BRINGING UP FATHER

South Melville School Closing

On the afternoon of Wednesday, June 30th the Semi-annual examination of South Melville School was held.

Despite the disagreeable afternoon a goodly number of interested parents and visitors were present. The proceedings opened by singing, The Maple Leaf followed by the Flag Salute.

The pupils from Grade I to Grade X were thoroughly examined in the various subjects and showed by their alert and correct answers that they had been carefully taught.

The Valedictory was given by Mercedes Flood, after which a Grade VIII certificate was awarded to Willie Monaghan and a prize for attendance given to Brendon Flood.

The teacher then presented each pupil with a little gift as a fitting remembrance of a pleasant and profitable term spent together. An address from the pupils was read by Emily Higgins while Charlotte Higgins presented the teacher with valuable and appropriate gifts.

Though visibly touched, Miss Cameron responded in a neat speech and thanked the pupils and parents for their many acts of kindness and also for their cooperation and said that the term spent in South Melville would always be a shining spot in her memory.

Complimentary remarks were made by many of those present and a hearty vote of thanks was extended to the teacher. Everyone was then given a generous treat of candy.

The enjoyable afternoon was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Following is the Address:—

South Melville June 30.
Miss Marjorie M. Cameron, Dear Teacher:—It is with feeling of deep regret that we have recently learned that the pleasant relations existing between us, as teacher and pupils are about to be severed.

Although you have only been our instructor for one year, yet, during that period you have always given evidence of so many fine qualities and have been so untiring in your efforts, on our behalf that we feel your departure will be for us a distinct loss.

It would be hard to find a more zealous and kind-hearted teacher and in looking back over the past year we realize that although your forbearance had many times been severely taxed, yet you always manifested a wise and patient disposition.

In conclusion we ask you to accept this small moment of appreciation and rest assured, that mingled with our feelings of regret, are also our happiness in your new field of labor where we realize full well that what is our loss will be another's gain.

Signed on behalf of the pupils of South Melville School.

In Memoriam

MR. MALCOLM MORRISON

The death occurred in Spring Valley, Thursday, June 24th, 1937, at the home of Mr. Charles McLellan of Malcolm Morrison, at the advanced age of 98 years. A successful farmer, Mr. Morrison about all his life in Darnley, until when he went to Spring Valley to live. Always enjoying the best of health until recently, he could read without the aid of glasses. Ever a kind and obliging neighbor, he will be missed by many old friends, both in Darnley and Spring Valley. His passing removes one of the early settlers of this part of the country and the last of this branch of the Morrison family.

The funeral was held on Friday the 25th, at St. Mary's Church, Indian River and his mortal remains were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining. Rev. Reginald F. MacDonald officiating.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

At Forest Hill on June 30 the annual examination marked the closing of the school term.

The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher and showed very favourable work had been carried on during the year. Quite a number of parents and visitors were present which showed the interest of the district in the school work. The following address was read by Katie Gillis and a very nice gift was presented to the teacher by Mary Macdonald, Miss Elizabeth Webster.

Dear Teacher:—Once more we have come to the end of another school term. We cannot do so without expressing our regret at parting with one who has been our sincere friend and teacher and who has labored so faithfully with us during the last three years. Our relation with you as teacher in this school has been one that will give pleasure to recall, not only for your valuable instruction but kindly association as well. You have given freely of your talent and will greatly reflect, on the example set by you, in those last three years. We now ask you to accept this gift, not for its material worth, but what it may convey to you our appreciation, and extend our best wishes for future success. Signed on behalf of the pupils of Forest Hill School, Margaret F. Macdonald, Forest Hill, Mary MacLeod, Forest Hill.
