

Are doctors good for anything?
Foolish question! Yet some people act as if a medicine could take the place of a doctor! The best medicine in the world cannot do this. Have a family doctor, consult him frequently. If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds, we would not offer it to you.

CUT PRICES ON VEGETABLES.
Dry goods men are not going to have all the "Slaughter Sales" to themselves.
This fall we had packed under our personal supervision a few thousand cases of ripe tomatoes. These tomatoes are all our own production, taken direct from the vines and packed by experts. They are absolutely pure, coloring or sugar in their composition, and for the balance of this month we are going to run them off at the usual low price of 75c per doz. Small lots will be strictly 8c a can. We have still on hand about 30 barrels of apples in Bishop, Pippins, Baldwins, Greenings, Mann, Golden Russets, Wealthy, etc., and we are going to clear them at $2.25 to $3.75 per barrel. Very good apples 25 to 30c per peck.
For the balance of the month our special low cut on onions will continue.
Come and share in the deep cut sale.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN BOARD OF TRADE IN CONFERENCE

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news first of all.
Daniel McLaren, Bell River, was in the City yesterday.
The mail train arrived from Georgetown at noon yesterday.
G. A. Sharp left this City for Georgetown last night by the mail train and returns today.
A competent girl's understanding plain cutting should apply to 222 Queen St. See classified column.
The New Wonderland reader on page four gives a good idea of the program to be presented tonight.
Mrs. Rev. E. A. Westmoreland of Alton is visiting her parents Richard and Mrs. Carver Pownall for a few days.
Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.
In today's Guardian appears the annual showing of the Royal Bank of Canada whose energetic and popular agent in this City is J. F. McMillan.
The Guardian is pleased to learn that Miss Mary Ann Avon of Village Green, who met with the painful accident of a broken wrist a few days ago is gradually recovering.
Excelsior Lodge, I. O. G. T., is in a flourishing condition. At next meeting the following subject will be debated. Resolved that temperance causes more misery and sorrow than war.
Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and The Rural Daily not later than ten a. m. on Friday of each week as part of the big Saturday issue is printed on Friday.
Last night the Victoria Hockey Club decided to accept the offer of the Moncton team to play for the Starr Trophy. They leave next Sunday night and play on Tuesday and Thursday the 19th and 21st. Much interest will be taken in those games.
The following registered at the Queen Hotel, City, yesterday:—V. C. Storey, Toronto, George Wood, Halifax, James Wright, Morisburg, L. E. Pratts, wife and daughter, St. Peter's; J. W. Richards, Bideford; E. M. Hynes, Summerside; R. Rice, New Glasgow and W. H. Darrach, Kensington.
There was a record breaking crowd at the Unique last night and all enjoyed the fine pictures shown. The entertainment by Knight and Seaton in their roller skate dance proved most pleasing as did also Mr. Ban's the monologist whose funny stories caused much laughter. The singers were loudly incited.
What will probably be one of the best Bassett Ball games of the season will be played tonight between the fast P. W. C. team, which has not been beaten this year, and the Busby's team, which has been greatly strengthened. The line up will be as follows:—P. W. C., W. M. Kenzie and S. McKenzie, forwards; C. Balderson, Centre, Athol Seaman and D. Laird, Guards. Business Men, W. B. Prowse and Jack McDermid, forwards, Jack McKay, Centre, R. H. Campbell and Frank Stewart, Guards. There will also be a game between the P. W. C. 2nd team and the Tigers.
The local dancing contest at New Wonderland, last night, drew a house with standing room only, when the local people came on. Brown and Wilcox along with the excellent picture and illustrated song, afforded entertainment in plenty, until the local contestants appeared. The contests were entirely free from burlesque features, and each contestant did his or her best. For dancing the Highland Fling in appropriate costume little Harry (Irish) aged six years, won first prize, which was $2.50. Jack Prowse the second prize of $1.50 and Jack McIntyre third prize. The other competitors were awarded consolation prizes by both the lady manager and Mr. Brown, who was judge of the prize winners. This was a good entertainment, well patronized and full of encouragement to local people, who certainly deserve all commendation for their clever work. The Guardian understands that another local contest along general lines is announced for next Monday, the audience to decide the prize winners. It deserves encouragement and will doubtless receive it.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, was in the City yesterday.
American Consul Hall, City, returned from Halifax yesterday.
Dr. Nutting Taylor, Montreal, arrived in the City yesterday.
Sergt. Doyle, City, is reported to be steadily improving in health.
Jack Gaudet of Winnipeg is expected home today to visit his parents in this City.
O. M. Dunn, who was with the Harkins Company when they played here last autumn, died in Boston last week of Bright's disease.
Pownall School is progressing favorably under the able management of Ernest Drake, who was one of the successful candidates in the Civil Service examinations.
The young men, Dubois and Gaudin who sought shelter the other night at the Police Station, have since been kept by Prof. Arsenault, who has secured work for them at St. Dunstan's College.
Shippers from this Province who have smelt and wish to dispose of are asked to write to Marston & Russell, 119 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, as they are seeking consignments in this Province for which they will secure highest market prices and make prompt returns.
With the very best methods for handling and displaying goods, Frank J. Leach & Co. fish commission merchants 147 Wharf, Boston, solicit consignments from this Province. They will answer all correspondence, send stencils and all information upon enquiry, always securing the highest market prices.
On Tuesday evening a very pleasant social, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Pownall, was held at the home of S. F. Drake, Waterside. Although the evening proved stormy a goodly number gathered. The hours were spent in music and games after which refreshments were served and an offering taken for the Frances Palmer Memorial Fund.
The choir, Sunday School teachers and officers of St. James Church were entertained by the trustees and ladies of the congregation to an enjoyable banquet at seven o'clock last evening in the Sunday School. After refreshment—bright spicy speeches, songs, instrumental music and readings were given after which all joined in merry games making a very pleasant and sociable evening.

Nelson Riggs, son of William Riggs, City, Driving Car Conductor on the C. P. R. was in the wreck at Gull Lake, Alberta, on the 31st of December. The tourist car and dining car went over a forty foot embankment. One man was killed and many women and children hurt in the tourist car. There were six men in the dining car but none were very seriously hurt except Mr. Riggs, who got a bad cut on the shoulder and head. He is out of danger now and at his home in Montreal.
Prince Edward Division, No. 1, S. O. T. held a very impressive memorial service in respect to their late Brother David Small in their hall last night. The W. P. J. A. Lawso presided and opened the meeting by short address. Other speakers were Revs. H. E. Thomas and Ross, S. F. Hodgson, Dr. McDonald, George E. Foster and Roland Meikle. The addresses were interspersed with singing. Miss Ada Harris presided at the organ and also gave a solo the vacant Chair, and a duet in company with Miss Higgins entitled When the Roll is Called up Yonder. Other songs were Meet Me There and One Sweetly Solemn Thought. The memorial service as given in the Sons of Temperance was very appropriately rendered by the Division. The whole meeting was suitable and impressive. All the speakers referred to the untiring devotion of Mr. Small, in the temperance work and his effort for good citizenship. He left his impression not only on Charlottetown but throughout the whole of this Province and his memory will be wont to remain with the people for many years to come.
