

BOWLING
HOCKEY
WRESTLING

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

BOXING
BASKETBALL
OTHER SPORT

Jacobs To Head Louis For Fighting Fields Of Europe And South America

(By Edward J. Neill)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Sept. 26—The chocolate soldier, a one-man army named Joseph Louis, is heading for the fighting fields of South America and Europe to show folks abroad, as he showed Max Baer and 90,000 in the Yankee Stadium, just how much devastation can be packed in the fists of one super warrior.

Yankees Win 7th Straight

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Sept. 26—Making the most of their seven hits while Johnny Murphy was keeping Washington Senators' 10 hits well scattered, New York Yankees turned back Washington 4-2 for their seventh straight victory in the only game played in the major leagues today.

Jews Invited To Join Nazi Olympic Team?

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
PARIS, Sept. 26.—The German Olympic Committee today informed Brig. Gen. Charles H. Sherrill, United States member of the International Olympic Committee, that Jews would be invited to join the Nazi team.

U.S. Ryder Cup Team Tunes Up

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
RIDGWOOD, N.J., Sept. 26.—Veterans outpointed youngsters today in informal practice matches of the United States Ryder Cup golf team over the Ridgewood Country Club course where the Americans will engage a side of British professionals Saturday and Sunday.

Braddock Ready For Brown Bomber

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—James J. Braddock, world's heavyweight champion, says Joe Louis can be licked.

Pennant Race At A Glance

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
The torrid National League pennant race remained in status quo today as rain washed out the second of the crucial Cubs-Cards series.

HOME RUN CIRCUIT

(By The Associated Press)
Home Runs Yesterday: Myer, Senators, one.

Dean Brothers Will Attempt To Halt Cubs

(By Paul Mickelson, Associated Press Sports Writer)
(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26—Rainfall, as steady as the march of the carefree Chicago Cubs, washed out Charlie Grimm's plans to clinch the National League pennant today and gave the four down and four to go Cardinals a merciful rest for a doubleheader rally tomorrow.

The final hopes of the world's champions will be the Dean brothers in tomorrow's twin bill, starting at 12:45 p.m., C.S.T. Given the "amazing" record of four days rest, Dizzy will fire all he's got in a desperate attempt to snap the Cub 19-game winning streak in the opener.

Robson Defends Golf Title Successfully

(G. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
TORONTO, Sept. 25—Lex Robson, clever Inlington Club shot-maker successfully defended his Ontario professional golf title today when he defeated Dick Borthwick of Cedar Brook, one up, in the final 18 hole match over the Inlington course.

Midwest Seeks Schmeling-Louis Bout

NEW YORK, Sept. 26—Busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

York Rifle Club

The final shoot for the Silver Salver on Saturday was quite successful and good scores were the result, though at the 600 several dropped owing to difficult conditions.

City Baseball Champions Banqueted

As a tribute to their winning of the City Baseball League title for 1935 the Stars recently crowned champions, were tendered a complimentary banquet at the C. N. R. Hotel last evening by the popular president of the league Mr. James Power.

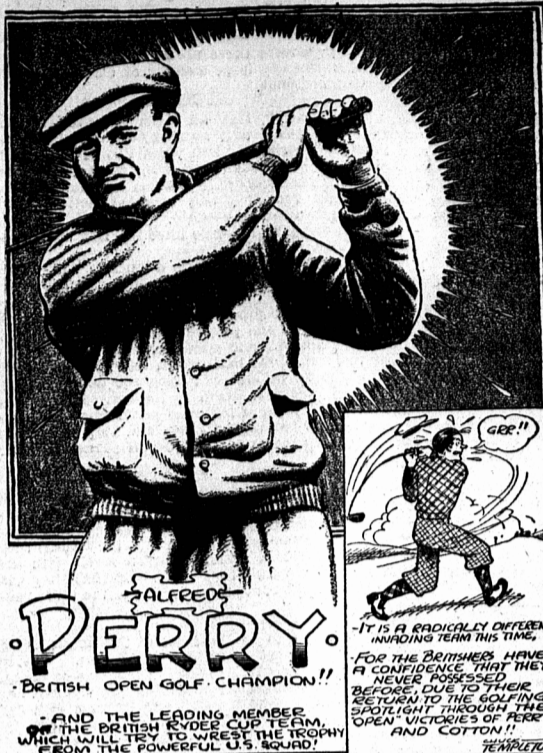

Stockholders Of Garden Deadlocked

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The deadlock in the struggle for control of Madison Square Garden was projected into its fourth day when stockholders adjourned their meeting today while lawyers wrangled over validity of proxies.

ALLEYS OPEN TUESDAY OCT. 1st

Reliable reports indicated voting by stockholders stood practically unchanged after an entire day of argument with Col. John Reed Kilpatrick holding 141,000 votes, Col. John S. Hammond backed by 125,000 votes, and about 5,000 in dispute.

Chuck Templeton's SPORTRAITS

Robson Defends Golf Title Successfully
(G. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
TORONTO, Sept. 25—Lex Robson, clever Inlington Club shot-maker successfully defended his Ontario professional golf title today when he defeated Dick Borthwick of Cedar Brook, one up, in the final 18 hole match over the Inlington course.

Midwest Seeks Schmeling-Louis Bout
NEW YORK, Sept. 26—Busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

York Rifle Club
The final shoot for the Silver Salver on Saturday was quite successful and good scores were the result, though at the 600 several dropped owing to difficult conditions.

City Baseball Champions Banqueted
As a tribute to their winning of the City Baseball League title for 1935 the Stars recently crowned champions, were tendered a complimentary banquet at the C. N. R. Hotel last evening by the popular president of the league Mr. James Power.

Stockholders Of Garden Deadlocked
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The deadlock in the struggle for control of Madison Square Garden was projected into its fourth day when stockholders adjourned their meeting today while lawyers wrangled over validity of proxies.

ALLEYS OPEN TUESDAY OCT. 1st
Reliable reports indicated voting by stockholders stood practically unchanged after an entire day of argument with Col. John Reed Kilpatrick holding 141,000 votes, Col. John S. Hammond backed by 125,000 votes, and about 5,000 in dispute.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

Taffy Volo Winner In Stiff Battle

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 26—Taffy Volo, owned by R. J. Reynolds, youthful sportsman of Winston Salem, N. C., won the 46th, renewal of the Transylvania in the Grand Circuit meeting here today after one of the hardest battles the event has seen in recent years.

Hamilton Tigers Sorely Lack Forward Passer

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
TORONTO, Sept. 26—Monday morning quarterbacks here and in Hamilton can explain briskly and without fear of contradiction why Hamilton Tigers may not win the Big Four football championship this year, despite the fact they have one of the country's strongest backfields. The explanation centres around Johnny Ferrara.

Coached Girls In Record Run Of 20 Seasons

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
When Edmonton Commercial Grads play their first basketball game next season, the girls will be without Percy Page, silver-haired schoolteacher who is perhaps the most successful coach in any sport. Sport has had many careful characters in coaching roles than Page, but it has had none with a comparable record of achievement.

Summaries

The Lexington, Two Year-Old Trotters, $2,000
Ed. Lasater (White) . . . . . 2 1 1
Vagabond King, (Erskine) . . . . . 1 5 2
Bulwark, (Dean) . . . . . 5 2 0
Happiness (Egan) . . . . . 3 4 0
Brownie Hanover (Thomas) 4 8 0
Time: 2:11, 2:06 1-4; five starts.

Georgetown News, 18 Pace $600
Walter Anderson (E. Allen) 3 1 1
Miss Hoff (A. Berry) . . . . . 1 2 2
Miss Meadows (Egan) . . . . . 2 5 5
Worthy of (M. McMillan) . . . . . 4 4 3
J. T. B. Billy Hal, Ivanwood also started.
Time: 2:01 3-4, 2:01 1-2; 2:03 3-4.

Two Year Old Pacers, $500
Running Water (V. Fleming) 1 1
Evelyn Gray (W. Dennis) 2 2
Cannella Abbot (C. Schalk) . . . . . 5 3
Truie Mar, (Knowlton) . . . . . 3 5
Countess Groaton also started.
Time: 2:06 1-4, 2:06 1-2.

York Rifle Club
The final shoot for the Silver Salver on Saturday was quite successful and good scores were the result, though at the 600 several dropped owing to difficult conditions.

City Baseball Champions Banqueted
As a tribute to their winning of the City Baseball League title for 1935 the Stars recently crowned champions, were tendered a complimentary banquet at the C. N. R. Hotel last evening by the popular president of the league Mr. James Power.

Stockholders Of Garden Deadlocked
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The deadlock in the struggle for control of Madison Square Garden was projected into its fourth day when stockholders adjourned their meeting today while lawyers wrangled over validity of proxies.

ALLEYS OPEN TUESDAY OCT. 1st
Reliable reports indicated voting by stockholders stood practically unchanged after an entire day of argument with Col. John Reed Kilpatrick holding 141,000 votes, Col. John S. Hammond backed by 125,000 votes, and about 5,000 in dispute.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

Hamilton Tigers Sorely Lack Forward Passer

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
TORONTO, Sept. 26—Monday morning quarterbacks here and in Hamilton can explain briskly and without fear of contradiction why Hamilton Tigers may not win the Big Four football championship this year, despite the fact they have one of the country's strongest backfields. The explanation centres around Johnny Ferrara.

Coached Girls In Record Run Of 20 Seasons

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
When Edmonton Commercial Grads play their first basketball game next season, the girls will be without Percy Page, silver-haired schoolteacher who is perhaps the most successful coach in any sport.

Summaries

The Lexington, Two Year-Old Trotters, $2,000
Ed. Lasater (White) . . . . . 2 1 1
Vagabond King, (Erskine) . . . . . 1 5 2
Bulwark, (Dean) . . . . . 5 2 0
Happiness (Egan) . . . . . 3 4 0
Brownie Hanover (Thomas) 4 8 0
Time: 2:11, 2:06 1-4; five starts.

Georgetown News, 18 Pace $600
Walter Anderson (E. Allen) 3 1 1
Miss Hoff (A. Berry) . . . . . 1 2 2
Miss Meadows (Egan) . . . . . 2 5 5
Worthy of (M. McMillan) . . . . . 4 4 3
J. T. B. Billy Hal, Ivanwood also started.
Time: 2:01 3-4, 2:01 1-2; 2:03 3-4.

Two Year Old Pacers, $500
Running Water (V. Fleming) 1 1
Evelyn Gray (W. Dennis) 2 2
Cannella Abbot (C. Schalk) . . . . . 5 3
Truie Mar, (Knowlton) . . . . . 3 5
Countess Groaton also started.
Time: 2:06 1-4, 2:06 1-2.

York Rifle Club
The final shoot for the Silver Salver on Saturday was quite successful and good scores were the result, though at the 600 several dropped owing to difficult conditions.

City Baseball Champions Banqueted
As a tribute to their winning of the City Baseball League title for 1935 the Stars recently crowned champions, were tendered a complimentary banquet at the C. N. R. Hotel last evening by the popular president of the league Mr. James Power.

Stockholders Of Garden Deadlocked
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The deadlock in the struggle for control of Madison Square Garden was projected into its fourth day when stockholders adjourned their meeting today while lawyers wrangled over validity of proxies.

ALLEYS OPEN TUESDAY OCT. 1st
Reliable reports indicated voting by stockholders stood practically unchanged after an entire day of argument with Col. John Reed Kilpatrick holding 141,000 votes, Col. John S. Hammond backed by 125,000 votes, and about 5,000 in dispute.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The busy Mike Jacobs, already in the midst of planning a European and South America tour for Joe Louis, halted long enough today to consider a proposition that would shift the site of the proposed Louis-Max Schmeling match next June to Detroit, home town of the chocolate soldier.

PLAIN OR CORK TIP
Smoke a FRESH cigarette
British Consols
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES
Charlotte-Town Premium Office
29 Queen Street

AMAZING OFFER!
FOR LIMITED TIME
Genuine Gold-Plated Gillette Razor and 5 "Blue Blades"
Only 49¢ COMPLETE
Now for a limited time only you can buy a handsome, gold-plated Gillette razor and five Gillette "Blue Blades", complete in sturdy traveling case for only 49¢. Get yours today before your dealer's supply is exhausted.

BOWLING
Clubs and Societies interested in making entry in Y. M. C. A. Leagues to communicate with, invited to communicate with the Association for full particulars.
ALLEYS OPEN TUESDAY OCT. 1st
1-9874-9-27-35