McLELLAN — COADY NUPTIALS

St. Columbkills Church, Brighton, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on September 6th, when Miss Florence Coady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coady of North Wiltshire, Prince Edward Island, became the bride of Mr. Ronald James McLellan of Cambridge, Mass. The ceremony was performed in the presence of many relatives and friends of the bride and groom, by the Rev. Father McGinley. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin Mr. Cecil Stordy of Somerville, Mass. The bride looked charming in a wedding gown of ivory satin trimmed with pearls and wore a tight fitting cap and veil caught with band of pearls and carried a white payer book with white Gardenias and streamers of white satin ribbon caught with orange blossoms and maiden hair fern. Miss Anna Coady, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a dress of pale blue satin and net and blue Tiara of flowers and shoulder veil and carried a bouquet of Talisman Roses, Delphinium and Baby's Breath tied with a large blue satin ribbon. The groom was ably assisted by his cousin Mr. Willard McLellan. The ushers were Mr. Urban McLellan and Mr Melvin Clarkin.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hartin, Brighton, Mass., to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Mrs. Hartin is a cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. McLellan left the same evening for a honeymoon trip to New York and Maine. The bride's travelling suit was of American beauty wool and light blue feathered pompadour hat and veil, with black bag and shoes. The bride and groom were recipients of many bountiful checks and beautiful gifts.

Previous to her marriage the bride was given a shower by her many girl friends at the home of Mrs. Harten, Brighton.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful string of pearls, to the maid of honor a gold vanity case and to the best man a black Onyx cigarette case. Mr. McLellan is the son of Mr. John L. McLellan, Bath, Maine, formerly of Indian River parish, Prince Edward Island.

Canova, Colonna Riotous Team In New Laugh Film

Are you a Colonna-fancier? Does the man with the marble eyes and the handle-bar moustache hand you as big a laugh as he does to countless thousands of radio listeners and movie-goers? If so, you're in for the time of your life when you see Jerry Colonna and his partner in clowning, Judy Canova, in their new Paramount comedy, "True to the Army" which comes TODAY to the Capitol Theatre.

Colonna is Field Marshal of the pigeon coop. His sweetheart Judy Canova, is a tight-rope walker who finds herself in a tight spot because she is the only eye-witness to a gangster killing. The gangsters want her, the police want her, so she hides away in Colonna's army camp.

Allan Jones, Colonna's pal and the army show-producer, assists in trying to transform the reluctant Judy into a buck private. They cut her hair, hi-jack her lipstick and hustle her into a uniform.

From that moment, army life becomes slightly irregular but altogether hilarious.

Ann Miller as the General's daughter is beautiful to look at and amazing to watch. She does a tap-dance routine to the tune of machine-gunning that is reported to be one the most amazing dance novelties ever seen.

Starrett And Hayden Gallop Across Range!

America's two favorite western heroes gallop across the range . . . in search of new adventure on the Texas plains! Charles Starrett and Russell Hayden, the fightingest cowboys on the screen today, make the range ring with gunfire . . . while they battle bandits "West of Tombstone"! Hoof-thundering thrills and rhythm are promised in this new double-powered, double barreled action hit!

Blazing with the fury of mighty gun battles between desperate outlaws and the notorious Billy, the Kid, "West of Tombstone," which opens at the Empire Theatre today was directed by Howard Bretherton from an original screen-play by Maurice Geraghty.

In Memoriam

MISS PRISCILLA M. AYERS

To many Islanders at home and abroad the news of the death of Miss Priscilla M. Ayers of Saskatoon will come as a distinct shock. Miss Ayers who died on the evening of the 20th after a short illness was born in 1857 at Union Road Lot 33 the eldest of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ayers.

As a young woman Miss Ayers went to Boston, Mass., where for several years she conducted a successful dressmaking establishment. Later studying at Northfield, Mass. she prepared herself for the work of deaconess and pastor's assistant in the Methodist church and was actively engaged in such work in New Hampshire, Vermont, New Jersey and Maine.

Coming home to Prince Edward Island in 1906 she helped care for her father in his last illness and some years later went to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, then only a small town where she became a prominent citizen, the owner of the Ayersleigh House and the Ayers Apartment Block. A woman of some considerable business ability she maintained a continued activity in her different business interests, and in her home and garden up till her last illness. As a lifelong member of the Methodist, later United Church, she was ever interested in things pertaining to the best welfare of the community and was one of the original members and strongest supporters of Third Avenue United Church, Saskatoon.

Among those who mourn her passing are the following brothers and sisters: Rev. Geo. Ayers, Summerside; Dr. J. H. Ayers, Charlottetown; Mrs. B. C. Hardy, Union Road; and Mrs. W. B. Leard, Souris.
