Presentation
At the close of the evening service on July 26th before a capacity audience Mr. Earl Kennedy who was recently married, was honored by the members of the congregation when they presented him with an address and purse as a memento of the good feeling existing in the church and community. On a later occasion, Mr. Kennedy on behalf of himself and his bride expressed his thanks and was deeply touched by the complimentary tone of the address.
July 25, 1943.
Address to Earl Kennedy—
Treasurer: Kingsboro Church
Dear Brother Kennedy—We take

To such an extent has the idea gripped those who were responsible for your appointment that they have solicited the opinion of the entire congregation with results that shall become apparent. It is no exaggeration to state that your services has been so satisfactory that when you wedded a wife so well and favorably known our "Cup of Joy" was filled to overflowing, and it gives us great pleasure to associate Mrs. Kennedy with yourself in our prayer that your lives may have all the joys and few sorrows as this present life can afford.
To conclude we desire to stress the fact that such service as you have given carries with it its own reward.
The contents of this envelope is not in any sense a remuneration. Will you please accept it as an appreciation.
Signed on behalf of the Congregation.
