

ALMOST FAINTED IN THE STREET

In Daily Fear of Death—Until "Fruit-a-lives" Brought Relief. CHATHAM, ONT., April 3rd, 1913. "Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-lives" and I said to myself "if Fruit-a-lives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me". I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either, Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy for indigestion". C. T. HILL. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. PETER ROSS Departed this life at his home at Lower Montague, on Oct. 11th in the 86th year of his age. Peter Ross, a highly respected resident of this picturesque and progressive locality. The deceased was a son of the late Donald Ross, of East River, who was one of the immigrants that arrived on the ship "Polly." Peter Ross began teaching school at the age of 16 years and proved a painstaking and successful teacher. He taught alternately at Murray Harbor South, Lower Montague, and Murray Harbor North. He taught in all over 40 years and was the recipient of the pension granted by the present Government. He married Miss Jane Crown, of Murray Harbor South, who still survives him. From this marriage were born three sons and four daughters, of whom two sons and three daughters are left to mourn. Deceased was a most consistent member and elder in the Presbyterian Church up to the time of his death. He was highly respected and esteemed in the community in which he lived. As a neighbor, kind and obliging, and as a Christian, zealous and uncompromising. His life was influenced by the example of his Saviour. His faith clear and strong and he felt that death to him was but a transition to the heavenly home. The funeral service was held in the church and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hubley and Rev. Mr. Millar, and was most appropriate to the occasion. Special and most affecting music was rendered by the choir. His remains were interred in the beautiful cemetery near his late residence, there to remain till the resurrection morn. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

of the shareholders of the Upton Black Fox Co. Ltd., will be held in the Board of Trade Rooms Market building, Charlottetown, on Thursday evening, the 29th Oct., 1914, at 8 o'clock. Dated 10th Oct., 1914. E. R. BROW, President, H. G. JENKINS, Sec'y Treas (C9-10-11 M.W.)

—HORSE NOTES.—Mr. Hugh F. Morrison of Kensington is trying hard to have his beautiful trotting horse "Ruby D." in condition for the ice this winter. We understand that this horse seriously injured his leg while racing in the New Annapolis races in the summer and was then purchased by Mr. Morrison. It is to be hoped that this classy horse has not altogether retired from the Park and that Mr. Morrison will have him in readiness for the races of next summer.—K.

—BADLY NEEDED.—Cornelius Morrison went to Summerside on Tuesday on a buying trip. Under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of Missions a meeting was held in Darnley Hall, Wednesday evening at 7.30. G. B. McNutt, in the chair. The following was the programme: Remarks, by chairman; opening chorus by choir; scripture reading by chairman; prayer by Mr. W. Crozier, recitation by Ethel Donald; memory verses by 8 little boys; recitation by Mr. McNutt; chorus, by choir; paper on missions given by Miss Mary McNutt; recitation by Miss Fannie Champion; address by Rev. E. E. Lockhart, on his trip to the Hebrides Land; a recitation followed by Miss Addie McNutt; closing chorus by the choir. A recitation was also given by Miss Champion, a duet by Mrs. Sutherland and Miss H. Donalds. A thanksgiving offering was taken up which goes for the missions.—P.

—AMONG THE VISITORS TO SUMMERSIDE on Saturday were W. E. and Mrs. Howatt, Cape Traverse; Dr. and Mrs. Champion, Tyne Valley; Fraser Mann, Burlington; Dr. and Mrs. McPhee, Kinkora.—X.

—THE WINDSOR, N. S. JOURNAL says that Mrs. Edward Willis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. deW. Smith, went to St. John's Tuesday morning, accompanied by Miss Lizzie Smith and Mrs. H. S. —DARNLEY.—Owing to the demand for fresh beef, the beef merchant, Mr. James Champion, has taken his son, Robert, into partnership with him. Mr. Dan Morrison, of Lower Montague, has opened up a repair shop where he is ready to build truck wagons, carts and repair any part of same. This is a shop that was badly needed.

—LIGHTS NEEDED.—The need of town lights on those dark nights is felt keenly in Kensington. This neglected sidewalk makes it dangerous for the travelling public. Since Kensington is now incorporated, it would be a great improvement if the council would install a sufficient number of lights as well as repair the sidewalks.—K.

—BUYS PROPERTY.—Mr. Ed. Urch of Kensington, has purchased a beautiful property on the Malpeque road, about a quarter of a mile from Kensington. This place, with the improvements that Mr. Urch has put on it, makes it one of the most convenient and up-to-date properties in this vicinity, and Mr. Urch is to be congratulated on his purchase.—K.
