BUYING—A TITLE.

Marriages between American her-esses and titled foreign gneus have been so frequent this year that newspapers give them each only a paragraph, and news of a divorce would command scarcely more space. Perhaps the price has decreased within the last few years, but the following shows what titles have cost some American girls:

Anna Gould had to pay 1 1/2 million dollars for Count Boni de Castellane's debts and extravagances, and then married the Prince De Sagan, who owed four million dollars, which she is now helping to pay. The Earl of Yarmouth had his debts of two million dollars paid by Alice Thum and had 1 1/2 millions settled on him. A million of this was in real estate, and was saved by the Thaw lawyers when the couple separated. The Earl soon will wed a widow, and Miss Thaw recently was married to an American. Count Szechenyi had five million dollars settled on him, of which he was to have the income for life, when he married Gladys Vanderbilt. Three million more, which she had as her share of the Vanderbilt estate, is gone, and four years of the income with it, in the Count's efforts to be a financier.

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

FEAR NO EVIL. Behold, how independent of outward circumstances the Holy Ghost can make the Christian! What a bright light may shine within us when it is all dark without! How peaceful, how happy, how calm, how serene we may be, when the world shakes to and fro, and the pillars of the earth are removed! Even death itself, with all its terrible influences, has no power to suspend the music of a Christian's heart, but rather makes that music become more sweet, more clear, more heavenly, till the last clear act which death can do is to let the earthly strain melt into the heavenly chorus, the temporal joy into the eternal bliss! Let us have confidence, then, in the blessed Spirit's power to comfort us. Dear reader, are you looking forward to poverty? Fear not, the divine Spirit can give you, in your want, a greater plenty than the rich have in their abundance. You know not what joys may be stored up for you in the cottage around which grace will plant the roses of content. Are you conscious of a growing failure of your bodily powers. Do you expect to suffer long nights of languishing and days of pain? O be not sad! That bed may become a throne to you. You little know how every pang that shoots through your body may be a refining fire to consume your dross—a beam of glory to light up the secret parts of your soul. Are your eyes growing dim? Jesus will be your light. Do the ears fail you? Jesus' name will be your soul's best music, and His person your dear delight. Socrates used to say, "Philosophers can be happy with their 'ic,' and Christians can be happier than philosophers when all outward causes of rejoicing are withdrawn. In Thy illness, without! By Thy power, O blessed Spirit, my heart shall be exceeding glad, though all things should fail me here below.

ALWAYS CONSULT THE PHONE DIRECTORY.

Almost every day The Guardian receives orders by mail to insert news matter of an advertising nature. In most of these cases the senders, who are frequently not known to any member of the staff and who have no account in the advertising department, write "Please insert the following and oblige," thus apparently implying that they think the items will be inserted free. Only a few weeks ago a reader wrote asking that his advertisement of Farm for Sale be inserted free from day to day until he cancelled it, as he is a subscriber to The Guardian. In this connection it may be said that the subscription price is not sufficient to even pay the actual cost of paper, ink, presswork, mailing, bookkeeping and other expenses of the Circulation department proper, and thus subscribers have no privileges of free advertisement and are on the same footing as non-subscribers. Seldom ever does the sender state whether the item is to appear in the Morning Daily or in the Evening Daily, whether for one or more times in either Daily, or in both, whether as a display advertisement, announcement, business local, classified, ad or otherwise. When for church or charitable purposes they seldom ever say so, or do not enclose sufficient money to pay for same, all of which will be returned by first mail in the event of the item not being chargeable, or if more money is sent than necessary to pay for the item the surplus will be returned at once, there being a greater discount for cash with order for advertising of churches etc than for regular business. In all such cases the Advertising department communicates with the sender as quickly as possible by mail or phone, often paying the messenger service to get them to the telephone if not too far distant, thus saving all possible time. People write this office to know if News, Letters to Editors, etc., are charged for, and to all such there is but one reply—all items, etc., of a money making nature, are chargeable, though they are of a new nature, are chargeable. For instance, the advance notice or notices of a concert, lecture, pie social, picnic, etc., are chargeable if there is an admission fee, silver collection, sale of pies or sale of food or refreshments, etc. Advance notices of purely religious services, even though a silver collection is to be taken up, are not chargeable. The particulars of any of the above, after they have been held, are, however, news and thus not chargeable. The news of the past, present or future business, which is still being conducted, is chargeable, if it is apparent that the object is to make the business more widely known and thus increase it. Versus accompanying death notices are also chargeable. Even items which are actual news and not chargeable but once in either Morning Daily or Evening Daily or both are chargeable for more than one insertion, as they are thus not news. The above facts are given for the purpose of assisting persons who have items, etc., to mail to this office, so that delay and disappointment will be avoided.
