side of the basement through which the boiler will pass when it arrives here the latter part of this week. The oil system in the Provincial Building has been disconnected.

AIRMEN INJURED—One of the airmen stationed at the Charlottetown airport, whose name was not released last night, received what was believed to be a broken ankle and other injuries when he fell into the basement of the Court House. He fell through an opening made by workmen who are installing a large boiler in the building. There was several feet of a drop and the unfortunate victim of the accident lay there for about half an hour before he was able to attract the attention of some passers-by. He fell into the hole about midnight and kept hollering for help until he was finally discovered. The airman was taken by ambulance to the Alms House where he was placed in hospital.

WORDS OF CHALLENGE

"A hard and difficult struggle still awaits us and we all are well aware that no efforts can ever be too great, no sacrifices too exacting to assure the final triumph of our common cause, freedom and justice in the world."—Her Majesty Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands.

This was followed by a government drive to send workmen to Germany to "relieve" war prisoners from rural districts to be repatriated in one-to-three ratio for the number of skilled workers included among those sent to Germany.

Thus far only one trainload of "reliever" prisoners has arrived in France.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH In his morning sermon the Rev. J. J. Levy taking as his text the 10th verse of the New Testament lesson "Arise and Let Us Be Going" delivered a searching sermon on "A Will to Action." What does this will mean to us? It is a call to prayer. Our Lord was a man of prayer, before we go farther we

The heroic defense of Stalingrad by Soviet soldiers and civilian army is dramatically depicted in this drawing by NEA staff artist Harry Grissinger. The Russians, outnumbered three to one, are contesting every step of the German advance, as Nazi troops and tanks pound at the city gates and clouds of dive bombers blast endlessly at Soviet trenches and gun bunkers.
